ment shows that department officials will make few requests for the exemption of postal employes from military service. Postmasters are instructed not to ask exemption for carriers or laborers or for clerks in second-class offices below the $1000 grade, clerks in first-class offices below the $1100 grade or any above these grades unless they are qualified distributors of mail.

The ruling is the first formal one by an executive department in compliance with President Wilson's order directing that department officials indicate exemptions and the requirement of inspensability be rigidly enforced.
As generally construed the postal ling shows the purpose of the administration to make the Government departments leaders in freeing valu-able employes for war service. Mail Carriers Not Exempt

The entire mail carriers' force, numbering thousands of men, of whom a considerable percentage are within numbering thousands of men, of whom a considerable percentage are within the draft-age limits, is excluded from exemption except for physical reasons or because of dependent families. Every portion of the country is reached every portion of the country is reached out of respect to Judge Gantenbein. by the ruling as even the rural car-riers are included.

The department's ruling leaves railway mail clerks within the exemption asses, as they are highly specialized distributors.

Frovost Marshal General Crowder took steps today to reduce the number of exemptions because of dependent families. Instructions were sent to the Governors of all states pointing out that the minimum pay of soldiers is now $30 a month, and that local boards consider whether a man's pendents could not be supported on nat amount. The telegram follows:
