DAM TO GO HIGHER

City Project at Bull Run Lake Will Be Extended.

SUCCESS SEEMS ASSURED

Engineer Morrow Expects New Project to Control 500,000,000 Gallons of Water to Be Released for Use During Summer.

Unless something unexpected goes wrong, the city dam at Bull Run Lake, which is aimed to shut off the underground outlet of the lake, will be a complete success and will do away with the necessity of the city building reservoirs to cost hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Ben Morrow, engineer on the project, returned from the lake yesterday, after having seen the dam completed to a point where it cuts off from the main lake a small neck, or lagoon, in which are the leaks.

TONG JURY FILLED

Opening Statement Made in Prosecution of Yee Guk.

DEFENSE IS NOT READY

Dan J. Malarkey Employed as Special Prosecutor in Trial of Men Accused of Murdering Chin Hong of Bow Leong.

That Yee Guk participated in a carefully planned and cold-blooded murder on June 2, last, the state of Oregon will prove beyond all shadow of a doubt, declared Dan J. Malarkey, special prosecutor, in his opening statement to the jury late yesterday afternoon. The defendant is on trial for second-degree murder, accused of the killing of Chin Hong, wealthy and influential member of the Bow Leong tong.

Noted Pioneer Reappointed.

ALBANY, Or., Sept. 14.—(Special.)—Cyrus H. Walker has been reappointed by the County Court as county trustee officer of Linn County, a position which he has held for the past few years. Mr. Walker is one of the county's most honored pioneer citizens, being past president of the Oregon Pioneers' Association, past grand commander of the Indian War Veterans of the North Pacific Coast, adjutant of the Oregon Volunteer Veterans' Association and chaplain of the Oregon State Grange. He also enjoys the distinction of being the oldest living white man born west of the Rocky Mountains.

Terrifying Skin Diseases Are Promptly Reached Through Blood

Surface Irritations Come From Deep-Seated Causes.
Eczema and other inflammations and irritations of the skin that are commonly called skin diseases, do not come alone from a diseased condition of the skin, but the real cause is an impurity in the blood. No progress toward a permanent cure can be expected from local remedies alone. But also cleanse the blood thoroughly and you will find relief.
S. S. S. is the great unrivaled blood remedy, which has been used with the greatest success for more than fifty years. It is sold by druggists everywhere. But be sure and get the genuine S. S. S. Our medical director will gladly give medical advice without charge. Address: Swift Specific Co., 217-F, Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.—Adv.
