

SOCIETY NEWS

BY GERTRUDE P. CORBETT

THE young people of Irvington and their friends who are to attend the party at the Irvington club-house tonight have a treat in store in the form of a jolly festivity, the first gathering of the fall season. Throughout the year similar parties will be held on the first and third Fridays. Mrs. E. A. Stewart will serve as general chairman for the occasion and the patronesses assisting her will be Mrs. W. J. Hofmann and Mrs. M. Versteeg. The Juniors will choose their own leaders and will have a big part in the club affairs this year.

Another event of tonight will be the Chi Omega benefit dance at Muriel's Hall. This will be for the Albina Homestead lunchroom fund. Preceding it there will be an elaborate society dinner at the George Kelly residence with Mrs. Kate Kelly Sappington and Miss Jean Kelly as hostesses.

Mrs. W. D. Wheelwright, patroness of the Zeta Alpha Omicron Club, will entertain the girls of that organization on Saturday at an informal 4 o'clock tea. The club is made up of Oregon Agricultural College girls who are petitioning Chi Omega for a chapter.

The benefit programme at the Hippodrome Theater tomorrow under the auspices of the girls of the Honor Guard promises to be unusually attractive. Several society maids will act as ushers. These programmes are given every Saturday morning at the Hippodrome for the benefit of the Baby Home and they are attracting the attention of prominent Portland folk. The programme for tomorrow is being arranged by Miss Mamie Helen Flynn as chairman. She will be assisted by Mrs. Alan Green (Helen Ladd), Mrs. Cameron Squires (Claire Wilcox), Mrs. Hazel Litt and Miss Jean Morrison. Patronesses for the affair include Mrs. William MacMaster, Mrs. Joseph N. Teal, Mrs. A. A. Morrison, Mrs. W. D. Wheelwright, Mrs. C. S. Shevlin, Mrs. William Alvord, Mrs. Guy Talbot and Mrs. J. D. Farrell.

An interesting event of yesterday was the tea given by Miss Ailsa MacMaster at the MacMaster country home at Ardour in honor of Miss Isabella Macleay, fiancée of Lovell Winters, and Miss Gladys Pitts, of Victoria, B. C., who is the guest of Miss MacMaster for several weeks. During the afternoon about 40 maids and younger matrons called.

Mrs. Alan Green and Mrs. Norman Rupp presided over the attractive tea table in the dining-room. Assisting about the rooms were Miss Elizabeth Jones, Miss Patsy Stewart and Mrs. Hazel E. Litt.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Frederick Cordner (Viola Crane), of Seattle, will arrive in Portland Sunday to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Pritchard (Maude Heister).

Bishop Rowe and Mrs. Rowe, of Alaska, are guests at Bishopcraft, on Elm street, Portland Heights. Bishop Sumner and Bishop Rowe, who went to Astoria for a dean's convention, will return today.

On Friday evening, October 6, a reception will be given to Dr. and Mrs. Luther Dyott in honor of the 10th anniversary of their arrival in Portland. The reception is under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society of the First Congregational Church, of which Dr. Dyott has been pastor since 1907. The members of the Aid Society will be assisted in receiving by the women's organization of the church.

The Masonic Temple will be the scene tomorrow night of a delightful card and dance party to be given by the Portland Social Club, Order of Eastern Star. Mrs. Maude Giles is chairman of the committee and will be assisted by a number of prominent members. The grand march will begin at 8:30 o'clock. Cards will be passed, beginning promptly at 8:15 o'clock.

Miss Lura Tamiens left yesterday for Stanford University, where she will resume her studies.

Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Squires arrived yesterday on the Shasta Limited from their wedding trip. They were met at the depot by Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox, mother of the bride, and by several members of the younger smart set.

In compliment to Mrs. John L. May, the auxiliaries to the Third Oregon will give a reception this afternoon at the Hotel Portland. Mrs. May's friends will be welcomed and will be given an opportunity to bid her farewell before her departure for the East. She is widely beloved and will be missed by her coworkers in patriotic organizations. Mrs. May is affectionately called "the mother of the Third Oregon."

Portland Knights of Columbus will give a dance, October 19 at the Multnomah Hotel.

Mrs. A. A. Morrison was at home informally yesterday, when a number of friends called to view the crocheted and knitted squares that have been gathered for the soldiers' quilts for European hospitals. Over 100 squares, gay and bright, are ready for shipment. The responses have come from all parts of Oregon.

