BEAN BILL ON BALLOT Circuit Court Rules Act Passed Legally. APPEAL WILL BE TAKEN Practice From Territorial Times Has Been for House or Senate to Concur by Motion on Amendments Offered. The Bean bill, providing for taxing the Oregon & California land grant lands, was legally passed by the State Legislature and is consequently entitled to go on the ballot for the vote of the people at the coming election. This is the substance of a decision handed down by Circuit Judge Bingham yesterday in the proceedings instituted against U. G. Boyer, County Clerk of Marion County, to prevent the bill going on the ballot. The action came up for hearing in the shape of a demurrer to the original complaint, and Judge Bingham sustained the demurrer. Announcement was made late yesterday that the case would be appealed to the Supreme Court. House Accepts Amendment. The bill was originally passed by the House. It then went to the Senate, where it was passed with an amendment providing for its referring to the people. The House then concurred in the amendment by a vote of 28 to 26. The technical legal question involved was whether this concurrence on the part of the House was the final passage of the bill and, as such, required a majority vote of all members, which would be 31 votes. The contention of supporters of the bill was that the vote on concurrence was not the final passage of the bill and that consequently merely a majority of a quorum was required. The case came up for final hearing before Judge Bingham last Tuesday night and was argued at that time by Martin L. Pipes, representing District Attorney Gehlhar, of Marion County, who opposed putting the bill upon the ballot, and Frank S. Grant, ex-City Attorney, and L. E. Bean, of Eugene, framer of the bill, who contended the bill was legally passed and should go on the ballot. Custom Is Followed. Judge Bingham held that contemporaneous interpretation of the constitutional requirements for concurring in an amendment on the part of the House or Senate favored a decision that the bill in question had been legally adopted. He also declared that when the question was not free from doubt that in itself was sufficient reason for sustaining the act. He cited the practice of the Legislature from territorial times to concur in an amendment merely by motion or a majority vote of a quorum. "An examination of the House and Senate Journals shows that the practice is quite uniform not only from the adoption of the constitution, but under territorial legislation," he said. "The precise question here involved has not been passed upon by our Supreme Court. In State vs. Rogers it was insisted that every amendment to a bill should be read and the vote taken in the same manner as on the passage of the bill, which says Mr. Justice Bean, may be well doubted. In other jurisdictions it has been held that the vote on concurring in an amendment is not a vote on the final passage of the bill."

BUYERS' WEEK IS SET NORTHWEST MERCHANTS WILL MEET HERE AUGUST 6-11. "Business As Usual" Slogan Adopted by Executive Committee Handling Details of Event. The fifth annual Buyers' Week date has been set. The event marking the fifth anniversary of the merchants' conclave will be held during the week of August 6-11. Elaborate preparations are being planned for the entertainment of the merchants of the Northwest who are expected to be in attendance this year. Approximately 900 buyers were present at last year's Buyers' Week, but it is expected that the fifth anniversary will see a bigger registration of buyers in proportion to the increase in previous years. The fifth annual Buyers' Week is in charge of the trade and commerce bureau of the Chamber of Commerce, of which Nathan Straus is chairman. The details are directed by an executive committee consisting of the following prominent jobbers and manufacturers: F. A. Spencer, chairman; A. H. Devers, George Lawrence, Jr., O. W. Mielke, A. J. Bale, W. H. Beharrell, Jay Smith, O. H. Fithian, A. C. Black and F. S. West. "Business As Usual" is the slogan adopted by the executive committee predicated upon the patriotic duty of keeping industry active, factories busy and labor well employed. The prosperous times generally anticipated throughout the territory may necessitate a revision of the slogan to "Business Better Than Usual."

ENLISTED SON IS LOCATED Mrs. F. A. Rodgers Wants Boy to See His Dying Father. Anxious that her son, who offered up his services to the country more than a year ago, may return home on a brief furlough to visit his father who is thought to be near death, Mrs. F. Rodgers claims from another employe, E. W. Cole Murphy Rodgers, 22, entered the Army more than a year ago while his parents were visiting in Kansas. The request of one city employe, W. H. Ney, for pay for time he lost on account of sickness was turned down by the City Council yesterday, and a similar claim from another employe, E. W. Paget, was allowed in the sum of $825. Mr. Ney claimed his attack of appendicitis was due to tonsillitis contracted as a result of a poorly-heated room in which he works at the City Hall. The Council could not see the connection between his work and his sickness. Mr. Paget claimed that his sickness was due to a nervous breakdown on account of overwork as cashier in the City Treasurer's office. The Council got reports showing that overwork had been done and allowed him one month's full salary and part time pay for the other eight months he was sick. The American Ambassador was blessed and the German Ambassador cheered at a recent session of the Mexican parliament.
