At Los Angeles—Salt Lake 5, Los Angeles 2.
At Oakland—Oakland 5, Vernon 15.

With Ken Penner pitching sterling ball and his teammates backing him up with heavy hitting, the Beavers took the second game of the series with the Seals yesterday, 6 to 2.

Penner opposed "Chief" Johnson and the Beavers nicked the big Indian for 11 lusty clouts. The Portland heaver allowed but four hits up to the ninth.

Kenneth Williams and Art Griggs had a batting bee, the slugging outfielder garnering four hits in as many trips and Griggs landing three safe hits out of three trips to the plate.

Justin Fitzgerald was replaced by Indian Smith in the fifth inning. "Fitz" has been troubled with a weak ankle and wrenched the injured member when chasing Siglin's triple in the fourth.

Fitzgerald, leading off for the Seals in the first inning, singled to Farmer, whose error allowed the outfielder to take second. Pick's out put "Fitz" on third and when Schaller lifted a long fly to Williams, "Fitz" scored.

Portland tied up the score in the second, Williams getting a single to center and going to third on Griggs' single to right. Griggs stole second on the next ball pitched, Baker pegging to center field in an attempt to nab him, Williams scoring.

In the fourth the Beavers held a regular party at the expense of "Chief" Johnson and before the soiree was over McCredie's hirelings had amassed three runs on hits by Wille, Williams, Griggs and Siglin.

Jack Farmer opened the lucky seventh by singling through short and stealing second. Hollocher sacrificed Jack to third on a bunt and Willie bunted to Johnson, allowing Farmer to score.

With two down in the ninth, Baker singled through second and scored when McKee hit a double to left.

Manager McCredie will use Houck this afternoon and Erickson is due to twirl for the Seals.

BERRY WOULD SPLIT COAST LEAGUE ZONE

Seals' Owner Says if War Continues Long Change of Present Lineup Necessary.

WIDE JUMPS ARE COSTLY

Lending of Portland Territory to Northwestern and Organizing of Three Class-A Leagues Suggested as Solution.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT.

Unless the war ends before April it will not be practicable to continue the Pacific Coast League in its present shape next year, in the opinion of Henry Berry, owner of the San Francisco Seals, who is a Portland visitor.

Mr. Berry has conceived a plan for a splitting of the Coast League territory and the forming of two or perhaps three smaller ball leagues as a temporary expedient to weather the war storms.

"We cannot very well continue as we are now," said Mr. Berry yesterday at the Benson Hotel. "Expenses are too heavy, especially on these long jumps from California to Portland and to Salt Lake.

Change Would Be Temporary.

"I believe the only sensible solution of the matter will be to lend the Portland territory to the Northwestern League for a year, and the Salt Lake territory to a new league over there embracing Butte, Salt Lake, Missoula and Great Falls. A dandy league could be formed in the Northwest with Seattle, Portland, Spokane and perhaps Tacoma.

"Down in California we could organize a state league embracing San Francisco, Oakland, Los Angeles and either Vernon or San Diego, or perhaps the Vernon franchise could be moved to San Diego. One of the Army cantonments is to be located at San Diego, and I am given to understand that more than 40,000 troops will be located there.

"My plan is to have a salary limit of around $2500 a month for each league, putting them all on an equal classification basis. We would not be AA and the Northwestern League B, but all would be the same, perhaps A. In the Fall then we could stage a miniature world's series in California, after the conclusion of the five months schedules."

Directors to Consider Plan.

Mr. Berry is enthusiastic over his plan, and intends to recommend that it be adopted when the league directors meet again.

The suggestion should be received with acclaim in Northwestern League circles, because unless some realignment is made Seattle, Spokane and Tacoma will have no professional baseball at all next year. The league already has quit, owing to financial difficulties.

Cooperage Team Wins.

The Western Cooperage nine defeated the Mikado team Sunday, 19 to 4. Larsen, Decuman and Thygeson formed the winning battery and Nara and Yori worked for the losers. The barrelmakers are in search of out-of-town games and would like to hear from teams.

BIDDLE PRESSES MURRAY TO WIN IN FOREST HILLS PLAY.

R. Norris Williams Beats H. A. Throckmorton in 5-Set Match—Miss Brown Defeats Miss Bjurstedt.

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Aug. 22.—Playing true to form throughout the fourth round of the National patriotic singles tournament here today, Eastern and Western experts in equal number won places in the semi-final round to be contested on the courts of the West Side Club tomorrow. Although there was an absence of the upsets which marked the opening round of the play for the Tennis Association Ambulance Fund, there was at least one surprise which startled the close followers of lawn tennis.

Craig Biddle, of Philadelphia, forced R. Lindley Murray, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., formerly of California, to draw on every ounce of his endurance and skill in order to win after a gruelling five-set match which hung in the balance until the final set.

The contest between R. Norris Williams II, of Boston, and Harold A. Throckmorton, of Elizabeth, N. J., was another five-set battle of thrills which Williams finally won at 6-1, 4-6, 6-4, 0-6, 6-3.

Charles S. Garland, of Pittsburg, the youngest of the third round survivors, was eliminated by John R. Strachan, of San Francisco, in four sets at 6-1, 2-6, 6-2, 6-3.

The victory of N. W. Niles, of Boston, over Clarence J. Griffin, of San Francisco, was even easier. Niles ran out in straight sets by scores of 6-1, 6-3, 6-0.

The day's play closed with an exhibition match between Miss Mary K. Browne, of Los Angeles, and Miss Molla Bjurstedt, of New York, in which the Californian reversed the result of the last two matches between these women stars by winning at 6-2, 6-4.
