SCOUT THOMAS SIZES UP BEAVERS

Athletic's Ivory-Hunter Gives Paddy Signin and Penner Dnce-Over.

3 COASTERS MAKE GOOD

Bates and Noyes, ex-Beavers, and Bodie, ex-Seal, Are Praised.

Great Future for Hollöcher Is Predicted.

Ira Thomas, former catcher and now scout for the Philadelphia Athletics, arrived in Portland yesterday to complete his analysis of Paddy Signin, Ken Penner and perhaps some other Portland or Salt Lake players.

Scout Thomas didn't quite know how to take the report from the East that Ray Bates and Wynn Noyes had notified Connie Mack that they would quit the team Saturday to join the Army.

"Both these former Philadelphia players were caught in the Army draft," said Scout Thomas. "I think they intend to join some unit before the draft, but with the understanding that they will not have to go immediately. This would enable them to play a few more weeks with the Athletics."

The Philadelphia coach-comer says that all three of his Coast League proteges obtained in his trip last fall—Bates, Noyes and "Ping" Bodie—made good with a bang.

"Noyes was coming stronger all the time," he explained. "Mr. Mack—he always calls his boss Mr.—thinks Noyes would have developed into a wonderful boxer if the war hadn't come along and claimed him. Bodie used to have the reputation of being a headhunter when he was with Chicago, and Callahan didn't seem to be able to get along with him. Strange, though, Bodie is not a headhunter and he is not hard to get along with. Mr. Mack was greatly surprised with him. He thinks Bodie is a smart ballplayer."

Scout Thomas is sweet on Charley Hollöcher, and gauging his opinion on the Portland Mermaid. He inclines to the opinion shared by many Portland fans, to-wit, that Hollöcher is destined to become a better ballplayer than Barrow.

"Will there be big league baseball next year?" was a query shot at the scout, as he jollied around in a big divan at the Benson Hotel.

"Oh, yes," came the reply. "I think so. The season may be curtailed a little, but the teams have been drawing well since the good weather started. I feel sure there will be baseball as usual. Undoubtedly the world's series will be played this fall in view of President Wilson's sponsorship, though."

Scout Thomas will leave tonight or tomorrow for Seattle to dig around a bit in the Shipbuilders' League.

From now on all of Uncle Sam's soldiers and sailors will be admitted to the Portland ball park at one-half price—25 cents for grandstands seats and 10 cents for bleacher seats.

McCrede was at his hot springs when the court order from President Wilson came over the telegraph wires, so did not know anything about the new edict of the league executive until yesterday.

The Philadelphia Athletics have purchased a young second sacker named Palmer from the Dallas, Tex., club, coached by "Doc" White. It was recommended to him when he was in Texas a fortnight ago and he received a message yesterday telling him of the consummation of the deal.

Benny Leonard and Johnny Dundee have been offered $15,000 for a match.

Peter Schuyler and Miss Harris M. Fail in Performances; Lu Princeton Wins 2:15 Trot; Peter G. Takes 2:15 Pace.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 9.—Three regular events were raced today, in addition to the unfinished 2:15 pace, and, in contrast to the stiff competition of other days, not a single winner was forced to go an extra heat to take down his purses.
