New York Continues Indifferent Playing, Losing 20 Points in Week.

PIRATES BREAK RECORDS

Chicago Remains on Top After Im portant Series With Boston, and Cleveland Gains on Leaders With Five Victories.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—The lead of Chicago's Heavy Hitting Prevails New York in the National League decreased 20 points last week because the Giants continue to play indifferent baseball, while Philadelphia won size of its eight contests. The league leaders won four games, lost three and played a five-inning tie. In the Ameri-can, Chicago retains the lead by a slightly better margin than at the end of the previous week. The series at Chicago between the American League leaders and Boston was the most important of the week, but the three games between the Brooklyn and Pittsburg Nationals were equally as interesting.
