

FAIR EXHIBITS TELL HOW TO SAVE FOOD

Campaign to Kill Kaiserism Is Aided by Oregon Agricultural College.

STOCK SHOW EXCELLENT

Children's Exhibits Also Draw Big Crowds—Today Is Salem Day and Banner Attendance Is Expected if Sun Shines.

SALEM, Or., Sept. 25.—(Special)—Today was food prepared day at the Oregon State Fair and while the slogan for the week at the fair is "Hooverizing," special stress was placed upon today, as it was so billed in the programme.

The Oregon Agricultural College is devoting all of its efforts along this line at the fair this year. There is not a word of the attractions at the college, of the faculty nor of the advantages of the institution, all in line for patriotism, and follows to the letter Herbert Hoover's campaign to kill Kaiserism with conservation.

Crowd Is of Good Size. The crowd today was far probably a little better than usual for the second day.

All of the exhibits and pavilions were admired. The stock is brilliant, the textile department is up to the best standard, the children's exhibits draw crowds, the horses are of the best and in contrast is an splendid showing of automobiles which fills over half of the machinery sheds.

Tomorrow will be Salem day, and it is expected that over a banner crowd in the history of the fair will be present.

The weather today was cloudy, but not threatening and indications tonight point to especially good weather for tomorrow.

Mothers Hold Meeting. The Oregon Congress of Mothers and the State Woman's Christian Temperance Union held a joint session, at which Mrs. Jennie Kemp, state president of the W. C. T. U., presided.

It was announced today that Mrs. Mary Hanford Ford will deliver a lecture at the fair tomorrow on the "Relation of Women and Art to War." The lecture will be given under the auspices of the art department, of which Mrs. Alice Welster, of Portland, is superintendent.

CLACKAMAS EXHIBIT WINNER Booth at State Fair Is Declared Most Artistically Decorated.

OREGON CITY, Or., Sept. 25.—(Special)—For the third time Clackamas County captured sweepstakes for the most artistically decorated exhibit booth in the juvenile department at the State Fair. County school superintendent Calavan and his corps of workers were in Salem Sunday night ready to set up their exhibit, which did not reach the grounds until 10 P. M.

Four Clackamas school students are at the State Fair this week, as the guests of the institution, having scored highest in project work. Viola Jones, of Oregon City, and Lols Paszankoff, of Maple Lake, are the winners.

CAMOUFLAGE ON TRUNKS AT DEPOT DOES NOT DECEIVE

Patrolman Vessey Captures Quantity of California Liquor, but Finds No Owners.

"H. H. camouflage," muttered Patrolman Vessey as he examined a couple of common-looking trunks at the Union Depot. From every pore of the trunks—if trunks have pores—there emerged the odor of perfume—a perfect symphony of the many delightful perfumes which adorn Milady's dressing table.

His second guess was right. Procuring a search warrant, he took the trunks to police headquarters and found five gallons of California liquor in each. Judge Rosman, being a likable sort of a chap, herewith extends an invitation to the owners of these awfully scenic trunks to come to his daily morning reception.

A third trunk containing 12 quart bottles of whiskey was likewise secured yesterday by Patrolman Vessey.

Eight years ago Orrin Davis and a boon companion parted ways. They had been true pals, and as the parting moment came they drank a toast to each other's luck until they should meet again.

Monday evening these pals of "pre-prohibition" days met again. It was a glad reunion, and as they sat about in their room "swapping" in their many adventures, a quart bottle of whiskey was fast disappearing.

It wasn't long before Davis forgot whether he was in Portland or Portland.

EXPLOSION PUT OFF

West Side Pacific Highway Route Split Menaces.

Fiery Sessions Are Due Highway Commission Decides to Expel $200,000 on Lincoln Roads Within Next 3 Years

County Votes Bonds. The interesting subject of the route the West Side Pacific Highway shall follow was not raised, at least formally, at a meeting of the State Highway Commission yesterday in the office of Commissioner Benson, in the Yeon building.

