

BASEBALL ABOLISHED IN CHICAGO

Thousands of Fans Unable to Get Tickets for Opening of World Series Today.

BETTING LIGHT; HOPE HIGH

Cleotte and Schupp, Great Stars of Day, Expected to Open; Fair Day Promised; Speculators Reap Unprecedented Harvest.

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—The caldron of baseball is aboil here tonight on the eve of the world series between the Chicago American and the New York National League club.

Weather Prediction Favorable. The morning holds for the fan and player alike, respect to the forecast tonight.

President Comiskey was not apparently worried by the indifferent support of the local weather man, however.

From far points in the second of the country thirty-third degree baseball fans have come to witness what they confidently will be the greatest world series in many years.

Invaders proved hotels. From far points in the second of the country thirty-third degree baseball fans have come to witness what they confidently will be the greatest world series in many years.

Their troubles are as nothing compared to those of persons who purchase tickets to the game.

Those fortunate speculators who have been able to secure tickets are reaping a golden harvest.

Those who could not secure seats in the early days of the European war have been speculating.

At the hour when the staid citizen was homing his way to dinner the lines were already outside the portals of White Sox field.

Equipped with chairs, blankets, lunches and other comforts for inner and outer man, the fans began to gather.

able that in the aggregate the total reached into the thousands of dollars, but there were no records of either large individual or pool wagers.

Betting Light, Hope Heavy. If betting was scarce forecasts and predictions as to the outcome of the initial game of the series as a whole went up for any deficiency in this respect.

Manager Clarence Rowland, speaking of the Chicago club and players, said: "This series means a great deal to Chicago and we have not left a wheel unturned to bring the world's championship to Comiskey."

McGraw Soft Pedals. "I have had three ambitions and two of them have been to win the world's championship."

Cleotte and Schupp Picked. Both President Bush and manager of the American League and O. W. Charles Comiskey of the Chicago club spoke confidently of the chances of the White Sox.

Heroes Hit for Long Fight. Second choice twirlers were Faber and Perritt, but almost without exception the wish was expressed that Cleotte and Schupp might work in order that the winning pitcher would be one of these two stars.
