CHAT 52. "The Social Whirl"-to say the least-is a winner from start to finish; from the opening chorus of the Ginger Girls to the closing song of "Honolulu Way," the audiences yesterday enjoyed this society satire that the Willis G. West Musical Extravaganza Co. PRESENT-ED FREE IN THE AUDITORIUM. The costumes are new-the stage setting is harmonious, the comedy is clean-extremely funny, the jokes are actually new, and most of them "get there the first time." This was but part of the day's programme-for, regardless of the weather-hot or cool-dry or wetthere is always something to attract-always something new to amuse-always a diversity of free attractions, from swimming to dancing-that has made this a playground for thousands.

"The Social Whirl" will be presented twice daily all this weekat 3 and again at 8:30. Plan your picnic to include a free swimming lesson between 1 and 2 any week day-see this splendid free showand go home smiling with satisfied happiness and rest.
