TELEPHONE PLANT WORTH $12,429,507

Valuation of Pacific Company Completed by State for Rate-Making Purposes.

VALUE GIVEN BY DISTRICTS

Portland's Share Is $7,396,910; Salem Is Second With $306,819, and Eugene Third With $209,548—Tolls $3,086,025.

SALEM, Or., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—The valuation of the properties in Oregon for rate-making purposes of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company is $12,429,507, according to an order of the Public Service Commission issued today. This is a valuation of the properties actually used and useful for the convenience of the public, including a due allowance for working capital, stores and supplies, the valuation being as of December 31, 1916.

The valuation of the Portland properties is placed at $7,396,910, Salem properties coming next with a valuation of $306,819 and Eugene third with a valuation of $209,548.

The order finds that the company has installed additions and betterments in Oregon between June 30, 1914, and January 1, 1917, amounting to $755,228.69.

Basis Is Explained.

In stating the basis upon which it found the valuation of the company's properties for rate-making purposes as shown in the present order, the Commission says:

"This value the Commission conceives to be an expression in dollars of the foundation upon which the utility's claim for a return must rest and, upon the other hand, to represent the amount upon which, provided it requires the imposition of no rates in and of themselves unreasonable or unjust, the ratepayer should pay a reasonable return."

Distribution Made by Counties.

The rate-making valuation for the various cities and towns in Oregon covered by Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company service as shown in the order is as follows:

Adams, $472; Albany, $95,200; Arlington, $2,412; Ashland, $93,243; Astoria, $135,123; Athena, $4433; Austin, $691; Baker, $151,835; Bay City, $15,220; Bend, $11,136; Bridal Veil, $165; Burlington, $383; Canyon City, $4710; Carlton, $5154; Cascade Locks, $181; Clifton, $228; Coburg, $1975; Corvallis, $41,855; Cottage Grove, $35,495; Drain, $1529; Durkee, $308; Echo, $11,627; Eugene, $209,548; Flanagan, $46; Florence, $16,506; Goble, $206; Grants Pass, $77,626; Grass Valley, $1083; Gwendolin, $44; Harrisburg, $6064; Heppner, $7085; Hermiston, $12,461; Huntington, $2733; Ione, $720; Irrigon, $45; Jefferson, $4328; Junction City, $8774; Klamath Falls, $65,565; Knappa, $205; Lexington, $316; Madras, $1297; Marcola, $131; Milton, $20,273; Milwaukie, $31,768; Moro, $2649; Newport, $9953; North Plains, $6368; Oak Grove, $22,920; Oakland, $5016; Olex, $69; Oregon City, $96,069; Pendleton, $82,181; Peoria, $591; Philomath, $6533; Portland, $7,396,910; Prineville, $8887; Rainier, $8054; Rickreall, $1061; Roseburg, $75,249; Salem, $306,819; Seaside, $2696; Shaniko, $1575; Shedds, $1434; Siletz, $163; Springfield, $21,080; Stanfield, $3557; St. Helens, $14,712; Stayton, $218; Sumpter, $3844; The Dalles, $88,615; Tillamook, $39,942; Toledo, $3306; Troutdale, $417; Waldo, $109; Warrendale, $246; Warrenton, $3169; Wasco, $3989; Weston, $4812; Whitney, $2694; Connect company points, $28,442; unassigned, $7169; toll, $3,086,025. LIQUOR MEN HIT HARD NEWLY IMPOSED TAX WILL FORCE MANY OUT OF BUSINESS.

San Francisco Said to Be More Heavily Stocked With Spirits Than Ever Before.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 4.—(Special.)—All stores, wholesale and retail, handling distilled liquors for beverage purposes must immediately take an inventory of their stock to determine the amount of revenue to be paid under the tax known as "floor tax." In carrying out this work, Collector Wardell has divided the city into districts, and his deputies are assisting in the inventory of stocks of liquors and cigars.