A fight loomed in the background, and is certain to bob up for a thorough thrashing out in the near future.

There has been such a united volume of protests against the action of two members of the Commission, Mr. Adams and Mr. Thompson, in voting to locate the highway from McMinnville south to Monmouth by the roundabout and twisting Bellvue-Ballston-Dallas route, that the Commission is certain to have taken some cognizance of the protests.

Benton and Polk Aroused. Leading citizens of McMinnville and Independence expressed themselves very forcibly on the subject at a meeting in Portland Monday night, at which they unanimously indorsed the stand of the Benton and Polk counties.

Lincoln Bonds Will Be Matched. The contract was awarded to Mr. Adams, of the firm which has a bid of $4700 from $100 to $400 below that of four other bidders.

GERMANS REPEAT TRIALS

Score of Casualties First Report of Tuesday Night Visit of Airplanes.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—Another hostile airplane raid on London took place tonight. There were two attacks apparently, for after a 40-minute quiet interval anti-aircraft guns resumed firing in the London district.

MONDAY NIGHT'S TOLL 15 Planes and Zeppelins Make Separate Attacks on English Coast.

London Mail Demands Reprisal Bombings.

The Thames estuary was again the object of a hostile air raid this evening. The Kent coast was crossed at various points and a few bombs were dropped, but no casualties as yet reported.

It appears that the fierce battle which the British airplanes and anti-aircraft artillery put up for the raiders to leave London without dropping any considerable part of their cargo of explosives.

It is reported that the raiders landed on a pretentious scale, but it was more abortive than previous attempts.

GOVERNMENT RESTS CASE

Testimony Introduced to Show Oklahoma Working Class Union Planned to Commandeer Home Defense Arms.

ENID, Okla., Sept. 25.—In testimony that the leaders of the Working Class Union urged their members to "take to the brush and shoot the officers who came after them" to draft them in the National Army, the Government rested its case late today in the trial against the 11 men accused of participation in the Oklahoma anti-draft riot of August 1.

That the Working Class Union at the time of the arrests, was planning a state convention to arrange for guns and ammunition was also stated, as well as the allegation that the union's plans included commandeering home guard units in Oklahoma.

It was said that enough groundswater had been laid later to show the Ruben Munson, state organizer, and H. E. Spence, state secretary of the union, had received funds from German agents.

The introduction of state witnesses neared a close today. Following the testimony of J. C. Harrod, aged father of three of the defendants, who tried to commit suicide, Government attorneys announced they expected to conclude introduction of evidence this afternoon.

Harrod, weak from the loss of blood, occupied the witness stand most of the morning. Toward the close of his testimony he was asked to tell the jury why he wished to die.

"I was willing to suffer as I tried to rather than tell the things I knew I would have to tell here against my neighbors."

Harrod lives in the immediate vicinity of the 11 defendants.

The had been laid later to show the Ruben Munson, state organizer, and H. E. Spence, state secretary of the union, had received funds from German agents.

Gresham to Have Singing Society. GRESHAM, Or., Sept. 25.—(Special)—Joseph A. Finley, a well-known chorus leader of Portland, will meet with the singers of Gresham at the Gresham Singing Society, September 25, to organize a singing society.

Lovely White Skin! Strain lemon juice well before mixing and massage face, neck, arms, hands.

By all means, girls, prepare a lemon lotion to keep your skin flexible and young looking. You will soon realize that true loveliness does not mean the face, neck, arms and hands of some hothouse flower, but is typified by the velvety softness of your skin, your peach-like complexion and rosy-white hands.

At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quart of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier, by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white. Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sunburn and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, smoothener and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart of this sweetly fragrant lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It should naturally help to whiten, soften, freshen and bring out the roses and hidden beauty of any skin. This is simply marvelous to smoothen rough, red hands.—Adv.

Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. Add the bowels are muscles. So all old people need Cascarets. One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect this gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty. Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity, but a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic, one that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets, and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store.—Adv.