Women's Clubs

By Ethel Knight Holmes

THE club season really opens today, when the Portland Woman's Club, which is the mother of Portland clubdom, will begin its meetings by assembling at 2 o'clock in the Multnomah Hotel. There will be a business session and Mrs. C. B. Simmons, president, and other officers will report and speak briefly, and then there will be the after-vacation greetings which always are so delightful. Mrs. Bingham Bates, a charter member of the club, who has made her home in New York City for several years, will be present and will be greeted by her old-time friends. Mrs. Mary Hanford Ford will speak. Mrs. C. B. Simmons will preside. For several years the club met in Women of Woodcraft building, but last season it decided to move to the Multnomah, and the move has been a happy one, for the new quarters are ideal.

An anticipated event of next week is the meeting of the Council of Jewish Women. This will take place next Wednesday at B'nai B'rith Hall. Mrs. S. M. Bluminger will have charge of the programme and Mrs. Henry William Metzger will be social hostess. The prominence and efficiency of both women gives assurance of a day that will be an auspicious opening for the fall season.

The endowment committee of the General Federation of Women's Clubs has invested over $15,000 of the federation endowment fund Liberty Loan Bonds, and this example has been followed by several of the states which have endowment funds.

Mrs. Joseph Evans Cowles, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, has been made a member of the Library War Council, of which Frank A. Vanderlip is chairman, and whose purpose is to provide soldiers and sailors with adequate library facilities.

The Lavender Club, Branch 1, will meet today at 2 o'clock in East Side Library their headquarters for the season. Plans will be made for the winter.

Miss Adele Dyott and Miss Frances Gill, who have been giving several musical and literary programmes as their "bit," will appear on a programme at the Terwilliger School this evening.

Miss Gill will give several readings from her volume of poems entitled, "The Little Day."

The programme is under the auspices of the Terwilliger Parent-Teacher Association.

A short patriotic address will be given by Judge J. H. Stevenson.

The Portland Railroad Woman's Club will hold their first meeting of the season today in Central Library room B at 2 P. M.

The regular P. E. O. luncheon will be held today at 12:30 P. M. in the tearoom of Olds, Wortman & King.

Tonight at 8 P. M. the relatives and friends of men enlisted in Company E, Eighteenth Regiment of the Engineers Railroad, are urged to attend a meeting at the Multnomah Hotel. An auxiliary to the company will be formed and officers will be elected.

The luncheon given yesterday by the Portland Woman's Research Club was attended by a representative gathering of women from different sections of the city. Mrs. C. L. Buland as chairman presided. The programme was under the auspices of the Monday Musical Club and included a violin selection by Julia Christine Brakel and a vocal solo by Leah Slusser Hathaway. Miss Edna Groves, of the domestic science department of the public schools, gave a short talk on "Household Conservation." Professor Robert D. Leigh, of Reed College, spoke of the patriotic duty of the young men of these days to be ready to assume leadership of different phases of work.

Talks were given on the subject of war libraries by Miss Frances Isom and W. L. Brewster, chairman of the war library drive. Miss Isom spoke particularly of the need for textbooks among the soldiers.

A business meeting following the luncheon the resignation of the treasurer, Mrs. Hichon, was accepted and Mrs. Charles Dent was elected to fill the position. The club was given a membership in the Oregon Patriotic Relief Division. They will meet on the second Thursday of every month at Olds, Wortman & King's to sew for the Red Cross. Mrs. A. E. Dean was appointed as chairman of the patriotic work. Mrs. John Shurey was elected as luncheon secretary. Delegates to the State Federation were elected as follows: Mrs. E. P. Malay, Mrs. M. L. T. Hichon, Mrs. John Shurey and Mrs. Wyville.

An illustrated lecture, "The Tragedy of Failing to Make Known," will be given by Mrs. E. Russell Jehu, assisted by Miss Pirie, Scottish musical monologist, Sunday, September 30, at 2 P. M. in Central Library, room A under the auspices of the W. C. T. U.

This lecture is given in conjunction with the eighth annual day for the benefit of Louise Home and Albertina Kerr Nursery to take place Saturday, October 6.

The President's Conference Club will give a luncheon tomorrow at 12 o'clock at the Portland Hotel. Presi-
