REGISTRATION SUGGESTIONS

FOR OREGON WOMEN.

Registration of all women over 18 years old is desired.
Polling places are those used in last city election. Women may register in any convenient polling-place.

If more convenient they may register at 503 Corbett building or at the Woodard, Clarke & Co.

drugstore, West Park and Alder Polls open at 10 A. M. today, closing at 8 P. M. Registration is not compulsory, but is urgently desired by the United States Government offi-

It is not a conscription proposition, but merely the business-like manner of mobilizing the women of the Natlon for war It is nation-wide in scope.

Machinery for the registration of Oregon women is ready for operation and will begin at 10 o'clock today. "The United States Government asks

"The United States Government asks it and we're going to do it" is the motto of the women.

It is not for purposes of conscription—merely to mobilize the women workers and to ascertain in concrete, definite form what they are willing to do in prosecuting the war to a successful termination.

President Wilson and his Cabinet

President Wilson and his Cabinet heartily approve of the plan, and so throughout the length and breadth of the land today, those over 16 years old will register for service and state what they can do, when and whether they wish pay for the work, expenses paid or are volunteers pure and simple. Registration may be made in the regular voting precincts throughout the city, at the offices of Mrs. Sadle Orr Dunbar, 503 Corbett building or at the Woodard, Clarke & Co. drug store, West Park and Alder streets.

der way here and gives evidence of being the most successful meeting in the history of this organization. While the instruction will be derived against a record-breaking exhibit of agricultural and horticultural products it is conceded by all that the showing is better than the most ardent enthusiasts had dared to hope for.

The unusual lateness of the season works a hardship on the exhibitors of fruit and vegetables, and many of the apple, pear and other Winter varieties show a lack of coloring and maturity which is to be expected, but taken altogether the exhibits are decidedly creducts.

The dafonse contends that this meeting was not secret.

Polls Open Until 8 P. M. The registration will continue from 10 A. M. to 8 P. M. The registration is being handled by the various women's clubs. Mrs. Charles H. Castner, president of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs and chairman of the women's division of the National Council of Defense for Oregon, is in general charge through-out the state. She has organized, through members of various clubs, about 400 local committees, who will today devote their entire time to the Distributors—in every case women—have placed 70,000 registration cards in the homes, and those officially associated with the great task predict that Portland and Oregon will again demonstrate the strong patriotic spirit recorded in every other movement for the prosecution of the war.

There has been considerable confusion over the registration proposal, many thinking it to be equal to conscription and that, should they register, they would be called upon by the Government to be sent away from their homes, etc. Nothing of the kind is contemplated; it is simply the business-like way of mobilizing the forces of the country, recording to definite form.

ney-General Brown and Assistant Attorney-General Bailey in the HydeBenson cases, which have been appealed from the decision of six Cirouit judges.

Referring to the action desired by the state, the brief says: "We respectfully submit that the decree in the Ciackamas County case should be reversed and one entered here awarding us the lands involved in that case, un-Clackamas County case should be reversed and one entered here awarding us the lands involved in that case, unconditionally, and with costs and disbursements; that the parts of the decrees in Linn, Jackson and Hood River counties, appealed from by the state, should be modified so that the relief granted therein to the state would be unconditional; that the decrees in Lane and Crook counties should be affirmed and that the state should recover its costs and disbursements herein. Because the decree in the Klamath County case has not been entered we do not know what modification thereof, if any, we may desire.

Judge Kuykendall has expressed his opinion as to the Klamath County case, but the formal decree has not been entered so far. As soon as the decree comes down it is understood that that case will be linked with the other six cases and that one opinion of the Supreme Court will cover the entire seven.

The brief touches particularly upon an act of 1801, upon which Judge Campbell, of Clackamas County, mainly hinged his decision, the only one discretiy adverse to the state. Judge Campbell, held that the act of 1901 conractly adverse to the state. Judge Campbell held that the act of 1901 con-Campbell held that the act of 1901 confirmed the title of purchasers of school lands from the state. The brief asserts that this act was unconstitutional and defective and that both the courts and Legislatures have placed different construction upon this act than the construction placed upon it by Judge Campbell.

"This office has now been engaged in these cases for several years," says he brief, in conclusion. "The questhe brief, in conclusion. tion of whether or not the state has been defrauded is now before this court for final decision. If this court should decide that the laws relating to the sale of school lands were enacted with sale of school lands were enacted with the idea that they are more to be hon-ored in their breach than in their ob-servance, and that the land grabber, who acquired many thousand acres in direct violation of law by inducing citi-zens of this state to commit perjury in order that he might profit thereby, and whereby citizens of this state, de-siring to purchase lands, weer deprived of such opportunity, is to go forth with NORTHWESTERN ELECTRIC ASSO-Members Go to Kellogg, Idaho, to In-
