THE MORNING OREGONIAN, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1917.

YOUNG MATRON WHO WILL ASSIST AT EIGHTH ANNUAL TAG DAY | Temple at 2:30 o'clock today in con reinple at 2.35 before today in contract to an end of the pline of the second s FOR PACIFIC COAST RESCUE AND PROTECTIVE SOCIETY SATURDAY.

T^{HE} very latest is "a Red Cross siring to knit socks for the boys. The regular business meeting of the auxiliary will be held at Central Library at 5 o'clock on Thursday evening. All members are requested to be present. Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Verrall, who were meeting to be reference of the served and a pleasant and profitable afternoon was en-toyed by all. shop there will be for sale all sorts of ar-ficles and all the money gathered will be for the soldiers in the trenches. A bureau will be established there as a channel through which relatives and friends may send parcels to relatives at the front. Mrs. William L. Wood will have the co-operation of society wom-en and earnest workers, who will put en and earnest workers, who will put

Miss Carolyn Lowengart will leave today for San Francisco, en route to Chicago, where she will visit friends. Miss Lowengart is a gifted singer and socially popular. patriolle service first and foremost. This shop, it is hoped, will prove a most popular affair and will be the neans of doing a vast amount of prac-Tonight will be decidedly important

In a social and musical way, for it will mark the appearance of the cclebrated singer. Madame Matzenaner, who will be heard at the Hellig Theater in con-cert. Socially, too, the affair is of great moment, for the smart set will great moment, for the smart set will be there in modish Fall gowns and evening wraps. Among those who have engaged boxes and will entertain friends are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cook-ingham, Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Burns, Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Sears, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Edwards, Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Coffey and Mr. and Mrs. L. Samuels. A number of line parties are arranged and a brilliant audience is expected to wel-

. . . Franklin Parent-Teacher Association held a reception in the school gymna-sium last Friday evening. Mrs. Will-iam Akers and Mrs. Belle V. Ober, president and vice-president of the associa-tion, had made every effort to keep the affair on an informal basis and enable the parents and teachers to get ac-quainted. The programme arranged by Mrs. J. F. Chapman and the school's musical instructor, R. V. Walsh. included songs by the glee clubs, National songs in which everyone joined, solos by Verne Isom, young violinist, and Miss Etha Kennedy, soprano. Miss Ruth Heindrichs played the accompaniments. The glee clubs and Miss Ken-nedy repeated part of the programme

Brooklyn Mothers' and Teachers' Club held its first meeting of the year Mon-day and the following officers were in-stalled: President, Mrs. W. E. Epps: vice-president, Mrs. George Clark; sec-retary, Mrs. M. Klapper; treasurer, Mrs. Fred Urfer. It was voted to have the meeting day changed from first

The Capitol Hill Parent-Teacher Association will meet Thursday evening at 8° o'clock. There will be a lecture given by Samuel Lancaster on "Making Use of the Beautiful." On the first Fri-day in November there will be a Hal-loween party given at the school. There

W HAT to have on "meatless" days with or without Spanish pepper (do not W should be an easy problem for the Portland housekeeper who can obtain curry soup with rice, cream of fish and celery or cauliflower soup with grated

Coffey and Mr. and Mrs. L. Samuels. A submet of line parties are arranged and a brilliant audience is expected to well-a brilliant audience is expected to well-come the soloid. Mrs. Kenneth Hauser has received a nononcing that members of Company F Eighteenth Regiment. Railway Engineers, are well. This is the first written and billity. Mrs. D. Bodine is the hostess chairman for the convention. Portland has sent a larger delegation. The work of the patriotic relief committee has been splendid and has won deserved praise. St. Johns Parent-Teacher Association can eat fish and save the meal for the boys in the trenches," is how one meat market man in Canada put it.

First a few general "reminders" bout fish cooking: 1. Be sure it is fresh and well always an expensive item) can be ob tained from such stock, and with addi-tional inexpensive material, such as chions or tomatoes, potatoes, or rice, a substantial and nourishing "main dish" for a simple luncheon may be pre-safety.

