FARMERS TO MAKE MERRY

The third annual Grange Field day, Sergeant Boone can make an automothe Willamette Valley farmers' outing, is to be held on the Gresham Fair Grounds next Saturday. A combined committee of ten granges of Mulinomah County is in charge of the affair.

The men at the head of the committee are J. J. Johnson, S. B. Hall, H. A. Lewis and Fuyene Palmer.

Sergeant Boone can make an automobile do things in the way of traveling, climbing, and the like, that seems almost unreasonable.

The funeral of H. Newton Randall, who was killed in Battle Creek, Mich. last Tuesday by a Michigan Central passenger train, will be held today at 2 o'clock from the funeral establishment of J. P. Finley & Son. Interment will be at Riverview Lemetery.

Mr. Randall had been associated for the past 16 years with his brothers-in-law, Porter brothers, in the control of the Boone Family Has Warriors. He also drove the detectives' emergency car for the Omahâ Police Department in 1911, a job requiring the steadlest nerve, perfect skill and absolute command of one's wits.

He has driven also, on many occasions through the difficult country in Eastern Wyoming, Montana and South Dakota, where the terrain of the roads isn't so vastly different from the shell-pitted highways of France.

There has been a member of the Boone family in every American war since the Revolution, and Sergeant
