SEVERAL HOMES ROBBED

VACATIONISTS DISCOVER BURGLARIES ON RETURNING. Middle Home in Waverly Heights and McFarland Residence in Thurman Looted—One Man Is Held.

Housebreakers have been reaping a harvest in Portland during the past few days. In several cases the occupants of the houses have been away from home on their vacations, returning to find everything of value missing. Mrs. M. B. Bidde, living in Waverly Heights, reported to the police yesterday that her home had been robbed some time Thursday night and the following articles taken: One pure gold watch, one gold watch, one gold chain, one gold watch, a check book, two brooches set with small pearls and one neck chain. E. B. McFarland also reported to the police yesterday that his home had been entered at 1277 Thurman street and a shotgun, three suits of clothes, a suitcase and a small revolver and a small quantity of jewelry were taken. LUMBER INDUSTRY ALIVE

Mills in Vicinity of Cottage Grove Soon to Be Moving Again.

COTTAGE GROVE, Or., Sept. 7.—(Special).—The setback to the lumber industry caused by the burning of the Brown mill is being overcome by the resuming of operations by other mills. The Bohemia Lumber Company started operations at Row River a few hours before the Brown mill burned and the O. L. & T. mill at Divide is to resume within a few weeks. It having been purchased by P. A. Garretson, Jr., of the San Diego Manufacturing Company, together with the Olson timber tract, from which the logs will be secured. Mr. Garretson and his three sons and their families will make their homes in Cottage Grove and will move here at once. Operations will commence as soon as the necessary overhauling can be completed. CARD ORDINANCE READY

MAYOR'S LICENSE MEASURE TO BE CONSIDERED WEDNESDAY.

BILL Requires Approval of Chief of Police Before Playing Rooms May Be Conducted in City. Licensing of public cardrooms is proposed in an ordinance presented to the City Council yesterday by Mayor Baker for consideration at the regular meeting Wednesday. The Mayor would require each cardroom to pay an annual license based on the number of tables operated. The license would be subject to revocation at any time by the Council. This would give the Council control over the rooms, which it does not have at present, according to the Mayor. The measure provides that before a cardroom shall be established the person or persons wishing to establish it shall post notice for ten days in a conspicuous place at the entrance to the proposed room. The notice shall be readable from the sidewalk and shall give the names of all persons interested in the project. After the ten days' notice has been

LAND SOUGHT BY ASHLAND

Timber Tract Purchased to Protect Supply of Water.

ASHLAND, Or., Sept. 7.—(Special).—The City Council last night decided to purchase 250 acres of timber land in the Ashland Creek Canyon as a matter of protection to the watershed of Ashland Creek, which is the city water supply. The purchase was made from John and James Martin, two local men who have owned the tract for many years. The price paid was $4000. A recent estimate over part of the land shows that there is 2,300,000 feet of merchantable timber, as well as 1500 cords of wood, on the land. This is the second purchase of land which the city has made in the Ashland
