Road to Oregon City Open.

OREGON CITY, Or., July 27.—(Special.)—The Eighty-second-street road from Oregon City to Portland is now open for auto travel, says County Roadmaster T. A. Roots. This is the only big plece of improvement that will be made between Multnomah and Clackamas County cities this year, says County Judge H. W. Anderson. The greatest activity is to be centered upon the roads to the south, especially the New Era hill. OREGON CITY, Or., July 27 .- (Spe similar protest for the State of Ore-gon. The Interstate Commerce Com-mission had given permission to the roads to file a temporary tariff advancing the rates on coal 15 cents a ton from August 1 to October 29. It is considered possible, from the prompt action taken by the commission on the protest of the Portland Traffic and Transportation Association against he increased interstate rates, that the Public Service Commission would give serious consideration to any protest which might be made to the proposed similar advances on the intrastate
