

Marks could be found. When Mrs. Marks was asked con-cerning her husband's residence in Council Bluffs, she said she knew he had lived in Omain, but did not know about the other city. She visited Mr. Marks in the City Jali last night. He will be returned to Spokane tonight or Tuesday by officers from that city. He said he would waive extradition, provided he was requisitioned at once. -Governor Moses Alexander, of Idaho, to displication and hour in the front rank of an I. W. W. meeting at Main at V. W. meeting at Main at V. W. meeting at Main association having urged its several million women members to work and raise money for various forms of war relief. -FIELD HOSPITALERS WORK

GIRLS' CAMP LIVEL

tation to forget "lights out" at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Danforth, camp chaperon, writes: "I am having a splendid time The girls are perfectly lovely and there certainly is lots of fun. Winifred and I went clamming yesterday and got a dozen and a half clams and two crabs. Teil all the girls to come down; they B RIJETINOCED IC DEAR

Swiss residents, and served a term of

DELEGATES TO FEDERATION CON-VENTIONS ARE ARRIVING.

Mrs. Myra Kingman Miller, National President, Is in Portland for Delegates and officers of the Na-tional Federation of College Women have begun to arrive in the city. The Governor pushed his way into the front rank as the orator shouted his "Good-night," and purchased three booklets, which he tucked away in his president. Mrs. Myra Kingman Miller, of Long Beach, Cal, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Ruth Miller who acts as her mother's private secretary, are at the Multnomah. Mrs. Ida Callahan, first vice-presi-dent, of Corvaliis, Or. is

Mrs. Ida Callahan, first vice-president, of Corvallis, Or., is a guest at the home of Miss Abbie Wright. Miss Wright has charge of local arrange-ments, and has been asked by the executive board to act as recording secetary of the convention in place of Miss Sterritt, who is in the East. Delegates from the north, south and west arrived today and others are ex-pected tomorrow. Mrs. Emma J. Reid expected today. The Eastern clubs The Eastern clubs is expected today. The Eastern clubs felt that in this day of action they must do their bit, and thus made the sacrifice of not sending a delegation, but instead took the money appropriated for the purpose and divided it between the Red Cross and the liberty bonds. Perhaps no feature of the convert Perhaps no feature of the convention will attract more attention than the lecture by Mrs. Reid, who is a sci-entist, scholar, speaker, student, and, withal, a charming little womanly woman.

DEATH OF GRESHAM MAN DUE TO MOTOR ACCIDENT, JUNE 27.

Victim Well Known in Eastern Multnomah County and Had Just Supplanted Horse With Auto.

The funeral service of the late Albert E. Hockinson, of Gresham, who died at the home of his son, William H. Hockinson, 383 East Forty-second street, Friday morning, were held at Skewes chapel yesterday afternoon and were attended by a large number, including many from Gresham, Mr. Hockinson's for many years. He was in the fish business and his horse and wager were nian. Main 7070, A 6095.

"If you workingmen would cnly stand together you could do in this country what has been done in Russia," declared the I. W. W. orator. "You know what the workingmen there did to the slimy curs, the gunner and the stool pigeons of the capitalistic class. They bumped them off. They sent them up to say 'Good morning, Jesus.'' tool pigeons of the capitalistic class. hey bumped them off. They sent hem up to say 'Good morning, Jesus.'' Governor Alexander pulled his hand this crack Portland organization drill-from his trousers' pocket and beckoned to a vendor of I. W. W. literature. "You'll have to go up to the plat-form; we're taking the collection now. After the meeting, you can buy them," he was told.

Another Out With Sweetheart.

MOTHER OF PORTLAND MAN SUC-CUMBS AT EUGENE.

Woman Who Crossed Plains to Oregon in 1847 Is Survived by Four Children,

EUGENE, Or., July 8 .- (Special.)-Mrs. Elenor Blair Huff, one of four sisters who crossed the plains with their parents to Oregon in 1847 and who had watched the growth of Eugene from the time when there was only a single log cabin on the site of the present city, died at the home of her ighter, Mrs. George H. Smith, here

Mrs. Huff was born in Jackson Coun-ty, Indiana, in 1842 and came to this state in 1847. Eugene Skinner was a settler here. At that time her father. Pryor F. Blair, erected the second cabin Soldier Declared to Be Jealous of settlem Mrs Anna V. McCiaren, of Eugene, he only surviving member of the Pryor-Blair family. Mrs. Huff, who vas the oldest surviving communicant nember of the Episcopal Church in Eugene, is survived by four children, J. M. and H. T. Huff, of Eugene; Mrs. George H. Smith, of Eugene, and J. D. Huff, of Portland, Funeral services will be held Wednesday atternoon.

