HOG MARK SMASHED

Price Goes to $18.25 in Sales During Morning.

HIGHER POINT EXPECTED

Livestock Receipts Total 102 Carloads: 6087 Hogs, 2195 Cattle, 1624 Sheep and 123 Calves. Cattle Prices Advance.

A record amashed in the price of hogs Yesterday in the sales at the Union Stock-yards was the feature in the livestock mar-ket. The price rose $1.50 a hundredweight from the record of Saturday, of $18.75, and reached a top mark of $18.25 yesterday morning. This is the highest price ever paid in the history of the Northwest for hogs. It is now predicted that the market will reach probably 20 cents before a decline can be expected.

Sales in sheep were steady through, with no changes, the bulk of the sales going direct to the Union Ment Company, and in cattle thore was an advance of 25 cents for the best cows with about 40 cents off on medium stuff.

Official quotations in the yards yesterday were as follows:

Industrial Notes.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—Rails were the only important stocks to register more than negligible changes in today's listless market. Cumulative signs of approaching Federal control over the coal roads resulted in further depreciation. Beading made an extreme decline of 3 points.

Representative industrials and equipments, with few exceptions, showed variations rarely exceeding a point.

Shippings held their moderate gains and metals yielded slightly when quoted at all. Dealings in some of the conspicuous pool issues were restrained by the more stringent attitude of the exchange authorities. BRINKLEY SUPPLY COMPANY, of Port. land, has been awarded the contract by the Port of Astoria Commission to supply the machinery for the new grain storage tanks at that port. The concrete foundation for the storage tanks is now being laid by Contractor C. L. Houston. Thirty-six concrete tanks, each 80 feet high and 22 feet in diameter, will be erected, affording storage capacity for more than 1,000,000 bushels.

CHICAGO, Aug. 20.—Corn prices pursued an unsven course today, liquidation, which sent pribes down early, being followed by demand from shorts, which moved the figures above Saturday's closing prices. The close was strong, 4c to 1% higher, with December at $1.05% @1.08%, and May at $1.07 1.07%.

FARMERS CONFER TODAY

cial.) — Farm leaders of the Pacific Northwest will meet here tomorrow to discuss Government regulation of wheat prices, the L. W. W. situation, the grain-sack problem and other matters of agricultural interest.

From 75 to 100 men will attend the conference. They are the directors and managers of the various farm union warehouses and elevators in Washington, Oregon and Idaho.
"Such conclusions as are reached may have an important influence on the price of wheat and other foodstuffs," National organizer said A. E. Elmore, Nat of the Farmers' Union.
