State Tax Commissioner Galloway Has Completed Statement Showing What Each County Will Receive.

SALEM, Or., Sept. 23.—(Special.)— State Tax Commissioner Galloway has completed a statement of the taxes, penalties and interest due to the 18 penalties and interest due to the 18 counties of the state in which are situated Oregon & California grant lands. These taxes, penalties and interest will be paid within a month, according to word received here.

A few discrepancies exist in the list.

but they represent minor amounts only and will be straightened out when the payments are made. The payments are to be made up to June 9, 1918, by the Federal Government, as agreed under a stipulation between the Government nd the District Attorneys of the sev-

The taxes for the countles in Oregon amount to $1,344,893.45 and the penal-ties and interest to $224,213.14, or a total of $1,579,106.59.

Divided among the counties affected the payments will be as follows:

COPY OF DEEDS SOUGHT State Wants Photographs of Pacific Livestock Documents.

SALEM, Or., Sept. 23.—(Special.)— Copy of a motion to be filed in the Circuit Court of Harmey County was forwarded by Attorney-General Brown forwarded by Attorney-General Brown to Attorney E. F. Treadwell, of San Francisco, today. The motion is in connection with the Pacific Livestock land fraud cases and asks that more than 53 deeds in possession of the Pacific Livestock Company be placed in the hands of the state for a sufficient length of time to be photographed.

An affidavit from the Attorney-Gen eral accompanies the motion, in which it is intimated that a large number of these deeds may be fictitious or for-geries and the photographs are to be taken for the purpose of examination.

CANYON CITY, Or., Sept. 28.—(Special).—I. B. Hazelline, of this city, who has been district game warden of Haker and Grant countles for several years, has been reappointed by State Came Warden Carl D. Shoemaker. The State Game Commission was recently reorganized and Mr. Hazeltine was re-tained in the service and Harney and Malheur County added to his district.
