CHURCH MAY FIGHT

Plea for Militant Christianity Made by Dr. Eldridge.

PATRIOTISM CALLED DUTY

Democracy Declared to Be Only Another Name for Christianity and That It Is Fighting Battle of Moral Freedom.

"A patriotic act done now is a religious sct."

This statement, made yesterday by the Rev. E. Olin Eldridge, formed the dominating theme of his sermon in Mount Tabor Methodist Church. Dr. Eldridge, made a strong place for a Mount Tabor Methodist Church. Dr. Eldridge made a strong plea for a church militant with banners planted on the firing line of every moral conflict. He said the world is now in the midst of a patriotic as well as a religious revival, and the church must do her part in the big work.

Two texts were used by Dr. Eldridge—"And he said 'nay,' but as captain of the host of the Lord am I now come," and "Put on the whole armor of God."

Dr. Viola Mae Coe returned on Saturday from Mandan, N. D., where she went to attend the eighty-sixth birthday anniversary of her mother, Mrs. Sarah Boley. Dr. Coe was accompanied by her niece, Miss Viola May Boley, who will pass the Summer in Portland.
