TWINS WITH GOLDEN RINGLETS ARE HONOR GUARD CANDIDATES FOR ROSE FESTIVAL FAIRY QUEEN.

Velma and Thelma Howard. "Let the Golden Head Twins get it." That's the slogan of the Honor Guard girls.

The girls have indicated as their candidates for the office of fairy queen of the Rose Festival Velma and Thelma Howard, the 7-year-old, golden, or rather, Titian-haired twins, who are the adopted daughters of Dr. Della B. Howard, of 263 West Broadway.

The twins are working hard for votes. They have a good-natured sort of understanding, or family trust, in which there is no jealousy, only good-natured rivalry.

Matches scheduled for Monday can be played Sunday by appointment. The full schedule for Monday's matches will be announced in The Sunday Oregonian.

PORTLAND DEAF TO LIBERTY BONDS

Banks' Patriotic Effort to Help Government With Loan Falls Hopelessly Flat.

MEN OF WEALTH TOO BUSY. Lumbermen Trust Company Sends Salesmen Through Many of Business Houses, but Response to Appeal is Trifling.

GOVERNOR WITHYCOMBE BUYS FIRST LIBERTY BOND IN OREGON. SALEM, Or., May 17.—(Special.)—Governor Withycombe set a good example to the rest of the state today by making application for a Liberty bond.

Portland people apparently don't take the Liberty Loan seriously. Aside from a few isolated cases, efforts of the banks to get subscriptions here yesterday fell hopelessly flat.

It is apparent that unless the people who are able to invest in large amounts are awakened to a realization of their duty, this war is going to be financed largely by the small subscriber—the man or the woman who buys bonds in $50 and $100 lots.

The banks themselves have subscriptions in the name of the big corporations are preparing to invest their surplus in Liberty Loans, but the wealthy individual who has more or less available cash at his disposal has not conspicuous around the bank counters yesterday.

Saleman Canvass for Bonds. The Lumbermen's Trust Company sent its entire staff of salesmen out on a canvass for Liberty bonds.

BANKS TO BUY MILLIONS. The banks themselves are making heavy investments of surplus funds in the loan.

AUTO BUS HITS COW

Vehicle Is Shunted Off Road and Six Are Hurt.

INJURIES OF TWO SERIOUS. Accident Occurs When Bus Turns Sharp Curve on St. Helens Road, 15 Miles From Portland—Passengers Rushed to Hospital.

The large St. Helens auto bus collided with a cow on the road from St. Helens to Portland last night about 8 o'clock, while turning a sharp curve near Rock Point, 15 miles from Portland.

The bus is a large, covered automobile, and the reinforced top, which protected the occupants, believed to have saved the passengers from being crushed to death.

Edward Turner is a son of Captain Turner, well-known river master. Meager details of the accident indicate that Mr. Turner came upon the cow in the middle of the road just as the bus turned the sharp curve and in attempting to dodge it, coupled with the fact that the cow shambled directly into the path of the bus, precipitated the crash.

Here Is Prompt Relief From That Tired, Worn-out Feeling

That Afflicts So Many People Just at This Season.

If you are easily fatigued, if you find your appetite falling and are gradually losing your energy and a feeling of weakness and lassitude is creeping over your entire body, do not disregard nature's warning signal.

These symptoms mean that you are about to succumb to the impurities that have been accumulating in your system all winter, clogging up your blood supply and rendering you totally unfit for the important change in seasons about to take place.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE

By LILIAN TINGLE.

PORTLAND, May 17.—Will you kindly tell me how to can fruit and vegetables without the use of chemical preservatives? "Canning powders," for use in canning fruit without boiling, were on the market some years ago, but they were harmful and are now forbidden by the pure food law.

KNOW no method of canning fruits and vegetables without boiling, and without the use of chemical preservatives. "Canning powders," for use in canning fruit without boiling, were on the market some years ago, but they were harmful and are now forbidden by the pure food law.

Uncooked strawberries, currants, peaches and pineapple can be put up with very large quantities of sugar; but that is not a practical method at this time, and the fruit is so preserved, not a "canned" fruit. Some vegetables may be salted or pickled and put up without cooking, but I know of no other fruit, and no vegetables, for which this simple method can be used.

Homemade Vinegar.—The following method has been recommended to me, but I have not tried it personally. It requires 10 gallons of coarse brown sugar, 10 gallons water, one cup "brewer's yeast" or three fresh compressed yeast cakes. Boil the sugar in three gallons water and skim while boiling. Take from the fire; pour in a gallon of cold water; strain into a 10-gallon crock; add the rest of the water; add the yeast cakes broken in pieces, or the brewer's yeast spread over the surface; cover with a cloth for a week; then take a piece of gauze over the bung-hole, set where the sun will shine on it; let ferment six weeks; ready for filtering. It is better, if possible, to put in some "vinegar plants" (mother of vinegar) from a micro-organism from previously made vinegar.

A smaller amount can easily be made by dividing the above recipe.

CORRECTION AGREED TO

Collier's to Correct False Statements About Port of Portland.

Collier's Weekly, in which appeared this week an article by Wilbur Hall regarding port conditions in Portland, will correct the injustices done the port in its issue of May 22.

Mark Sullivan telegraphed Thursday night to L. E. Smith, chairman of the port committee here, in response to his protest against the statements in the Hall article, saying that the magazine will make correction, and asking that complete information relative to port and channel conditions be telegraphed or forwarded at once by letter.
