Valley Trambitas Proves Too Much for Soldier Arnold-Rooney Beats Boscovitch-Large Crowd Sees Bouts.

Billy Williams proved too much of a sticker for Jack Wagner in their 10ound bout at Vancouver last night. Wagner never had the lead at any time, and when Referee Ed Smith raised Williams' hand as the winner the crowd was satisfied.

The best bout of the evening was the Mascott-Brandon mill. These two bantams stood toe to toe and swapped punches until Referee Bud Anderson stopped the bout in the fifth round and gave the decision to Mascott. Brandon was game and kept coming in for more, but Mascott had too much expe-Johnny Boscovitch mixed with Char-ley Rooney, the latter getting the de-

The last bout on the programme went 10 rounds between Williams and Wagner. From the start it looked like Wagner was out to win, for he started after Williams hard. Williams seemed to be saving himself, for he did not start fighting until the fifth round. Neither fighter displayed any punching ability. It was mostly a hit and miss contest,

Williams had the edge in the fifth, eighth and last rounds. The other seven rounds were all good draws.

Bud Anderson refereed the first three bouts. Bud Smith refereed the main event and gave the only secision that was open for him to give.

Jack Allen, Lee Johnson, Billy Nelson and a few more of the local boxners challenged the winner of the main
