will be second only to that of General Petain, Commander-in-Chief of all French armies, and Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig, commanding all British forces in France, stand these two officers are numerous French and British Generals of very high rank.

As soon as the forces in France have reached a strength which will justify the action, the divisions will be organized into Army corps and a Lieutenant-General should command each corps. It is probable also that higher staff corps departments under General Pershing will be given rank in proportion to the importance of their duties.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 2.—Accused of having sent threatening letters to President Wilson, Senator James Hamilton Lewis, of Illinois, and a number of prominent Seattle men, Mrs. Anna MacEachern, about 40 years old, was arrested today by Federal agents. She resisted arrest and the officers were compelled to use force in overcoming her. She is secretary of a concern with offices in a downtown building.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 2.—Railroad officials say that a deliberate attempt was made last night in the Seattle yard to wreck the outgoing Portland owl train of the Great Northern Railroad. The two sleeping coaches were torn from the remainder of the train, after which they bumped along the ties at great speed for 100 yards, overturned a Northern Pacific switch engine tender and a stop when the forward sleeper turned over on its side.

MEETING TO RESUME TODAY

Both Sides Are Anxious to Terminate Industrial Chaos, Mr. Harry Declares—Only Two Shipyards Operating in Portland.

Negotiations between committees of the shipyard employers and the strikers continued yesterday and will be renewed this afternoon.

Secretary of Labor Wilson, heading another commission, the duty of which is to make a general survey of conditions all over the Pacific slope, is supposed to have left Washington Monday, headed for Arizona.

Picketing Is Stopped. Conditions in the shipyards here remain the same as since the strike, with a virtual tie-up in effect; no picketing and no violence.

There are about 4000 men from the steel shipyards and 3000 from the wooden ship plants, making a total of approximately 7000 who have been out all this time.

OREGON CITY, Or., Oct. 2.—(Special.)—Isaac Lane, old-time resident of Clackamas, was instantly killed this afternoon at 2:15 o'clock by falling from an auto truck on which he was riding, the rear wheel passing over his chest.

CASTORIA. For Infants and Children In Use For Over 30 Years.

Intersection of Center street and the River road in Oak City the driver shut off his power to change gears before going down the long hill out of Oak Grove. Mr. Lane stepped out of the seat grasping a support of the top to see if the load was intact and overbalanced, the rear wheel passing over his chest.

Isaac Lane was a native of Illinois, born there in 1848, and came to Oregon about 20 years ago, locating first at Eugene, where he resided for about 10 years, later removing to Clackamas, where he engaged in farming up to about three months ago. Selling his farm and stock he visited a son at Camas until a few days ago, when he located the place near Meldrum.

He is survived by three daughters, Margaret Lane, who lived with her father; Mrs. A. E. Richards, of Portland, and Mrs. Marie Stratton, of San Francisco; two sons, J. H. Lane, of Camas, and A. J. Lane, of Webster Acres, North Gladstone.

Today the second 40 per cent installment of the men drafted into the Army will start toward American Lake and the movement of about 13,000 men through Portland will be completed by the railroads on October 9.

Many troop trains will pass through Portland from the South and East during the week and the movement will be handled in practically the same fashion as the movement of the week before, when schedules worked out by railroad traffic men were followed with exactness.

One change calls for more stops at Portland for meals than was the case during the recent movement. It is expected meals will be served at the Multnomah Hotel, before, except these events will be more frequent than before.

The first Southern Pacific troop train will reach Portland tomorrow night at 11:45 and will leave soon thereafter on its way north. This train carries 491 drafted men from Solano County, California. The next train, with 3,400 men from Bakersfield and Redwood City, will arrive Friday morning at 7:30 and will stop here for breakfast.