On October 10 there will be a large on October 10 there will be a large party at the Multnounsh Hotel for the benefit of the company. The Auxiliary to Company F will be the hostess or-ganization. A concert by the Elks' Band will be a feature, but dancing will be the main diversion.

A social event of interest for tonight will be the reception arranged in com pliment to Dr. and Mrs. Luther B Dyott. The occasion will celebrate the close of the 10th year of Dr. Dyott's pastorate in the First Congregational Church. Pastors of other city churches and their wives have been invited to attend and share in the pleasures of the occasion.

Saturday has been set as the tag day for the Pacific Coast Rescue and Protective Society, which organization supports Louise Home and the Alber-Kerr Nursery, Several young tina maids and matrons have promised to sell tags and they are hoping that the charity near at home will not be over-looked. Mrs. Julian E. Keilus is head-ing a committee of young women who will assint.

. . .

The opening party of the Rose City Dancing Club for the season of 1917-18 will be given at Christensen's Hall to-motrow evening, beginning promptly at $:45 P. M. The members are looking forward to the most enjoyable season in the history of the organization. The in the history of the organization. The membership is limited to 125.

In response to a cordial invitation from Richard W. Childs, manager of Hotel Portland, the members of the editorial staffs of the city's daily pa-pers assembled on Monday night at the hotel and enjoyed a delightful evening Cards and dancing afforded pleasant diversion. A surprise and treat ar-ranged was the appearance of Anthony Euwer, who came in after his jecture ranged was the appearance of Anthony Euwer, who came in alter his lecture at the Little Theator and gave some clever readings. He was introduced by H. E. Thomas, A supper was served and the music was inspiring, complet-ing a well-planned entertainment. Mr. Childs was assisted in receiving by a committee of Portland writers and by E. S. Robe, assistant manager. The Rose Social Club will meet with Mrs. J. W. Simmons, 18845 Twelfth street, Friday at 2 o'clock. All Royal Neighbors are welcome.

Neighbors are welcome.

The women of the Auxiliary to Company "A. Oregon Engineers, will meet at the home of Mrs. M. B. McFaul, 120 East Twelfth street, corner of Alder street, at 1 o'clock this afternon. All are requested to bring their knitting. Yarn will be furnished to members de-Name Street, the street of the social hour Wirks Wights and the meeting Mrs. William Henry Metzger will be Mrs. William Henry Metzger will be Scup with tomatoes, onions and rice,

The New Home Treatment for Ugly, Hairy Growths

(Boudoir Secrets.) Here is a simple, yet very effective method for removing hair and fuzz from the face noth only and fuzz from the face, neck and arms; Cover the objectionable hairs with a paste meet tonight in the Library, room A. made by mixing some water with a inade by mixing some water with a little powdered delatone. Leave this on for two or three minutes, then rub off, wash the skin and the hairs have vanished. No pain or inconven-fence attends this treatment, but re-sults will be certain if you are sure fence attends this treatment, but re-sults will be certain if you are sure to get real delatone.—Adv. A reception will be held in the White

St. Johns Parent-Teacher Association will have a special programme on Octo-ber 11, when there will be an address on "Vocational Training and News-paper Work" and the music will be given by an Hawaiian player. The Portland Vindergartan Council The Portland Vindergartan Council

Mrs. R. P. Knight and son. George Vincent Knight, left yesterday for Long Beach, Cal., where they probably will pass the Winter.

The Portland Kindergarten Council ing an effort; and the "effort" should be made as easy as possible by the art of the cook. "If you can't fight, you will hold its monthly luncheon at the

CALENDAR FOR TODAY.

Tea-Miss Ruth Teal, enter-taining for Miss Elizabeth Jones. Council of Jewish Women --First meeting of the Fall, B'nai B'rith Hall, 2 o'clock.

