

FOOD SURVEY BILL PASSED BY HOUSE

Senate Devotes Day to Debating Cattle Tick Appropriation in Measure.

ITEM GREATLY REDUCED

Motion to Eliminate $2,500,000 for Seeds to Be Sold to Farmers at Cost and for Fight on Plant Disease Is Up.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The Administration's food survey bill, first of the food-control measures, was passed by the House today without a record vote. It appropriates $14,770,000 for an immediate investigation of the country's food resources and for measures to stimulate production of similar bills under debate in the Senate, and may be passed there Wednesday.

The Agricultural Department expects to present a preliminary report with an estimate of food resources within three weeks after the bill is signed by the President, Secretary Houston said today.

The preliminary report to be made within three weeks will be supplemented with monthly reports and probably by a further complete report within six months if necessary.

Hoover to Be Advised. The material gathered will be turned over to Herbert C. Hoover, who has been named to head a food administration as soon as the pending regulatory food measure becomes law.

The survey bill passed virtually as it came from the committee. Miss Rankin, the woman Representative from Montana, inserted an amendment which would require the Department of Agriculture to use women in the survey work whenever practicable.

An amendment by Representative McKenzie, of Illinois, would make all persons employed under the bill liable to military service, and another would permit citizens to refuse to go more than 300 miles from their homes or place of business to testify in a food inquiry.

Seed Fund Provided. As originally drawn, the bill carried more than $18,000,000, but committee changes reduced the total. These are the principal amounts appropriated: For seeds, $5,778,000; education for increasing production by waste elimination, and conservation, $4,348,400; general survey, $2,522,000; eradication of livestock diseases and livestock improvement work, $885,000; miscellaneous items, $247,400, and eradication of plant diseases and insects, $441,000.

Many Republicans, including Speaker Cannon, repeatedly attacked the measure as wasteful, particularly as to the survey feature. Chairman Lever, of the agriculture committee, declared heatedly in closing debate today they were raising a false issue.

Senate Debates Cattle Tick. "It is not economy that these gentlemen desire to propagate that accounts for the opposition to the bill," he said. "It may be that the opposition can be accounted for because we are carrying power in the bill to go into storage concerns and find out who is hoarding and who is speculating."

The Senate devoted the day to debating and adopting an amendment by Senator McNary reducing the appropriation for the eradication of the cattle tick and other livestock diseases from $2,083,000 to $250,000. A motion to eliminate an appropriation of $2,500,000 for seeds to be sold to the farmers at cost by the department of agriculture and for the eradication of plant diseases was pending when the Senate adjourned.

ALBANY Criminal List Is Long.

ALBANY, Or., May 28.—(Special.)—Two men sent to the penitentiary. Five placed in the County Jail pending further disposition of their cases, one sent to the State Training School and one criminal complaint issued in a case where the arrest has not been made yet was the record of one day's work in the District Attorney's office here yesterday. This breaks all records here for one day for a great many years at least. The five men placed in the County Jail were all arrested in the same raid, the one of about $700 worth of wool from George B. and Dean Wheeler, of Plainview.

Removes Roots as Well as Surface Hairs

(Something New and Different.) The chemist who discovered the remarkable half-destroying properties of phenoline has conferred a genuine blessing upon a multitude of women. This peculiar substance seems to paralyze and shrink up the hair so that it is applied, right down to their roots—and these are the only way easily and quickly, roots and all, before one's very eyes!

Phenoline is perfectly odorless, non-irritating, non-poisonous—a child could eat it without the least harm. Not to be compared at all with depilatories or electrolysis. It leaves the skin so soft, smooth and hairless, no one would guess you ever had a moustache or other hairy growth. If you will obtain a pack of phenoline and follow the simple instructions, you will certainly be more than pleased—or druggist will refund the price without question.—Adv.

OFFICIALS IN WRECK

A. S. Rosenbaum, Coy Burnett Injured on Speeder.

TRAIN RESCUES VICTIMS

Southern Pacific Claim Agent and Attorney Are Hurt When on Inspection Trip Following Suit Over Accident.

EUGENE, Or., May 28.—(Special.)—A. S. Rosenbaum, general claim agent for the Southern Pacific Company, and Coy Burnett, general trial attorney for the same company, both of Portland, were injured today when a railroad speeder on which they were riding to Canby, on the Coos Bay line of the Southern Pacific system, collided with a rock which was wedged against the track.

Mr. Rosenbaum sustained a fracture of a leg. His face was also badly lacerated. Mr. Burnett was severely injured and submitted to an X-ray examination to determine if any bones were broken. Two employees of the railroad company who were operating the speeder escaped uninjured.

Mr. Rosenbaum and Mr. Burnett were making the trip to Canby to view the site where William J. Framheln, a telegraph operator in the employ of the company, was killed June 26, 1916, in a speeder accident. Framheln was run down by a work train in tunnel No. 4 near that place. His heirs recently filed suit in the Lane County Circuit Court for damages in the sum of $50,000.

The claim agent and attorney for the company arrived in Eugene this morning and left for the scene of the Framheln accident a short time after the wreck the Coos Bay passenger train, northbound, was flagged and they were taken aboard and came to Eugene where Mr. Rosenbaum was rushed to a hospital. Dr. Andrew Smith, of Portland, was a passenger on the train and rendered first-aid services.

RATE RISE IS FOUGHT

FOOD PRODUCTION WOULD BE CRIPPLED, DECLARE FARMERS. Increase of 15 Per Cent Would Drive Cattlegrowers Out of Business, Say Livestock Representatives.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—Agricultural and livestock interests, protesting to the Interstate Commerce Commission today against the railroad's proposal for a 15 per cent general increase in freight rates, declared that such a revision not only would unjustly burden food producers, but would handicap seriously the whole food production initiated by the Government as a war measure.

During the day's hearing representatives of the American National Livestock Association and of the National Council of the Farmers' Co-operative Association submitted a mass of evidence calculated to show that stock-raisers and farmers already are bearing unusually heavy expenses and could not make a supporting profit if a freight increase were added.

Speaking for the livestock association, T. W. Tomlinson told the Commission that Western cattle producers will have to get 25 per cent more than last year for their product, even under present conditions, in order to make a living. Even then, he said, many cattlemen doubtless would have to go out of business, for which an increased freight rate to market the effect was sure to be felt in a decrease in meat production.

Both Mr. Tomlinson and Clifford Thorne, who appeared for the farmers' association, pointed out in detail how the price of everything entering into grain and meat production had increased. The Middle Western farmer,
