FIRECRACKERS ARE SHORT WHEELER OPTICAL CO.

Demand Still Exists After "Punch" Is Removed.

Manufacturers of firecrackers no longer produce any Fourth of July ac-cessories longer than five inches, and even those are not as "savage" as they used to be, according to W. A. Luce, treasurer of the National Fireworks Distributing Company, of Boston. He is at the Hotel Portland.
"Despite the numerous drastic laws passed by cities and the states," said

Mr. Luce, "there is a great demand for fireworks material. The Federal Government has now regulations prohibit ing shipment for interstate traffic of firecrackers longer than five inches. The trend of the times is safety first and the manufacturers are putting out milder products."
