

WALLEY MILLS PUT UP BILE FOR RATES

Blame Placed on Transcontinental Northern Railways for Injustice.

COMMISSION HEARING HELD

Contention Is That Points Along Southern Pacific Are Entitled to Same Tariff as Equidistant Points in Washington.

(Continued From First Page.) The territory described in the complaint because of the differential over what competing mills have to pay.

Mr. Dixon said stumpage in Lane County is $1 a thousand, as against $2.50 to $4 on the Columbia River, a part of the differential being due to local freight tariffs that shut the finished lumber out of wide markets.

Mr. R. A. Cowden, president of the Silverton Lumber Company, said if the gateway at Portland were to be opened, as sought in the present suit, he would be satisfied 25 per cent of the output of his mill could be shipped to the territory involved.

His company and another at Silverton had, in fact, even considered building a railway four miles long to connect with the Chickamaux Southern at Mount Angel, which, like the Oregon Electric, absorbs the local rate at Portland.

"We have had numerous negotiations with the Northern Pacific and the Great Northern," he said, "and have expressed ourselves willing to establish blanket rates."

"Why has this not been done?" asked Attorney-Examiner Marshall. "The Northern lines have many mills on their own roads and I assume they desired to move as much lumber as they could to their own local points and obtain in this way the maximum revenue," he said.

The Northern lines propose to introduce only three or four witnesses today and this will close the hearing unless it is decided to examine additional witnesses. The hearing will open this morning in the postoffice building at 9 o'clock.

H. A. Scandrett, of Chicago, appears as attorney for the Northern Pacific and D. W. Scandrett, a brother, appears for the Northern lines. The Southern Pacific Company's attorneys are Ben C. Dey and C. W. Durbin, the latter of San Francisco. In attendance are numbers of railway traffic officials. F. G. Donaldson and William C. McCullough represent the plaintiffs.

Prefaced by a brief statement of the case by Attorney-Examiner Marshall, supplemented by a slightly more detailed outline of the case, the lumbermen by William C. McCullough, the taking of testimony began in the Federal courtroom at 10 o'clock yesterday morning.

F. G. Donaldson, secretary and traffic manager of the Willamette Valley Lumbermen's Association, was the first witness, set forth with a good deal of detail the allegations of the plaintiff. The association represents 22 mills in the Willamette Valley, at a distance of from 25 to 150 miles from Portland. These mills manufacture 1,325,000 feet of lumber a day, or 21 per cent of the state output. The output of the mills of Washington, he said, for the past 10 years, has been double that of Oregon mills.

He supported this statement with a quotation from the testimony of H. D. Langille, at a Federal trade hearing, in which Mr. Langille said that wage-earners in the lumber industry of Oregon number 15,065, as compared with 42,749 in the Washington lumber industry. Wages paid in this state are more than $19,000,000 a year, as against over $11,000,000 a year in Washington.

Wider Market Urged. It was Mr. Langille's conclusion that wider markets are essential for Oregon lumber if this great industry is to prosper here and that freight rate equality with competing mills elsewhere is absolutely necessary.

TO HELP YOUNG GIRLS

Eaton, Ill.—"I wish you would publish this letter for the benefit of young girls. My daughter suffered greatly from female trouble with cramps, any headache, and backache most of the time. She never felt like working and it seemed as though she was sick all the time. I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has helped her in every way. In fact it has really cured her, for she no longer has periodic pains, and no more headaches or backache, and I want all young girls who suffer as she did to know about it."

Another Girl's Experience.

New Castle, Ind.—"From the time I was eleven years old until I was seventeen I suffered each month so I had to be in bed. I had headache, backache and such pains I would cramp double every month. I did not know what it was to be easy a minute. My health was all run down and the doctors did not do me any good. A neighbor told my mother about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took it, and now I feel like a new person. I don't suffer any more and I am regular every month."