Six Arrested in Lodging-House,

Three women and three men were prested last night in a raid on a odging house at 3631/2 and 364 First home. Rev. Mr. Thompson, pastor of the Methodist Church at Gresham, officiat-ed, and a quartet of women from that city sang. Following the service the hody was taken to Vancouver for burial in the family plot. Albert E. Hockinson was 53 years old and had been a resident of Gresham for many years. He was in the fish business and his horse and was of were street last night by Captain Harms and

FIELD HOSPITALERS WORK First Week of Honor Guard Outing Is Big Success. Drill of Portland Unit Takes Place on Multnomah Field.

STUDY AND PLAY COMBINED

Plenty of Fun Provided on Lark and Site Between Astoria and Seaside Is Ideal-Weather Favors Outdoor Life.

The Summer camp of the Girls' National Honor Guard of Oregon has had one week of pronounced success, From one week of pronounced success. From every girl attending there comes word that she desires either to remain longer or return later in the season. This is the first time that Oregon girls have had such an excellent op-portunity to enjoy such pleasant and instructive outing. The most interest-

Auditorium to Be Decorated for N. E. A. Convention. The second for the second for N. E. A. Convention. The second for the ## Camp Is Near Astoria.

The Honor Guard encampment is midway between Astoria and Senside. The Astoria Honor Guard girls will Placentini accused his opposent of speaking disrespectfully of the United States Army. Monzelli denied the charge and said the quarrel was due to Placentin's jealousy because Mon-zelli was walking with a girl to whom the soldier had been attentive before enlisting. Both men were released.

One other interesting event of camp was told by Miss Louise Caswell, on a brief trip to Portland. On Tuesday night the girls built a huge bonfire or

Ex-President N. R. Leonard Dies BUTTE, Mont, July & Nathan R Leonard, 85 years old, well known as an educator, died here today. In 1900 he became president of the Montana State School of Mines. Professor Leonard was a fellow of the American Society for the Advancement of Science

Cosen and a half clams and two crabs. Tell all the girls to come down; they will never regret it." In addition to the pleasurable times the girls are learning some very im-hygiene, and are studying wig-wag-ging and sewing for the Red Cross. Information in regard to the camp may be obtained from 312 Selling building. Some few reservations are open for the me few reservations are open for th oming week, RED SCHOOLHOUSE USED orth

INFORMATION STATIONS FOUND HELPFUL TO EDUCATORS.

Decorative Festure on Street Corner Contain Telephones for Calling Up Headquarters.

A practical and serviceable element in the street decoration for the Na tional Education Association conven

Archbishop Christie Receives Visitors at Oldest Girls' School.

The coquetry of a soldier's sweet-heart and the same soldier's love for the honor of the Army were assigned as the cause of a fight between Carlo Placentini, a private from Fort Stev-ens, Or, and Mike Monselli, foil Third street, late last night. Placentini accused his opponent of speaking disrespectfully of the United States Army. Monzelli denied the charge and said the quarrel was due celli was walking with a girl to whom the soldier had been attentive before enlisting. Both men were released

CASTORIA For Infants and Children In Use For Over 30 Years

ASTORIA, Or., July 8 .- (Special.)-The 30-car cranberry crop of Lower Columbia River growers has already been sold, they declare.

Mr. Buetikofer was born in Ersin-

One solid piece - no cement-and perfect sight with the dis-comfort and unsightliness left out

Thompson's Deep - Curve Lenses - Wider field, clearer vision, greater comfort, improved appearance.

You Are Requested to Apply the Following Tests to Your Eyes and Report the Results to Us:

Do you see objects through a haze? Does the atmosphere seem smoky or foggy? Do spots or specks dance before the eyes? Do you see more clearly some days than others? Do you see better sidewise than straight forward? Do you see better in the evening or just after sundown than at midday?

Does a candle or street lamp seem expanded into a large flame?

Does a lamp or electric light seem to have a halo about it? Do luminous objects, like the moon, seem multiplied?

ONE CHARGE COVERS ENTIRE COST OF EXAMINATION, GLASSES, FRAMES

Portland's Oldest and Largest Exclusive Optical Place Established 1901.

209-10-11 Corbett Building, Fifth and Morrison

