CHAUTAUQUA UNDER WAY

EXCELLENT TALENT APPEARS AT ST. JOHN'S MEETING.

Rev. J. Whitcomb Brounger Makes One of Opening Addresses, Talking on "What's Under Your Hat?"

The St. Johns Chautauqua, which is being held here this week, is exciting considerable interest among the people of St. Johns, quite a number also coming from other sections of the city to take in the attractions offered. The Chautauqua started its sessions Tuesday evening and will continue for seven days. A committee of 31 citizens of St. Johns and Portsmouth obligated themselves for the sale of 500 adult season tickets in order to secure this Chautauqua, which, by the way, is the first to appear in the city of Portland, it is said. The Chautauqua was formally opened with a few remarks by the committee president, H. W. Bonham, followed by Rev. A. P. Layton, of the Evangelical Church. N. H. Trimble, superintendent and morning lecturer, made response in a few well-chosen words, and the Chautauqua was on.

The opening lecture Tuesday evening was by Dr. James Whitcomb Brounger, well known in Portland and Los Angeles. His subject was, "What is Under Your Hat?" A number of friends of the speaker from other sections of the city came out to listen to the lecture.

Escaped Convict Arrested.

CENTRALIA, Wash., July 20.—(Special.)—Earl Mashburn, an escaped convict from the Oregon State Penitentiary, was arrested at Galvin, four miles west of Centralia, today, by Sheriff John Berry. Mashburn has been working in the camp of the Lincoln Creek Lumber Company. All of the company's loggers struck this morning and Mashburn was taken into custody as he was coming out of the woods. Mashburn was sentenced from Portland on an arson charge. He escaped under heavy fire after serving five weeks of his sentence. Read The Oregonian classified ad.

ROAD WORK CONSIDERED

S. S. SMITH AND BERT GREER, NEWS MEN, MEET COMMISSIONERS.

Proposed Surfacing of Famed Grade Across Siskiyou Mountains Is Topic at Meeting Here.

Two Southern Oregon newspaper men, from the Rogue River Valley, were in the city yesterday conferring with the State Highway Commission relative to the proposed surfacing of the famed grade across the Siskiyou Mountains, on the Pacific Highway. They were S. S. Smith, editor of the Ashland Tidings, representing the commercial organizations of their cities. They returned to Southern Oregon with the assurance that the Siskiyou grade will be hard-surfaced not later than next year. "We had been informed that the grade was to be macadamized and not hard-surfaced," said Mr. Smith, "and were relieved by the expression of the Commissioners, who assured us that it would be macadamized to a 16-foot width this year, and surfaced with a bituminous top next year."

The Siskiyou grade has been completed by Jackson County at an expense of $200,000 and is in proper shape for immediate completion. Assurance was given yesterday that the macadamizing of this season would afford an excellent temporary road, which will be used as a base for the hard-surfacing of next year.

The stretch of road to be macadamized and surfaced reaches from the California line to the foot of the hill at Ashland, and is 14 1/2 miles in length. Its course through the scenic Siskiyou, over the summit, is held to be comparable for natural beauty with the Columbia River Highway. It is a portion of the Pacific Highway. "Travel is heavy over the Siskiyou," commented Mr. Greer, "as the Pacific Highway is a favorite course for motor-tourists. The average at present is 125 cars per day, and this will be increased by at least 50 per cent during the month of August."

BURGLAR SUSPECT HELD

HARRY COULSEN, EX-CONVICT, IS FOUND BY DETECTIVES.

Thefts From Numerous Rooms Lead to Arrest: Man Charged With Possing As Soldier.

Harry Coulsen, for whom the detective department has been searching the city during the past week in connection with the burglarizing of numerous rooms, walked pointblank into the hands of City Detectives Heller and Coleman yesterday at Second and Stark streets. Coulsen is an ex-convict and was pardoned from the State Penitentiary only two months ago after serving seven months of a five year sentence for obtaining money under false pretenses. He has a long string of aliases. Numerous articles which have been reported stolen were found in his possession, and in pawn shops, where he is said to have left them.

Coulsen is said to have posed as a soldier when visiting pawn shops. He was learned yesterday that he had borrowed a soldier's uniform on several occasions, but the name of the enlisted man has not been learned.

He will have a hearing this morning.

SUMMER SCHOOL CLOSSES

Sessions of Centralia Normal at End Today. CENTRALIA, Wash., July 20.—(Special.)—Tomorrow noon will mark the close of the 1917 session of the Centralia Summer Normal School. Wednesday night the domestic science class of the school held a banquet for the members of the faculty. Last night a community sing was held in the high school auditorium and Tuesday night the student body held a picnic on the banks of the Skookumchuck River. The school this year ran six weeks, the total enrollment being 97. The sessions were held in the high school building. Professor Earl S. Wooster, of Ellensburg, was principal.
