WASHINGTON, May 23 .- The news paper censorship fight was reopened in Congress today following President Wilson's action in personally intervening to insist upon inclusion of some forms of press regulation in the pending espionage bill.

The President's desire for censorship power of some sort was emphasized today to Senate conferees on the espionage bill, who were called to the White House for the purpose, Surprise over the step was expressed generally at the Capitol, where the belief had grown that the Administration had ac-cepted the Senate's unfavorable vote as JITNEY DRIVERS 'STUNG'

final. Whether the Administration will at-tempt to force through a censorship authorization was said tonight to de-pend upon soundings being made by leaders among the House and Senate membership, especially the former. The conferees held another meeting today, but were unable to break their dead-lock over censorship, and adjourned lock over censorship and adjourned until Friday to sound out sentiment. Should the leaders find that there is a reasonable prospect of acceptance by the House of modified censorship. It was stated tonight that the conferees had agreed tentatively to adopt and
