give up the ghost, the Coast League will finish its schedule, declared Judge W. W. McCredie, of Fortland, before departing on an automobile trip to his hot springs in Lane County.

"I am not surprised that the Northwestern League has found it advisable to quit," said the Portland magnate. "None of the cities has been drawing well. I am given to understand the new Shipbuilders' League in Seattle has hurt professional baseball there tremendously.

mendously.

"We are not making any money now in the Coast League, but I believe the league will continue its schedule, even if the owners have to shoulder a Judge McCredie was asked if there would be baseball next year if the war lasts that long. "If the war still is on next year it would be far better for the Coast League and the Northwestern League to shut up shop," declared Judge Mc-Credie, "It would be impossible for us to run unless the players would acus to run unless the players would accept contracts calling for about 30 per what they are getting now. I don't blame the players for trying to get as much money out of their livelihood as possible. Yet it is not business for the owners to give them more money than is taken in at the gate."

Judge McCredie intimated that the receipts from the series at Los Angeles a week ago were pitifully small. All of which is interesting, in view of the fight that Los Angeles has carried on for two or three years to have Portland bounced out of the league. "Instead of kicking Portland out the Coast League should begin looking around with a view to expanding." he said. "Seattle rightfully and geographically belongs in the Coast League, and when baseball is resumed in the Sound city it would be nice to have it in the Coast League with an eighth franchise in Sacramento or San Diego." . . .

If the present nice baseball weather continues baseball should do well here this week with the Seals booked to meet the Beavers.

Sait Lake is said to be drawing fairly strong at the gate, and the same is true of San Francisco, although the daily receipts are far short of normal. Some of the pessimists predicted that when Wolverton was released the receipts would fad, away to nothing. The departure of Wolverton, however, hasn't affected the attendance much, according to bayside writers.

TENNIS SCHEDULE FOR MULTNO-MAH COURTS ANNOUNCED.

Miss Irene Campbell, Former Woman's State Champion, Is In Charge of Tournament.

The second annual handicap tennis tournament for members of the Women's Annex of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club will be started today on the Winged "M" courts and under the personal direction of Miss Irene Campbell, former Oregon state hampion and winner of the annual champion and winner of the annual Spring handicap tourney at Irvington Club last week.

Miss Campbell made the drawings last night and then made the schedule for today's play. The drawings for the women's doubles will be made after today's play, according to present plans. This was done because there are several of the racquet whelders who have not had the opportunity to enter.

"Every contestant who has been scheduled to play Monday," said Miss Campbell last night, must be ready to play or forfeit her match. This is quite necessary, as we want to complete the tournament by next Wednesday night—a three-day tourney, in other words. # Just Try It-

Of course you may think Mennen's Shaving Cream is "pretty good." Try it and you'll be dead sure. That's the way we find out about things—through investigation. The vacuum cleaner displaced the broom because some one tried the new way.

Mennen's Shaving Cream will make shaving easier and quicker than old time shaving soaps. It's as far ahead of them as the soaps. It's as far ahead of them as vacuum cleaner is ahead of a broom. Just
