OREGON PACIFIST FIRST

JEFFERSON COUNTY RANCHER FIRST MAN OF 46,000.

Arthur Warren Goff, Opposed to War on General Principles, Hastens to Do His Best.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—(Special.)—Arthur Warren Goff, 29 years old and, by an odd turn of fate, a pacifist, was the first man of the 46,000 men who will be at Camp Lewis within two months, to appear at 8:45 this morning in response to an order sent out by the local board in Jefferson County, Oregon, to report for duty.

"No, I can't say I care much about war. In fact, I am opposed to it; but, since I am drafted, I guess it is up to me to do the best I can."

Goff is one of three men who will come from Jefferson County. He left Burnt Ranch two weeks ago, traveling overland 200 miles in an automobile before reaching a railroad. Goff knows but one of the other two who will represent Jefferson County in the new National Army. His is Frank Stevens and lives 130 miles from Burnt Ranch.

Goff has been a farmer all his life and says on general principles he is opposed to war. He is the only son in a family of seven, one sister living at Wilderville, Or.

AUTO PARTY IS ROBBED

Highwayman Searches Man and Maid in Car at Crystal Lake Park.

The first automobile holdup reported here was staged last night at Crystal Lake Park, in Milwaukie. The victims were O. Brooks, 1381 East Burnside street, and Miss Mabel G. Johnson, 575 Clinton street.

Mr. Brooks reported that an armed highwayman stepped up to the passengers while the machine was stopped on the highway, and demanded $4.50. The robber refused to take Mr. Brooks' watch because it was a cheap one. He stood behind the man and girl, pointing the revolver at them.

Mr. Brooks is an elevator operator in the Wells-Fargo building. Miss Johnson is a clerk for the Marshall Wells Hardware company. Detective Swennes investigated.

LIGGETT IS SENT EAST

Murray Succeeds to Old Command of Western Department.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—Major-General Arthur Murray arrived here today to relieve Major-General Hunter Liggett of command of the Western Department of the Army. General Liggett has been designated to command the 41st National Guard division which will train at Camp Greene, Charlotte, N. C.

General Murray, who commanded the Department during the Panama-Pacific International Exposition in 1915, was brought from retirement by War Department orders. He expected to assume his former command immediately.

Fall From Car Injures Woman.

Mrs. M. Stahn, 664 Ladd avenue, fell from a Sellwood streetcar at East Twelfth and Division streets last night and sustained a fracture of the shoulder and possibly a fractured skull. She is in a serious condition in the Good Samaritan Hospital.

Violation of Dry Law Charged.

Otto Straub, 61 North Second street, was arrested last night by Patrolmen Elliott and O'Halloran on a warrant charging him with violating the prohibition law. His bail was fixed at $500, which he had not been able to furnish at a late hour.

RESTORATION OF AUTOCRACY IS OBJECT SOUGHT.

Women of Well-Known Bureaucratic Family Arrested—Kerensky Calls Chiefs in Council.

PETROGRAD, Sept. 5.—The aim of the conspiracy in connection with which Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovich and others were arrested was the restoration of the autocracy. The chief conspirators were Mlle. Margaret Hitrovo, of Tobolsk, and Mme. Lieubov Hitrovo, of Yelabuzh, members of a well-known bureaucratic family, both of whom were arrested.

An indictment against the Hitrovo women and their accomplices already when he was arrested was found a

DENTIST IN DRAFT NET

Pulling Good Teeth Held Aiding Man to Escape Conscription.

RENO, Nev., Sept. 5.—George M. Smitton, dentist, was arrested today on complaint of George W. Hartz, of the Department of Justice, charged with aiding A. Ceresola to evade the draft. He furnished bond and was released.

Two weeks ago Ceresola appeared before the Washoe County examining board, his mouth still sore and bleeding from the extraction of eight molar teeth. Dr. Smitton admitted the eight teeth were perfectly sound and that he pulled them under protest. Ceresola says he had the teeth pulled to cure neuritis. The doctors ridicule the idea.

The offense with which Dr. Smitton is charged carries a maximum penalty of one year's imprisonment. Read The Oregonian classified ads.