There is said to be about 30 per cent more distilled spirits in San Francisco at present than ever before. One firm is said to have more than 5000 barrels on which it will be obliged to pay an additional tax of $2.20 a gallon, or about $500,000 on the lot.

A large portion of this stock of liquor was saved from the fire in 1906. It is said that fully half of the wholesale liquor houses in San Francisco will be forced out of business because of the tax of $2.20 added to the normal tax of $1.10. Many houses stocked heavily with liquors when the food control bill was before Congress, some borrowing heavily and investing all available funds to "beat" the provisions of the bill. Now these firms find themselves charged a heavy tax on these large stocks and many are without ready money to meet the unexpected demand.

Chaplain Bill Discussed.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Chairman Dent, of the House military committee, promised a delegation of clergymen to call a special committee meeting tomorrow to consider the Senate bill providing for the appointment of one chaplain for each 1200 enlisted men, or three for each regiment. An effort will be made to have the bill passed before adjournment. Secretary Baker told the clergymen today he would recommend only two chaplains for each regiment.

THE FIRST LINE OF DEFENSE

Pure blood is the body's first line of defense against disease.

Healthy blood contains small amounts of antitoxins that neutralize the poisons of invading germs or destroy the germs themselves. That is why so many people exposed to disease do not contract it. Those whose blood is weak and therefore lacking in defensive power are most liable to infection. Everybody may observe that healthy, red-blooded people are less liable to attacks of cold and the grip than are pale, bloodless people.

To build up the blood there is one remedy that has been a household word for a generation, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. They tone up the entire system, make the blood rich and red, strengthen the nerves, increase the appetite, put color in the cheeks and lips and drive away that unnatural tired feeling. Plenty of sunlight, good wholesome food and fresh air will do the rest.

Two books, "Building Up the Blood" and "What to Eat and How to Eat," give just the information that every mother of a growing girl needs. They are free. Write for them today to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.—Adv.

BARBEY PLEADS GUILTY

Fish Dealer Fined $50 for Shipping Unfit Salmon.

Henry J. Barbey, of the Barbey Fish Company, of Portland, pleaded guilty in the Federal Court yesterday to a charge of violating the pure food law by shipping in interstate commerce canned salmon unfit for human consumption. He was fined $50.

John J. Beckman, Assistant United States Attorney, had gathered evidence showing that 100 cases of salmon shipped out of Portland by the Barbey Company contained many cans of decomposed fish. Mr. Barbey asserted that his violation of the law had not been a wilful one.

Mother Amputates Arm of Injured Child.

Little One Cut Free From Washing Machine, Where Limb Is Crushed.

PIERRE, S. D., Oct. 4.—Mrs. J. B. Clarson, of Harding County, was forced to decide whether to amputate the arm of her little daughter or allow the child to suffer with her arm crushed in the machinery of a power washing machine until she could go a long distance for help. She decided, as the arm was so badly mangled that it would have to be cut off, she would perform the operation herself.

With the implements at hand she cut the suffering child loose and, hurriedly getting a team ready, took her to the nearest physician, where the injured stump was properly cared for.

The child had been left alone in a shed where a power washing machine was running, and, becoming frightened at a dog, attempted to go around the machine, and her arm was caught in the cogs.

10 FRENCH SHIPS SUNK

Mines and Submarines Take Weekly Toll of Shipping.

PARIS, Wednesday, Oct. 3.—The weekly report of losses to French shipping by submarines and mines shows that five vessels of more than 1600 tons each and five of less than that size were destroyed. Four of the smaller ships were lost in the preceding week. Five vessels were attacked unsuccessfully, one of them in the previous week.

Six fishing vessels were sunk, two of them in the preceding week.

ROME, Oct. 3.—Italian shipping losses by mines or submarines for the week ending September 30 in all seas were two sailing vessels of more than 100 tons and three sailing vessels of less than 100 tons. One small sailing vessel ecaped when attacked by a submarine.

MRS. HAVEMEYER SCORED

Maryland Committee Calls "Mad Sisters of La Follette" Traitors.

