Decision Reached by Directors After All-Day Conference at Spokane.

Attendance Poor All Season, Due to War and Weather Conditions. Percentage of Players to Be Lost in Draft.

SPOKANE, Wash., July 3.—Directors of the Northwestern Baseball League, after a meeting lasting all day, tonight voted to end the season of the league next Sunday. The six teams of the league will play out this week's games, Spokane at Butte, Tacoma at Great Falls and Seattle at Vancouver.

Poor weather early in the season and the war situation cut down attendance. Most of the clubs were losing money steadily.

S. R. Jensen, of Great Falls, and W. H. Davey, of Butte, made pleas that the schedule be run out as previously decided upon. They said their cities would return big dividends to any team visit-

The directors of the league made no comment on the result of the meeting, but issued the following statement for but issued the following statement for publication:

"On account of heavy financial losses already sustained, brought on by reason of war conditions and the fact that the Northwestern League will loss a certain percentage of its players in the selective draft about to be drawn and from the experience had by the Vancouver club since the war opened in 1914, the directors believe that conditions in baseball will grow worse instead of hetter until the close of the war, as the fans interest seems to be war, as the fans' interest seems to be centered in the war instead of our National game. National Ruling Protects,

"The National Association having ruled that any minor league compelled to suspend its season on account of conditions brought on by the war has the right to reserve its players, franchise and territory, the directors of the Northwestern League have decided to close its season with the games of Sun-day, July 15, 1917."

9 HOME RUNS MADE IN SERIES

Eight of Total Obtained by Beavers in Week at Salt Lake.

Home runs were a prime feature of last week's series at Salt Lake between the Bees and Beavers. Portland play-ers lambasted eight home runs over the fence and the Bees one. Williams led with three homers, Wille obtained two and Farmer, Fincher and Fisher one aplece. Dubuc cracked the clione aplece. Dubus cracked the cli-macteric clout for the Bees. Wille did some great hitting in the series, his week's average being 370. Other Beavers in order were: Borton, 357; Griggs, 348; Siglin, 233; Fisher, 259; Farmer, 242; Hollocher, 237; Williams, 200; Baidwin, 299, and Pinelli, 182. "Prexy" Baum Says There Will Be Baseball Next Year, Too.

war. This is his reply to the statement of Judge McCredle that the league would not be in the field next year if the European war is still on.

"If the war is still on next year it may be necessary for the Coast League to operate under different conditions," says President Baum, "but we will have baseball. It may be necessary for the players to work for less money, for the club owners are now paying out more than they are taking in, and they cannot be expected to continue doing that. But we will have baseball, and good baseball. Make that as strong as you like."

All three first-division teams maintained their former pace last week. Los Angeles came to life with a bang and humiliated the hapless Oaks seven games out of eight. Salt Lake took four out of seven from Portland and the Seals won five of eight.

Soon afterward Del Howard keyed his men to greater deeds and they began climbing at a dazzing speed until everybody had begun to look upon the Oaks as a first-division certainty. And that will be going downhill quite

And that will be goins downhill quite some distance past the crossroads. San Francisco, on the other hand, has displayed rare consistency. Two months ago the Seals stuck their periscope above the waters into the topmost position in the league and never since then have they been out of first place. Since the beginning of the season the week ending May 13 was the only week that closed with the Seals out of first position, and their percentage then was a mere .590. a mere .590.

According to R. C. He said he had secured a six months' furlough for Carpentier, who is a member of the French flying corps and has been flying at Verdun.

The plan is to have Carpentier go on a sparring tour of the large cities of the United States and, besides flemonstrating his skill with the gloves, show a quantity of war films which he will bring with him. He will not engage in any regular bout, but hopes to be able to gain many recruits for flying in France, and does not care whether they are gained for the French or American forces, as long as they battle for the allies.