Coterie-Multhomah Hotel, 11 A. M.; luncheon, 1 P. M. Benefit Tea - Mrs. Morton Doty, for Company C Auxiliary. Trinity Guild-Parish House, this afternoon.

Co-operative League - Clubhouse, East Tenth and Weidler streets: programme, 2:30 P. M. - Entertainment at Courthouse-George Wright Rellef Corps and Post, 3 P. M.

Reception-Honoring Dr. and Reception—Honoring Dr. and Mrs. L. R. Dyott, parlors of First Congregational Church. Unitarian Alliance — Lecture this afternoon: forming of Red Cross unit: all-day meeting. Reception—White Temple, this Concert-Mme. Matzenauer, at Heilig, 8:15 P. M.

3. Always prepare and steam the fish stock the day before you make the chowder, so as to obtain long, slow cacking. A homempde fireless cooker reduces both cost and trouble. If only a small amount of fish stock can be wade use it to making the store for the leaned.

pared.

Shanna Cumming will have charge of the art work.

Following are a few suggestions as to methods of cooking or serving fish other than plain boiled, baked or fried.

antsen the Coterie's meeting and luncheon in Everybody ought to have a Jantzen o'clock in the morning. The State Woman's Press Club will all-wool sweater." They give comfort and warmth with plenty of freedom for the body. Jantzen's are made right. Your dealer sells them.

spiced apples. 8. Green peppers or tomatoes stuffed with fish and any other preferred

 Fish salads (with vegetables),
Jellied fish with potato salad or vegetable salad.

11. Fish "Spanish," in border of rice, polenta or hot plain combread. 12. Fish with macaroni, baked or in border, with sauce. 13. Fish pancakes with tomato sauce.

14. Fish croquettes or cutlets with piquant or tartare sauce.

Two School Buildings Burned.

2. Except in special cases, and for ome particular dishes, ordinary "mar-MARSHFIELD, Or., Oct. 2. - (Special.)-The school district at Two Mile, some distance below Bandon, where fwo some particular dishes, ordinary "mar-ket fish" is best served without skin and with as few bones as possible. It is not much more trouble to preparé fish in this way if you have a sharp knife, a pair of scissors and a little skill, and the "skinless, boneless" dish is not only usually more accentable school buildings have been burned in the past 18 months, is about to vote on the polley of constructing a third building. The two fires thought to have been incendiary, are being inves-tigated by state of icials and insurance men. Some of the patrons of the school s not only usually more acceptable o "beginning fish eaters," but it gives you a chance to make excellent chowdistrict are urging construction of the third building be in concrete, thus guaranteeing the structure against er, or other fish soups, using the stock nade from the well-cleaned heads, Kins, fins and bones. Quite a little utriment and a good deal of "flavor" mrning.

than a neat serge or silk one-piec dress? They're inexpensive at CHER-RYS, full of style and easily paid for 289-91 Washington st., Pittock blk .--Adv.

Often no more than thirty minutes from the time you telephone us you have broken your glasses until we have new lenses ready.

Never forget that the Columbian is a very big company with very unusual facilities.

It can do its work quicker.

145 Sixth Street

Yes, and more accurately. Much more accurately.

Either from your prescription, or, if necessary, from the broken pieces.

COLUMBIAN OPTICAL CO. FLOYD F. BROWER, Manager

Portland, Oregon,

HEAL' GEMS ASK YOUR GROCER Originated by Tru-Blu Biscuit Co. PORTLAND Housewives Cooking and Meal Planning in These War Times. If you wish to do your bit by conserving the foods needed by our Army, enter one of the new courses at the Young Women's Christian Association, where you will learn the best ways of carrying out the Hoover suggestions. DAY AND EVENING CLASSES BEGIN OCTOBER 8 The usual courses in cooking, serving and dietetics will also be given. Phone Your Want Ads to THE OREGONIAN Main 7070, A 6095

