NET LOSSES ARE RECORDED

Steady Liquidation of Investment Issues Marks Larger Part of Session—Call Money Rates Established—Bonds Heavy.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—The greater depression which attended today's stock dealings was again due mainly to familiar causes of conditions, namely, steady liquidation of securities of a character generally favored by investors.

Recent heavy receipts in railroads were cited by some as a specific or definite nature of the movement, but in well-informed circles the belief still obtained that the selling emanated from foreign quarters.
