DAY the wedding of Miss Mary E. Cellars and Dolph E. Phipps will be solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Cellars, parents of the bride-elect. It will be a simple ceremony, with only about 70 of the younger contingent present, owing to the recent illness of Miss Cellars. Her brother, Lieutenant James H. Cellars, stationed at American Lake, will attend and will be best man. Miss Mignon Allen, of Astoria, is to be maid

Both Miss Cellars and her fiance are graduates of the University of Oregon, and they have hosts of friends among

Mr. and Mrs. David E. Phipps, par-ents of the prospective bridegroom, will arrive this morning from Medford to attend the ceremony.

Miss Cellars is a charming young girl, and is one of the most popular among Portland's younger set. The news of the wedding comes as a big surprise to the friends of the couple only a few of whom were permitted to share the secret of the coming nuptials. Miss Irene Strowbridge entertained Monday in honor of Miss Cellars with a charming luncheon and handkerchief a charming luncheon and handkerchief shower, her guests including sorority misters of the bride-to-be.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kollock and little daughter, Mary, are spending a few weeks with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Kollock, 625 East Broadway. Mr. and Mrs. Kollock will be at home in their own residence on Council Crest after November 1. Council Crest after November 1.

Beginning tomorrow night, the Thursday Night Riding Class will open for the season at the Portland Riding Academy. The class has been arranged Academy. The class has been arranged by prominent members of the Hunt Club, and everyone who is interested in riding, beginners or advanced riders, is invited to join. The class will meet each week, and following the drills, under command of H. M. Kerron, all who wish may indulge in practice polo. This class was formed last year and proved one of the most popular diversions among the devotees of the saddle.

Honoring Miss Nellie Mae Dalcour, Miss Jean Richardson entertained a

Miss Jean Richardson entertained a number of friends with a 500 party Sat-urday evening at her home, 888 East Washington street. During the evening Washington street. During the evening Miss Dalcour's engagement to A. Lester Heyer, Jr., was announced. Miss Dalcour formerly lived at Duluth, Minn. Mr. Heyer is from New York, and he is connected with the Pacific Power & Light Company. Both young people have a host of friends in Portland to whom this announcement comes as a delightful whom this announcement comes as a delightful surprise. The date of the wedding has not been selected, Society will divide its attention to-night between the grand opera and the lecture by Colonei S. S. McClure, who arrived yesterday and gave his first talk last night at the Lincoln High School. He is admirably fitted to talk on the European war and on Japan and his talk last night on "The War in the Orient" was one of the most interest-ing ever given on that subject in this given on that subject in this city. He had a large and appreciative audience at Lincoln and tonight's gathering, which will be held in Washington High School, bids fair to eclipse its predecessor. The lecture tour in this city is under the auspices of the Drama League.

Among the line parties at the pheum Monday night was: Mrs. blomon Hirsch and family, Mr. and

A charming affair of yesterday was the tea given by the members of the Fruit and Flower Mission to mark the Fall opening of their new quarters at Madison and Tenth streets. This day nursery is the chief charge of the mission and the 60 babies in the nursery yesterday were attired in their best procks and took an especial pleasure in being talked at and fussed over by the hundreds of women guests who at the following companies 1, 2, 3, and 4. There is needed about 800 more of the dishtowels, sending 100 to each of the following companies 1, 2, 3, and 4. There is needed about 800 more of the dishtowels, sending 100 to each of the following companies 1, 2, 3, and 4. There is needed about 800 more of the dishtowels, sending 100 to each of the following companies 1, 2, 3, and 4. There is needed about 800 more of the dishtowels, sending 100 to each of the following companies 1, 2, 3, and 4. There is needed about 800 more of the dishtowels, sending 100 to each of the following companies 1, 2, 3, and 4. There is needed about 800 more of the dishtowels, sending 100 to each of the following companies 1, 2, 3, and 4. There is needed about 800 more of the day.

been running for several days, under the management of Mrs. William L. Wood and her corps of assistants and the contributions of everything under the heavens continue to pour in. The the heavens continue to pour in. The melting pot is a new feature of the shop and will be used for old gold and silver. A box is temptingly placed in silver. A box is temptingly placed in the silver are an address on "Conservation silver are a manufacture." silver. A box is temptingly placed inviting the donation of coins and games will inveigle nickels and dimes out of the patrons of the shop. Jams, jellies, antiques, clothing, jewelry, fruits, flowers, canned goods, laces, linens, silks, anything and everything will be acceptable to the shopkeepers.