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 4.—The liberty loan committee of Maryland yesterday gave out a statement denouncing the attitude of members of the National Woman's Party in opposing the liberty loan at a meeting Tuesday. The statement classed the women as "the mad sisters of La Follette," and said "the declaration of war made against the Government and the country yesterday by Mrs. Henry O. Havemeyer and others deserves the burning denunciation of every patriotic woman in the United States.

"They have taken a step which amounts to practical treason by proclaiming their opposition to the liberty loan."

G.A.R. VETERANS HOMELESS

Building at Boise Soldiers' Home Destroyed by Fire.

BOISE, Ida., Oct. 4.—Fire destroyed the administration building of the Soldiers' Home here tonight, making homeless 80 G. A. R. veterans. Attorney-General T. A. Walters telegraphed to the Western Department of the United States Army at San Francisco and asked for permission to utilize the Boise Barracks until a new building could be erected.

None of the 188 veterans housed in the three buildings was hurt. The damage was placed at approximately $50,000.

BAKER WOMAN FIRE VICTIM

Mrs. Earl Baldock, Oregonian, Lost in California Forest Blaze.

BAKER, Or., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—It was learned here today that the Oregon woman who was burned in the Little Sepe fire in California was Mrs. Earl Baldock, of Baker, who has been visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Webb, near Fillmore. Mr. Baldock was summoned south by a telegram.

The family is well known here.

Guatemala Expels German Editors.

GUATEMALA CITY, Guatamala, Oct. 4.—Drs. H. Schnitzler and M. G. Stabler, respectively editor and publisher of a German daily newspaper which was suppressed some time ago, but resumed publication under another name, have been given 48 hours in which to leave the country. The wife of Stabler is an American woman.

Pendleton Men to See Series.

PENDLETON, Or., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—E. B. Casteel and M. D. Orange, merchants of this city, will attend the world series games this year as the guests of Fabre, one of the pitchers for the White Sox. At the close of the season Fabre will be the guest of Mr. Orange during the Winter.

Gas Kills Mother, Children May Die.

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 4.—Mrs. Annie Ross, 28 years old, is dead from suffocation by gas and her three children, it is feared, will die. The four were overcome by the fumes when the gaspipe broke in their home. A brother of Mrs. Ross found the woman dead and her three children unconscious.

40 Villa Followers Killed.

EL PASO, Oct. 4.—Forty Villa followers were either killed in battle or executed by General Amaro's federal troops in the fight at Inde, Durango, Sunday, an official report received here today stated. Villa was in command, but escaped, the report said.

China Asks $200,000 for Destitute.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—American Minister Reinsch at Pekin, China, today asked the Red Cross for $200,000 to help care for 400,000 destitute Chinese in the Tien Tsin flood district. Much suffering exists, he reported.

PRINEVILLE PEOPLE IN JUBILANT MOOD

Proceeds of $900,000 Bond Issue for Ochoco Project Are Now Available.

BIG CROPS ARE ASSURED

Section to Be Irrigated Contains About 22,000 Acres and Cost Is Estimated at $41 an Acre.

BY ADDISON BENNETT.

PRINEVILLE, Or., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—The people of Prineville are rejoicing today for the reason that the two banks of the city had turned over to them this forenoon the proceeds of the $900,000 bonds issue of the Ochoco irrigation project. Of course it has been known for some months that this money would be forthcoming when needed, for the bonds were underwritten by reliable bond dealers; but there are always doubting Thomases who have to see the cash before they will believe it can be produced.

This Ochoco project is by no means new to me, for I have been over it more than once and have written about it for The Oregonian at least twice. But it was then "up in the air," so to speak. It was then a "proposed" project, one in which the Prineville people believed and in which they were putting their money for preliminary work, and the money was yet to be raised to complete the work.

