

N. E. A. CONVENTION IS FULLY FINANCED

School District Makes Up $1500 County Finds It Cannot Subscribe.

EARLY ARRIVALS ARE HERE

Seattle Expects to Have 400 Teachers at Convention—O. M. Plummer, of School Board, Urges State Instructors to Come.

Finances sufficient to carry out the original plans of entertainment of the National Education Association convention, as outlined by the Portland committee, were assured yesterday, when the School Board came to the front and pledged $1500 to take the place of a like sum subscribed some time ago by the County Commissioners, but which the county found it could not pay, legally, according to the opinion of District Attorney Evans.

Mark Woodruff, secretary of the N. E. A. committee, appeared before the Board at its meeting yesterday and asked that the $1500 be made available from the funds of the school district and that it could be refunded by appearing before the County Commissioners and inducing them to put the sum in the next county budget.

A detailed statement of expenses, showing that to date the committee has expended a little over $10,000, there being a deficit on account of the failure to realize on the county subscription, of approximately $1800, was made, and upon motion the Board voted the sum asked.

It was stated that the committees having expenditures in hand are all limiting their expenses strictly to the estimates and that the committee will be able to show a clean slate when the affairs of the convention are wound up.

Early Arrivals Coming.

The vanguard of the big convention will commence arriving today. Carroll G. Pease, president of the board of trustees, head of the Milwaukee Normal School, Milwaukee, Wis.; J. W. Crabtree, ex-treasurer of the N. E. A. and president of the Wisconsin Normal School, River Falls, Wis.; and William B. Connelley, president of the National Council of Education and head of the Chicago Normal School, are expected to report at N. E. A. headquarters at the Multnomah Hotel this morning.

Tonight Ella Flagg Young, educator of international fame and former superintendent of the Chicago schools, will arrive at the Multnomah Hotel at 7 o'clock and others are expected to reach Portland during today. On Sunday it is expected special trains of visitors to the convention will come. The California special train parties are expected at that time. A delegation of 400 educators will attend from Seattle, according to Frank B. Cooper, city superintendent.

Superintendent Frank W. Simmons, Lewiston, Idaho, will arrive Sunday evening with 70 of his teachers.

Oregon Colleges Impress Aley.

Robert J. Aley, president of the National Education Association, when asked concerning his impressions of Oregon after making a speaking tour of the state, said: "I have visited the Oregon State University, the State Agricultural College and the State Normal School. I have been profoundly impressed with the excellence of the Oregon educational plants."

O. M. Plummer, member of the Portland School Board, who has long been prominent in the work of the N. E. A., urges every teacher and all persons interested in education within reaching distance of Portland to attend the convention without fail.

"I wish to make a personal appeal to the educators of Oregon, Washington and Idaho to attend the convention of the National Education Association for over 30 years the Northwest has been trying to secure this great organization, but up until this year without success."

RIVERS TO KEEP FALLING

Weather Warmer, but Rise Is Not Likely to Result.

Higher temperatures prevailed yesterday throughout the entire watershed of the Columbia River, in one instance the change being 23 degrees above that prevailing Wednesday, and while they will undoubtedly bring down more melted snow, Meteorologist Thibsen, of the weather bureau, says the effect will be to decrease the fall in the streams, but there is no danger of a rise. For the next few days he expects the drop to be decidedly small, yet will continue.

Official river readings yesterday were:

BOYS DO WELL IN HOMES

Wards of Juvenile Court Now Number 115 and County Saves Money.

A saving of $1265 monthly is being made by the home-placing department of the Juvenile Court, according to figures compiled by Will F. Spencer, chief officer, substantiated by Judge Taxwell.

Wards of the court who are now in satisfactory homes number 115. If these boys were confined in the Fraser Home as formerly the expense to the county would be $1265 a month.

"We are having splendid results from this work," said Judge Taxwell yesterday. "For the most part the boys are sent to the country, where the influences are of the best."

LIQUOR CASES DISMISSED

Prosecutors, Justice Holds, Must Prove Unlawful Procurement.

ASTORIA, Or., July 6.—(Special.)—Justice Carny today dismissed liquor cases against Otto Sund and Arna White, saying that under the 1917 law it is not unlawful to have liquor in one's possession, provided it is secured lawfully and one is not trying to dispose of it.

The court held the state did not show the defendants secured the liquor unlawfully. The case against Martin Costello was continued until July 8.

O.M. PLUMMER RESIGNS

SECRETARYSHIP OF STOCKYARDS COMPANY GIVEN UP.

Time Will Be Devoted to Campaign of Pacific International Livestock Exposition Fund.

O. M. Plummer has resigned as secretary and treasurer of the Portland Union Stockyards Company, a position he has held since the early '90s, in order to devote his entire time to the Pacific International Livestock Exposition, of which he is manager.

The Pacific International is now engaged in a campaign to raise $100,000 in Portland and $50,000 in the state outside the city for the erection of buildings and to carry on the great livestock show. The campaign was interrupted by the liberty bond and Red Cross drives, and the work will now be pushed vigorously.

L. R. McGee, the assistant secretary of the Stockyards Company, has been elected secretary and treasurer, succeeding Mr. Plummer. Mr. McGee has been connected with the company since it was established at its present location on the Peninsula in 1909, and of late has been acting as secretary. J. P. Johnson has been appointed assistant secretary.

Albany Pastor Resigns.

AID FOR INDUSTRIES AIM

Change in State Laws, Permitting Cities to Help Factories, Proposed.

To City Commissioner Kellaker Mayor Baker yesterday referred the question of an amendment to the state constitution to permit of municipal aid being provided for industries and factories. Mr. Kellaker will take steps to have the question referred to the voters at the next state election.

A measure was proposed prior to the last city election authorizing an issue of $500,000 in bonds to create a rotary fund which could be used in lending money, on interest, for factory

When the Baby Has Fever in Summer

Lighten his food at once. If you're nursing him, cut down the nursings. If you aren't nursing him, put him on the food which is the nearest thing in the world to mother's milk.

Of course, you know that you must nurse your baby just as long as you can. When you cannot nurse him any longer, then your big problem comes. What will you give him?

Nestlé's Food

(A Complete Milk Food—Not a Milk Modifier)

You see Nestlé's is milk with all the water evaporated so that it comes to you in a dry powder, and it has every baby need added and every germ danger banished. The sugar your baby needs is added, the malt and the baked wheat. Then it is reduced to a powder and put into airtight cans.

In that form it reaches you—just as light, just as safe for your baby as your own milk.

To Nestlé's you add only cold water and boil. Nestlé's does not sour, it will not spoil, it is always the same fresh, healthy food. You can rely on it as you rely on your own milk.

Join the millions of mothers who for half a century have given their big healthy babies Nestlé's Food.

Send this coupon today for the sample can of Nestlé's Food, and our Free Mother's Book, written by specialists, which answers thousands of puzzling questions about the care and feeding of your baby.