It all helps the Red Cross fund to swell and will be of untold service to the men abroad in the fighting lines.

W. C. T. U. convention and last night she gave an address on "Conservation of Food."

The Oregon W. C. T. U. has received a letter from Chaplain Gilbert telling of the good health of the Third Oregon boys and how much they appreciate and use the housewives furnished by the Oregon W. C. T. U. and they ask for 200 more for the four companies that were out at Camp Withycombe.

The junior members of the Irvington Ciub will give their next dance Friday at the Irvington Club, and the affair is creating a great deal of interest among the Irvington set and their friends Patronesses for Friday's party will be Mrs. John L. Bowman, Mrs. E. H. Hartman and Mrs. N. Reno.

Many of the wives and relatives of the Portland physicians are entertaining the women relatives of the women relatives of the women relatives of the out-of-town physicians who are here attending the Tuberculosis Conference at the Multnomah Hotel. Luncheons and dinner parties are part of the programme, and while the medical men attend the vening lectures the women are energianced at the opera, at the opera, at the opera, at the opera, and Ornhoe.

Women are so clock.

A meeting of the Field Hospital Auxiliary will be held this evening at the vening taking place only on the first and third Wednesdays of each month, it is requested that all members attend. Something new to send the boys will be the main subject of the Multnament of the Multnam ing the Tuberculosis Conference at the Multinomah Hotel. Luncheons and dinner parties are part of the programme, and while the medical men attend the evening fectures the women are entertained at the opera, at the Auditorum, and Orpheum parties. A number of the visiting "M. D.s" and their wives are at the Multinomah for the wives are at the Multinomah for the week.

The Milwaukie Parent-Tasah.

The literature department of the Portland Woman's Club will meet in the Multinomah Hotel on Friday at 3 o'clock. C. H. Chapman will speak on French literature.

Women of the Westminster Presbyterian Church will meet today to sew for the Red Cross. Coffee and tea will be served but members should take their sandwiches.

The Milwaukie Parent-Tasah.

Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Pierce entertained Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Pierce entertained at an elaborate dinner on Monday night in Multnomah Hotel in compliment to Dr. and Mrs. Christen Quevli, of Tacoma: Philip Jacobs, of New York, Mrs. Bethesda Beals Buchanan, of Seattle, and Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar, all of whom are prominent among the delegates attending the Northwestern Tuberculosis Conference in the rose ballroom of the hotel. Mrs. Dunbar, who is the local executive secretary enteris the local executive secretary, enter-tained several visitors at luncheon in the gold room yesterday.

Dr. and Mrs. Quevli, the former being one of the most prominent physicians in Tacoma, are registered at the Multnomah. Mrs. Quevli has many friends here, with whom she is renewing friendships.

friendships.

Miss Lillian Freeman, a charming belle of Nashville, Tenn., is spending a few weeks at the Multnomah Hotel as the guest of the Misses Gage, who make their home there.

Another newcomer to Portland, who will make her home at the Multnomah, is Mrs. Lofgren, wife of one of the United States Army officers, attached to the commissary department at Vancouver.

who has been visiting Mrs. R. C. Bald-ing, of Dayton Apartments, this city, the past two months, has returned to the "Zenith City." Miss Sweet enjoyed her visit in the Rose City to the extent of closing her interests in Minnesota and extending them to Portland, where she soon will make her permanent in the office of the high school at 3

Women's Clubs By Edith Knight Holmes.

The melting pot is quite a feature of the Red Cross Superfluity Shop, the formal opening of which will take place this morning. The shop has been running for several days, under

"somewhere in France" urges us to Congregational mission. This work is save everything, waste nothing, as sold at the Summer bazaars at Peltai vo, the great Summer resort at the Vo, the great Summer resort at the Summer bazaars at Peltai vo, the great Summer resort at the Summer bazaars at Peltai vo, the great Summer resort at the Summer bazaars at Peltai vo, the great Summer bazaar

WHEN YOU SEE A

EAST 625

C/442

in the office of the high school at I

Ben Hur Society, Court No. 9, will give a card party Thursday night in Alisky Hall.

At 10 o'clock this merning the women of the First Congregational Church will meet for Red Cross service.

In the First Congregational Church Solomon Hirsch and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Frank and the Aaron Franks.

