Mias Kitty Marlon, a suffragist, but who is said not to be a member of the Woman's party, also is detained owing to an altercation she had with "Jones" over the sale of a suffrage magazine.

Police ripped two banners out of the hands of the suffragists and broke the pole. Lucy Burns, one out of the hands of the suffragists and broke the pole. Lucy Burns, one of the leaders, was the only woman to resist arrest vigorously. She battled with an officer for possession of a banner she carried and finally triumphantly wrenched the pole from the hands of the large policeman.

Crowd Happy in Riot. A crowd of several hundred persons saw the clash. While there was much yelling, and such cries as "Send them over to the Kaiser," "They ought to be sent up for life," were frequently heard, the crowd apparently was good

DARING RIDER, INJURED AT ALBANY ROUND-UP, WHO WILL THRILL PORTLAND CROWDS.

Ollie Osborn, who was injured at the Albany Round-up Tuesday during one of her thrilling rides, is recovering and announces that she will be on hand for the Portland Round-up, which takes place at the Multnomah Field next Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Oille gained much fame in New York City at the famous Madison Square Garden last year as a broncho-buster, winning over many of the best horsemed and women of the world. She is one of the few women who can buildog a steer, leaping from her galloping horse onto the back of the brute as it tears madly around the arena, and using its horns as a lever, inserting her teeth in the lip of the animal, throwing and holding it on the ground. She will be one of the star features of Portland's first Round-up next week.

Dr. Boyd Originates Plan.

The plan for a state conference of ministers of the several denominations to study common problems was first suggested by Rev. John H. Boyd, D. D., of the First Presbyterian Church in Portland, in 1913. The general purposes of the assembly have been to increase of the individual minister, to bring together more effectually the moral and intellectual forces of organized religion, and to promote such a spirit on interdenominational comity as might lead to the gradual elimina-tion of unwise competition among the churches, particularly in the small towns and rural communities. The conference in 1914 devised plans by which ministers could make par-tial surveys to determine where serious waste occurs in religious and church

Results were laid before the con-ference in 1915 and each denomina-tion was asked "to appoint a dele-gate to form a state interdenomina-tional commission to consider the whole field of country life and church work. this commission to secure such surveys as necessary as a basis of inter-denominational co-operation."
