

ALL WHO TRAINED ARE NOT OFFICERS

Several Hundred at the Presidio Leave Camp in Citizens' Clothes.

NONE, HOWEVER, FAILURE

Verdict of Fates Brings Tears of Disappointment to Many Eyes. Long Mental and Physical Strain Ended.

THE PRESIDIO OF SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 6.—(Special.)—With smiling lips but eyes which could not hide the bitter disappointment of being among those called, several hundred students at the reserve officers' training camp, who failed to get commissions, bade good-bye to their fellow-students and chums. They looked peculiarly out of place in civilian clothes—clothes wrinkled from three months repose in trunks and worn with an awkward, almost apologetic air. Sun-reddened faces somehow did not fit in well with linen collars.

Task Monumental One. That the judgment which said who should go and who should not was infallible is contended by no one. The Army officers in charge of the camp had a monumental task before them in the selection of three months' time of men who were qualified or who showed promise of becoming qualified to officer the regular Army.

In the majority of the companies, the verdict of the fates was read, or posted on bulletin boards, shortly before 6 o'clock Friday morning, directly after reveille and just before breakfast. Some men could not hide tears of disappointment which welled in their eyes when their names were found on the fateful list. Others smiled, in a rather forced way, but insisted that such was all they had ever expected from the camp.

Fortunate Ones Will Now Sleep. The fortunate ones breathed heavy with relief and promised themselves an untroubled night's sleep. They had won, so it seemed, the chance they sought, the chance to do their "bit" in a responsible way in the new Army of freedom.

Some fear that even yet they may be told to "turn in their ordnance," before the end of camp, next Saturday. Such fears may be groundless, but have been on a mental and physical strain that nearly ruined former even dispositions. Dame Rumor was everywhere and fearfully she spread was always disheartening. One minute it was insisted that no man under 25 years stood a chance for a commission, the next that all who had to undergo another mental and physical examination—and so things went until an uninterrupted night's sleep became a rarity. In addition to the usual setting-up exercises in the morning, trots of from one-quarter to one-half mile were inaugurated and the patrol work and company practice marches became longer.

GERMAN DIPLOMAT WHO QUILTS POST WITH MANY OTHERS IN CABINET.

FOREIGN SECRETARY ZIMMERMANN.

BERLIN CABINET OUT

Zimmermann and Eight Others Resign Their Portfolios.

AMBASSADOR GETS POST

Dr. von Kuehlmann Becomes Foreign Secretary and Is Declared to Be Opposed to Ruthless Submarine Campaigns.

BERLIN, via London, Aug. 6.—Official announcement was made today that five ministers of state, including Foreign Secretary Zimmermann and four secretaries of state, including Finance Minister Lentze and Interior Minister von Loebell, had resigned their portfolios.

Dr. Richard von Kuehlmann, the German Ambassador to Turkey, has been appointed secretary for foreign affairs in succession to Dr. Zimmermann. The ministers and secretaries of state who resigned were: Ministers of State—Minister of Justice Dr. Bessler.

Minister of Ecclesiastical Affairs Instruction—Dr. von Troitz zu Solz.

Finance Minister Resigns. Minister of Agriculture, Domains and Forests—Dr. von Schorlemer.

Minister of State—Imperial Post-Office, Herr Kraske.

Secretary for Foreign Affairs—Dr. Alfred Zimmermann, appointed November, 1916.

President of the Food Regulation Board—Adolph von Batschki, secretary of the imperial home office, also resigned his post.

Dr. Karl Hefferich will continue to be the representative of the imperial Chancellor and a member of the ministry of state and temporary minister of the interior.

Landrat von Graevinnits was appointed to succeed Arnold Wahnschaffe as chief of the Imperial Chancellor.

Cologne Mayor Is Selected. The ministry of economics will ultimately be separated from the machinery of the interior and Herr Waldraff, Mayor of Cologne, will be appointed minister of the interior, and Herr Schander, Mayor of Strassburg, minister of economics, with the titles of excellency.

In addition to the appointment of Dr. von Kuehlmann as secretary for foreign affairs, Herr Ruedlin was made director of railways and minister of posts, and Privy Councillor von Krause was named secretary of justice. Over-president von Waldow was appointed chief of the Department of Army Nourishment.

