POISON PEN BUSY:

Miss Harriet Kinney's Parole to Father Is Revoked When More Letters Appear.

HELD UNBALANCED

State Hospital Authorities Are Be Asked to Send Attendant Today to Take Woman to Salem for Treatment.

Harriet Kinney, daughter of M. J. Kinney, a prominent and wealthy tim-berman of this city, was taken into custody at her apartments in the Mult-nomah Hotel yesterday for commit-ment to the State Hospital at Salem artist who is to appear in two recitals

The case of Miss Kinney was first brought to the attention of the authorities August 9, upon complaint of Charles B. Welter, postoffice inspector for this district. Mr. Welter had tor this district. Mr. Welter had traced to the woman responsibility for mailing hundreds of postcards, hearing scurrilous messages and directed against President Wilson, which she had sent to wealthy citizens in various parts of the United States. President's Picture on Card.

Most of these messages were written on postcards on one side of which ap-peared the likeness of President Wilson and the American flag.

At the time of her first detention.

Miss Kinney, with the assistance of her father, succeeded in cluding Mrs. Edna Dobbins, matron of the County Jail, and Deputy Sheriff Ward, who called ut the woman's apartments in the Multnomah Hotel to escort her to the Courthouse for examination as to Threatened with arrest for interfering with an officer, the father promptly produced the unfortunate woman before the commission, consisting of Dr. E. D. Patton and Dr. S. E. Josephi, who sdjudged her insane after a thorough examination.

Judge Taxwell agreed to parole Miss Kinnsy to her father with the under-standing that within two weeks she should be taken out of the state and that in the meantime she should re-main constantly in the care of an at-

SQUAW RULING PROTESTED

Contends Commission Price for Water Prohibitive.

SALEM, Or., Sept. 19 .- (Special.)-

SALEM, Or., Sept. 19.—(Special.)—
Petition for rehearing in the Squaw Creek Irrigation Company's case before the Public Service Commission was filed with the commission today by Vernon Forbes, of Bend.

The petition declared that the commission erred in holding that "the economic duty of water in this district is about two acre-feet per year."

The petition also alleges that the commission erred in fixing a rate of 60 cents per acre-foot per year for water, declaring that such a price is prohibitive.

WEST SIDE PAVING HELD UP

Chairman Benson Explains That Pacific Highway on East Side of River Is Most Direct Route and Will Be Built First.

SHERIDAN, 0r., Sept. 19 .- (Special.) Notices were sent throughout Yamhill County today by O. W. Magill, of McMinnville, secretary of the County Good Roads Association, calling a speon the findings of an insanity commission which investigated her mental condition last month.

The county authorities this morning will request Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner, superintendent of the State Hospital, to send an attendant to take the woman to that institution.

The case of Miss Kinney was first the state of the state Hospital and saked him if the report was true.

West Side Pacific Highway would not be paved.

He said Mr. Benson gave as a reason too much expense to the state as a result of the compromise effected recently by the County Courts of Polk and Famhili, which placed the highway through Ballston by way of Bellevus and Salt Creek. The law specifically states that the highway shall be paved, said Mr. Magill, and the meeting Tuesday is to determine what action the West Siders shall take and whether or not to start mandamus proceedings. The endeavor will also be made to get co-operation with the other made to get co-operation with the other West Side counties.

Mr. Benson Makes Reply,

"It is not correct that the Highway Commission, or myself, have taken the stand that the West Side Pacific Highway shall not be paved," said S. Benson, chairman of the Commission, last night. "If Mr. Magill, or others in Yamhill County have gained that impression, it has been due to misunderstanding. standing.
"The Commission takes the view that inasmuch as the route selected by the West Side counties, via Ballston, is not a direct highway, but a road of local importance only, the East Side Pacific Highway, which is a direct road, should take precedence.

Direct Trunk Road Comes First. "The Commission must consider the interests of the state as a whole before those of any locality. And the interests of the state as a whole require that
