Jeeves's advice is always to the good.

He suggests for stout men one of our black and white worsted suits in lines or striped neat blue serge.

VESTS, OF COURSE. Jeeves says they are more becoming than an overflowing shirt front for "stouts."

OLD SONGS APPEALING STRANGERS AUDIENCE PROVE OLD AIRS ARE NOT FORGOTTEN.

Pretty Girls, Beautifully Costumed, Produce Harmony and Clever Skit Is Much Enjoyed.

The songs of '98 still have a way of getting down into the heart-strings of the people - now that America is in another war - and Clarence Wurdung proved it when he stamped his audience with a popular song of nearly a score of years ago in his act on the new bill that opened yesterday at the Strand Theater.

Just Break the News to Mother, he sang an old song that has been almost forgotten in the ebb and flow of the tide of popular songs for years.

There is a perfectly gorgeous burst of sound and flash of color in the act of Joe Longfellow's Etude Sextet.