Vacancies Quickly Filled. The vacant Prussian ministerial posts were filled as follows: Minister of Justice—Dr. Peter Spahn, leader of the Catholic party in the Reichstag.

Minister of the Interior—Under Secretary Drews.

Minister of Instruction—Ministerial Director Schmitt.

Minister of Agriculture—Dr. Essen Hartwuth.

Minister of Finances—Dr. Hertz.

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 6.—The comment of the Berlin newspapers on the appointment of imperial and Prussian ministers takes the line that no great advance has been made in the direction of parliamentarism.

Hopeful Signs Are Few. The Tageblatt regards the changes as unimportant for the development of the empire. The Vossische Zeitung says the new government is not likely to give the impression of a parliamentary order. The Volks Zeitung comments that the most favorable thing that can be said about the development is that there has been an infusion of fresh blood into the bureaucracy.

In a character sketch of Dr. Richard von Kuehlmann (just appointed German secretary for foreign affairs), the Nieuwe Courant, of The Hague, says that Dr. von Kuehlmann has always been a vigorous opponent of ruthless submarine warfare. He is also, says the newspaper, a disciple of the policy of doing everything possible to avoid the further alienation of Great Britain, believing that after the war friendship between Great Britain and Germany is necessary to the latter.

CLALLAM GETS TAXES

LUMBER COMPANY ORDERED TO PAY PROTESTED LEVY.

United States District Court of Appeals Affirms Decisions Involving Thousands of Dollars.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 6.—The Clallam Lumber Company, of Clallam County, Washington, was today directed, in a decision of the United States District Court of Appeals, to pay thousands of dollars in protested taxes to the Clallam County Treasurer. The company had protested that the assessment of between 33 and 50 per cent would have been equitable.

On 41,000 acres in Clallam County, having a value of $3,050,000, the 1913 levy was $50,046.59, whereas the company claimed that, according to the assessment system in vogue, the levy should have been $20,000. This last sum was paid into the treasury. A demand was made for the remainder, but the company brought suit to prevent payment. The suit and subsequent suits covering levies for subsequent years were thrown out of court. An appeal was taken, and the action of the lower court in dismissing the cases affirmed.

GOVERNOR IS CALLED ON

Sheepmen Want Protest Against Order Relative to Lambs.

PENDLETON, Or., Aug. 6.—(Special.)—Great damage to the sheep industry if the programme of prohibiting the sale of lambs is adhered to, is foreseen by the sheepmen of Umatilla County, who have asked for a conference with the Governor and hope he will appeal to Herbert H. Hoover against the unfairness of the proposal.

It is pointed out that the range lamb sale in about five months, and that there is no object in holding it after that time. Selected ewes produce more and better lambs than young ones.

HINDENBURG DEFIANT YET

Victory Predicted in Greeting to New Chancellor.

BERLIN, via London, Aug. 6.—Field Marshal von Hindenburg, in a telegram to the Imperial German Chancellor on the occasion of the third anniversary of the commencement of the war, says: "Firmly consolidated in the interior and unshaken on all fronts, Germany braves the exasperating thrusts of her new enemies."

"The German army is fighting far in the enemy's country and is marching with unbroken strength to new successes. It enters the fourth year of the war supported by confidence as firm as a rock that our home spirit and united perseverance will remain alive, which is a guarantee of victory and of an honorable peace to our nation."

DEBATE ON FOOD BITTER

Senator Chamberlain replied heatedly, "but the Senator seems to forget that this country is at war with one of the most powerful nations in the world. One law he opposed has resulted in the deaths of a number of young fellows in his state."

The Oklahoma Senator declared he had done everything possible to speed both the food bills through the Senate and to make them constitutional. He also declared that he had obstructed the passage of the selective draft law, and said that the present trouble in Oklahoma over the enforcement of the draft law was due to a grievance originating among the Seminole Indians over delay in the Government paying certain money due them.

Senator Norris, an agriculture committee member, said that Senator Gore, in the committee's consideration of the bill "did not at any time hinder or delay action but always urged prompt action, sometimes over-hastily."

Senator Hardwick attacked the conference report, saying the conferees "deliberately surrendered the position of the Senate."