Less than two years ago I was told here by some of the doubters that the engineer in charge, R. W. Rea, would never get anywhere; that the project would "die a-bornin'." But his work has stood the acid test and he will emerge from his task as a doer of big things, as an engineer to be relied upon, as one whose works will stand as a monument to his ability.

All Entitled to Praise.

The officers and directors of the project are entitled, however, to the highest praise for the success of the work. It was their prescience that secured Mr. Rea. It was their standing in the community that secured the money for the preliminary work. They had great obstacles to encounter. They had difficulties to overcome that would have swamped men of less pertinacity, of less nerve. But they never let up in their work. After once putting their hands to the plow of progress, they never looked back, but turned a fair, full furrow straight and plain. There was no graft, no petty bickerings—they pulled together one for all and all for one—and always for Prineville.

Here is a list of their names and their offices: T. H. La Follette, president; R. L. Schu, secretary; R. L. Jordan, treasurer; Jay H. Upton, attorney; R. W. Rea, engineer. The board of directors is as follows: T. H. La Follette, John Grimes, E. T. Slayton, F. Fred Hoelscher and Carey W. Foster.

The project receives its name from the Ochoco River, which flows down from the mountains from the east and discharges into Crooked River a couple of miles to the west. A dam is to be built across the Ochoco Valley at the east end of the project, which extends to the west some 12 miles and embraces 22,000 acres of irrigable land. So the cost is to be about $41 an acre. The lands are all in private ownership and some 7000 or 8000 acres have been irrigated with an unreliable supply for periods varying from two or three to 20 years.

No Experimental Project.

The elevation of the lands is about 2700 feet, but such is the contour of the valley that this area is not subject to destructive late Spring or early Fall frosts. And the owners of these lands know just what crops they can raise and know how to handle the land and the water. It is by no means an experimental project. The crops will be principally alfalfa, wheat and oats. Fifty bushels of wheat will be a fair average per acre, two cuttings of alfalfa, yielding four tons to the acre, will be a fair yield of that legume. So it seems safe to say that, if the land is equally divided between wheat and alfalfa, there will be a half million bushels of wheat and over 40,000 tons of alfalfa each and every year from this project. That does not take into account the pasturage nor the intensive farming—such as the production of potatoes, kale, rutabagas, carrots and such like products.

Jefferson Myers made a close study of the project for some of the bond buyers and his estimate was that $2,500,000 was a fair estimate for the ultimate annual yield of these lands.

I might go more deeply into this subject, but as this is Prineville's day of rejoicing, I will state that before January 1, next, Prineville will have the railroad locomotives tooting in the streets, for the grading of the 19 miles between here and the O.-W. R. & N. and the North Bank roads, near Redmond, is all done, the ties are accounted for and the roads jointly will furnish the steel and provide the rolling stock.

And the Interstate Fair opens here tomorrow. The city is overflowing with guests and good cheer, the sun of prosperity shines brightly and clearly over all, and Prineville, dear old Prineville, always one of the best towns in interior Oregon, is today just on the eve of taking her place among the most progressive cities in the West.

And the people of Prineville have worked out their own salvation. The Government wouldn't irrigate their lands, so they are doing it themselves, and at a far less cost. The great railroad systems would not build a railroad to their town, so they are doing it themselves, thus showing that the Prineville people have faith in themselves, in their town, in their lands, in their locality and in their country. And to show their patriotism they will next year nearly double their output of cereals and livestock.

YOUNG WOMEN ORGANIZE

Vancouver Soon to Have Active Branch of Y. W. C. A.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—Vancouver will soon have an active Young Women's Christian Association branch, to be known as the Hostess House and Girls' Club of the Y. W. C. A. The residence formerly used by H. C. S. Phillips has been leased and will be ready about October 15.

Miss Lucile Payn, of Los Angeles, will be in charge of the work. Miss Maisie MacMaster and Miss Payn addressed the girls of the high school yesterday, telling them of the work to be done and how they could organize a club and learn cooking, sewing, first aid work and dramatic art.

FOSSIL MAN SLAIN

Cousins Involved in Early Morning Shooting Affray.

