PURCHASE IS OUTRIGHT

Lefthander Was With the Brooklyn Team in 1916-McCredle Looking for Another Hurler to Bolster Up Team.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT. W. W. McCredle last night announced purchase of a new pitcher, Walter Mails, from the Pitts-land either in Los Angeles or upon the Beaver's return home May 29. Mails formerly twirled for the Seattle club, of the Northwestern League, and the simple announcement of his purchase by Portland doe snot do full justice to the story. His case is most interesting and unusual. Several seasons ago Malls used to officiate as bat boy for the Portland club upon its trips to San Francisco and Oakland. In that capacity the youngster picked up many a tip on how to perform in the box. Mails Well Known Here.

Walter McCredie forgot all about him until he made a trip to Seattle in 1915, when Malis was the big star on D. E. Dugdale's great team of that year. As he stood talking with Tealey Raymond prior to the game, up stepped a big left-hander and extended his hand to the Portland manager with the remark: "Twe grown up a little bit since I used to stack bats for you, ch, Mac?" It was this same Mails who now omes back to Portland via the big league route.

Mails won two games and lost two when he broke in at Seattle in 1914, but the following season he won 24 and lost 18 for the Scattle club and made such a fine showing that the Brooklyn Nationals purchased him before the Northwestern season closed.

His name does not appear in the Na-tional League record books for 1916 as having participated in more than 16 games, so apparently Manager Robin-son used him for warming up exer-cises. Pittsburg obtained Mails this year and his shift to Portland is the "Chuck" Ward Going Well. McCredie says his purchase is out-right, no strings being held by the Pirates. Mails' acquisition likely closes the Ward deal, for it was known closes the Ward deal, for it was known that Pittsburg still owed the McCredies a player in this deal. Farmer and Siglin were the other two players involved. Ward seems to be making good with the Pirates. The latest batting averages show him up around .275. This is better than he did in the Coast League and the wisacres are inclined to the opinion that "Chuck" is going considerable over his head.

Walter McCredie is out after another pitcher. He says he does not intend to sit back and see his otherwise crack ball club shot full of holes because of inefficient pitching.

the release of one or two of the present crew. It is to be hoped that Byron Houck gets another good game out of his system while the team is down South. Byron is one of the finest fel-
