THE USED CAR BUSINESS,

At one time used cars were bought and sold on the horse-trading plan. The methods used were often open to question. But the steadily increasing demand for good used cars has changed all this until teday the used car business has come into its own. It is built and conducted on a sound, economic basis.

To give honest value for every cent you put into a used car is our ambition. And we realize our ambition every day.

Call and see us.
