

GORKY TAKES LEAD TO REMAKE RUSSIA

Author Abandons Politics to Devote Time to Culture Among People.

HOPE IS PUT INTO SCIENCE

Anarchy in New Republic Is Expected to Be Only Temporary. Provided Technical Knowledge Is Disseminated.

PETROGRAD, June 17, via London, June 18.—Maxim Gorky, the author is taking the lead in a widespread movement for political and economic reconstruction of Russia...

Anarchy Thought Temporary. "As regards our internal condition, I advise you not to believe the talk about anarchy too readily. Undoubtedly anarchy existed long before the revolution..."

"Today many are disillusioned. I am beginning even to feel that the revolution is ruining Russia. This querulousness is a natural product of our national passivity and its equivalent to crying fire without smoking the pipe..."

"Through lack of science half of our peasant children die before reaching the age of 5. From the same cause nearly all the peasant women suffer from women's complaints. The moult cultivates the land so badly that the average yield is less than one-fourth the yield obtained in England or Belgium..."

"Conditions in our cities are equally bad. We have no drainage anywhere. Our town soil is poisoned. We are choked with smoke and dust. Town children are rickety nervous wrecks. Against such evils we need not sterile dreams but science, technique, machines, efficiently developed industry..."

"I have admirable collaborators already and intend to appeal to all classes of workers, manufacturers and professions to assist and to provide the vast sums which are necessary. I believe firmly in our nation's genuine aspirations to higher civilization. I consider our present troubles transitory and our future bright..."

TOKIO BEGINS CALM

Agitation Over American Note to China Subsides.

FACTS GIVEN PARLIAMENT

Government Unlikely to Accede to Clamor of Chauvinists for Forcing Recognition of Position of Japan in Peking.

TOKIO, June 18.—In explaining to leading members of Parliament the action of the United States in dispatching a note to China regarding the restoration of domestic tranquility, Viscount Motono, the Foreign Minister, said today that the United States had consulted Japan on June 8 suggesting that identical representations be made to China. Japan deemed it proper to consult her allies before responding. The Foreign Minister understood Great Britain took the same view as Japan, which was that it was undesirable at present to make representations which might prove to be an untimely intervention. The attitude of the Foreign Minister said, probably was the same as that of Great Britain. Japan, therefore, decided to adhere to the policy of non-interference.

The agitation in Japan over the action of the United States has subsided. It was due to the fact that Washington acted independently without consulting Japan beforehand. The government probably will not accede to the clamor of the Chauvinists in not making a statement, which the recognition of Japan's paramount position in China. The Conservative element think such action might be misunderstood in the United States. The Japanese minister said, an attempt to take advantage of the fact that America is preoccupied by the war and might prejudice the success of the Japanese mission to the United States. The entire Chinese question, however, will likely be discussed during the stay of the Ishii mission in America. It probably will leave for the United States July 2.
