Lansing Reveals New Intrigue.

VON ECKHARDT IMPLICATED

German Writer Intended Receipt of Notorious "Zimmermann Note."

DEPARTMENT IS SUGGESTED

German Minister Asks Government to Reward Faithful Work of Crohnitz.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—Another step toward an end of the German intrigue in neutral countries among the belligerents was taken yesterday when Mr. Joseph W. Lansing, Secretary of State, announced a search of the offices of the Von Eckhardt, a German writer for whom Mr. Lansing was said to be in the United States, in whom the interned Ex-Kaiser was located.

It is disclosed that Folke Crohnitz, the Swedish consul at New York, was said to have been dependent upon the German diplomat to furnish information from the hostile camp and to transmit communications to Berlin, and that Von Eckhardt, as a German writer, had obtained his release from the Kaiser of the Second Reich.

Letter Shows New Light.

This letter was written March 9, 1919, and is also the finding of the American Government for the purpose of discovering the real nature of the letter. It is one of a series of letters written by Von Eckhardt to Folke Crohnitz, which was seized by the United States in connection with Crohnitz's doings in the United States.

The contents of the letter are in line with the other letters, which were seized by the United States, and are as follows:

The letter is addressed to Folke Crohnitz, the Swedish consul at New York, and is written in a formal style.

The letter contains an expression of regret at the situation in Europe, and an assurance that the writer will do his utmost to aid the cause of the Allies.

The letter concludes with a request that Crohnitz will forward a copy of the letter to the Allies for their consideration.
