BRITISH FRONT IN FRANCE AND BELGIUM, July 26.—The Anglo-French offensive, launched by the British and French against the German front, at Ypres, which began Friday, has, with few exceptions, been successful. The drive has been planned for the first day of this battle, a significant factor in the determination of the German forces. The German front is littered with the remnants of the British and French attack, which has been in progress since July 20 by a mass of German forces. The result has been that the Allies have gained ten towns in the first day of the battle. These towns, which have been captured, are:

- Boesinghe
- Doornik
- Dixmude
- Graven埴er
- Le Touquet
- Leuven
- Nieuwpoort
- Ostend
- Zeebrugge
- Zonnebeke

FOOD PLACES TO BE RATED

City to Examine Generous and Restaurateurs for Sanitation.

New York: New York City, July 26.—A summation of the results of the examination of the food preparation and handling of the restaurants and other places where food is served in New York City has been made by the city health department. The report, which was made after an investigation of the preparation and handling of food in the city's restaurants, shows that the majority of the restaurants have been found to be in compliance with the city's food sanitation laws.

SACKERS LACK "CARDS"

New York: New York City, July 26.—A number of the sackers in the city's restaurants have been found to be lacking in the cards that are required by law. The cards are necessary for the identification of the restaurants and the preparation of the meals served. The cards are also necessary for the identification of the restaurants and the preparation of the meals served.

CUBA HANDS OVER SHIPS

German Merchant Ship Will Be Received by the United States.

LONDON, July 26.—The United States government has received a request from the British government to take possession of the German merchant ship, the "Cuba," which was captured by the British government. The ship was captured by the British government in the Mediterranean, and the United States government has agreed to take possession of the ship.

BRITISH COMMANDER WHO LAUNCHES MONSTER NEW OFFENSIVE AGAINST GERMANS ON WEST FRONT

The British commander who launched the new offensive against the Germans on the Western Front is Major General Sir Douglas Haig. Haig, who is considered one of the most aggressive commanders of the war, has been in charge of the British forces in the Mediterranean for the past two years. He is known for his bold tactics and his ability to outmaneuver his opponents. The new offensive is expected to be a major test of the British forces' ability to hold their own against the Germans.

PORTLAND SOLDIER DROWNING VICTIM
