WOMAN'S TRIPS TOLD OF

Neighbors Report Seeing Plaintiff Walking Hastily Down Street or Doing Housework as if Illness Is Not Serious.

Something novel in Circuit Court procedure may be adopted Monday, when Judge Tucker, the jury sitting in his court, attorneys and court attaches will hold a brief session at the home of Mrs. Victoria Colby...

This unusual procedure was agreed upon yesterday by the court and opposing counsel if it is found that Mrs. Colby is unable to attend the trial at the courthouse, as is asserted by her physicians and attorney.

The taking of testimony in behalf of Mrs. Colby was completed yesterday, and counsel for the defense announced that before the city could continue far in its lengthy rebuttal it would be necessary to complete the cross-examination of Mrs. Colby...

Mr. Mann testified further that on numerous occasions he had seen Mrs. Colby walking about her home hurriedly. Mrs. Colby, he said, was walking in an energetic manner. They passed by close to him, he said, and felt certain in his identification of her.

Several city employees, employed on the streets, gave testimony tending to show the condition of the crosswalk at East Thirty-second and Salmon streets at the time of the alleged accident in May, 1915.

Anticipating the coming of the atork, Marie Laszby, in a suit for divorce filed yesterday against John W. Laszby, a salesman, asks that she be awarded $50 in monthly alimony for the present and that this amount be automatically increased to $75 a month after the atork shall have arrived.

Simple desertion is the allegation contained in the divorce complaint of Harriet M. Beekman against Edward L. Beekman, a former Portland timberman. They were married in 1896 and have a daughter aged 19.

William D. Morris wants a divorce from Bertha Morris on the charge of cruelty. He alleges she has on several occasions threatened to kill him. They were married in 1906.

Mamie Peterson brought to light a new method of securing alimony when in a suit for divorce filed yesterday against Pete Peterson, she asks for all money of $50 from April 1, 1915. The demand for back alimony is based on her contention that her husband has failed to support her properly for more than a year.

C. F. Best wants a divorce from Ruby Best on a cruelty charge. He contends that she has failed to cook his meals for him. Barbara Raszleje wants a divorce from Claude Raszleje on grounds of cruelty. They were married in 1915, but lived together but a short time.

Portland-Alaska Steamers May Be Asked to Bid. OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Sept. 7.—The Postmaster-General, in response to a letter from the Portland Chamber of Commerce, submitted through Senator McNary, asking that Portland be given an opportunity to bid on steamboat mail service to Alaska, today advised the Senator he has called on Postmaster Myers for a report as to whether steamship companies operating from Portland will bid and if successful whether they can furnish satisfactory service.

The action of the Department will depend on Myers' reply.