MEN TENNESSEE NATIVES

William Peters, Found in Mrs. Wilson's Home at 6:30 o'Clock, Victim, Due to Domestic Troubles. Previous Attempt Foiled.

CONDON, Or., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—William Peters, of Fossil, was shot and fatally wounded by Henry Wilson, also of Fossil, at 6:30 this morning in Mrs. Wilson's home in Fossil. Peters was shot twice, one bullet taking effect in the right thigh and the other striking him over the right kidney. He died this afternoon.

The weapon used was a large-caliber automatic revolver. It was reported at first that Peters was dead, but he recovered somewhat and later had a relapse.

After the shooting Wilson walked to the Courthouse and gave himself into the custody of the Sheriff.

It is reported that the shooting was caused by domestic troubles and that Wilson attempted to shoot Peters late last night, but was prevented by Mrs. Wilson. Both men are natives of Tennessee and it is said are first cousins.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson were divorced about a year ago, the farmer procuring the divorce on statutory grounds, Peters being "the man in the case." There were two children, a girl and a boy. The mother kept the girl and the boy stayed with the father.

Wilson rented a house in Fossil for the mother to live in and she was to take care of the two children while in school. The father came in last night to attend the county fair and to see the children and found Peters at the home. He ordered him to leave the place and not to return and it is alleged he said if he did not he would kill him in the morning.

Mr. Wilson was eating breakfast. He asked the mother about the daughter and was told she was still in bed. The father opened the bedroom door where the child had slept with her mother and discovered Peters in the room dressing. Peters attempted to escape but Wilson shot him twice while in the room, the bullets taking effect as Peters reached the back porch. Wilson is now in jail.

FOOD REGULATORS NAMED

A. J. Rhodes, of Seattle, Selected for Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—The food administration today announced the appointment of the following merchant representatives to assist state food administrators in dealing with retail prices:

Wyoming—H. C. Stevens, of Sheridan.
New Mexico—C. O. Cushman, of Albuquerque.
Washington—A. J. Rhodes, of Seattle.
Montana—W. J. Strain, Great Falls.

A. J. Rhodes, appointed today Washington merchant representative of the food administration, is president of the Seattle Chamber of Commerce and Commercial Club and head of a Seattle department store corporation. Mr. Rhodes announced today he will enter upon his duties immediately.

VANCOUVER COUPLE WEDS

Miss Mollis Clancy Becomes Bride of Dennis Meyer in Canada.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—Miss Mollis Clancy, for several years a teacher in the Vancouver city schools, was married to Dennis B. Meyer Tuesday, October 2, at the Catholic rectory chapel, North Battleford, Canada.

Mr. Meyer formerly operated a farm near Battle Ground, this county, and went to Canada to live, taking up land there. He was to have come here to be married, but the Canadian government would not permit him to cross the border, so the prospective bride resigned her position in the schools and started for Canada.

Mrs. Meyer is a sister of James Clancy and Miss Kathleen Clancy, pioneers of this city.

GRAYS HARBOR RESPONDS

District Soon Will Have More Than 1400 Men in War Service.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—With the departure here Wednesday of 136 drafted men for American Lake, Grays Harbor's contribution to Uncle Sam's fighting forces was brought to 1348, or an average of one man enlisted for every 38 inhabitants in the county. Fifty more drafted men remain to leave in the last quota and these, together with enlistments, will raise the total to more than 1400.

The heavy enlistments from this section have naturally resulted in a shortage of labor in mills, camps, stores, offices and hotels. At the McCleary door factory and in the Hoquiam sash and door plant girls are filling the gaps.

German Helps "Lick Kaiser."

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 4.—A subscription for $200 worth of Liberty bonds was received by a local bank yesterday from a Montana man, who said he was a German, but wanted to help "lick the Kaiser." The same man, it was said, bought $300 worth of the first issue of Liberty bonds. He accompanied his subscription today with a $25 donation to the Red Cross. His name was not made public.