A LL the women's clubs are doing sionary Society will meet in the parlors. A paper and letters written by Mrs. Lloyd Frank and the Aaron the clubs are made up of "slackers."

David K. Brace (Dorothy Walton), will towels, sending 100 to each of the following companies 1, 2, 3, and 4. There in being talked at and fussed over by the hundreds of women guests who attended the tea. Mrs. William H. Skene is president of the organization, and, with her numerous assistants, devotes a great deal of time during the year to this work.

The rooms were bedecked prettily for the occasion and the tea tables were presided over by Mrs. Loyal B. Stearns, Mrs. E. Q. Mears, Mrs. Ferdinand E. Reed and Miss Louise Bickel.

The melting pot is quite a feature of the missionary waste nothing, as a very everything, waste nothing, as sold at the Summer bazaars at Peltai.

Mrs. Brace writes from her home in China where Mr. Brace is on the Chinase for the Chinese Government Higher Normal College. She tells of many interesting experiences in this of the Linear Normal College. She tells of many interesting experiences in this of the Chinase flowing to the Chinase and less than the Sevard.

Wrs. Brace Writes from her home in Chinase flowing to the Chinase flowing Chinese girls and to give employment tered at the Eaton.

to poor women. The service is purely Miss K. P. Hudso

Sumner Woman's Relief Corps has organized a Red Cross unit and will begin work on Thursday at its hall, 525 Courthouse, at 10 A. M. All mem-bers are invited to be present and bring their lunch.

One week from today Multnomah istered at the Portland.
Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will meet with Mrs. W. B. Gilbert at 490 Twenty-first street, PortO. Wilson, of Flat, Alaska, is regis The Pennsylvania Woman's Club will land Heights.

Women of the Westminster Presbyterian Church will meet today to sew for the Red Cross. Coffee and tea will be served but members should take their sandwiches.

The Milwaukie Parent-Teacher circle will meet Friday afternoon at 3 o clock in the high school building.

TE WISH to anhave opened a nounce that we new department of making, remodeling and altering Gowns, Suits, Cloaks, etc., at our West Side

3811/4 Washington St., Pittock Block

Under management of ■ Eleanor A. Warwick, for-merly with Madam Os-borne, Fifth avenue, New York. Come in and see the possibilities of that old gown. BROADWAY DYE & CLEANING WORKS Main Office and Plant, Grand Ave. and Schuyler St. Branch Shop on Washington St., in Pittock Block.

doing. If any of the members cannot attend this meeting, they will be of great assistance if they will send 10 cents to purchase needles and thread for the workers.

There will be an open meeting tonight of the Woman's Co-operative League in the East Side Clubhouse, East Tenth and Weidler streets, Prominent men will speak and gifted singers nent men will speak and gifted singers will contribute solos. An exhibit of home products will be a big attrac-

At the last business meeting it was decided to change the name of the Ladies' Auxiliary to Company A. Oregon Engineers, eliminating the word ladies" and making it an auxiliary for the fathers and brothers of the boys in this company, as well as the women. The next meeting will be in women. The next meeting will be in Central Library on Friday at 8 o'clock, Captain J. W. Carger, of the Canadian expeditionary force, will give an interesting talk on "What You Can Do for Your Boys at the Front." Further plans are being made for entertainments to swell the Christmas fund to purchase comforts for the boys and all the members of the committee are urged to be present. The women of the auxiliary will meet at the home of Mrs. M. B. McFaul, at 120 East Twelfth street, corner Alder street, this afternoon at 1 o'clock to knit socks and wristlets for the boys, who are now stationed at Camp Greene. Yarn is being furnished.

Members of the Shakespeare Club are urged to attend the Red Cross sewing meeting, to be held today at the East Side Clubhouse, East Tenth and Weidler streets, taking a Broadway car. Those who can spend the entire day are requested to bring their

RED CROSS LUNCHEON HELD Less Red Tape and More Efficiency

Needed, Says Speaker. More than 100 members of the Red Cross attended the conference and uncheon at the Hotel Portland yester-We need more speed and chickers, and less red tape," said C. D. Stimpson, general manager for the Red Cross work. Dr. K. A. J. Mackenzie, president of the local Red Cross, apoke of the work being carried on by the association. He urged the purchasing of liberty bonds.

Other speakers were F. P. Foisie, chairman of the civilian relief of the Northwest division: I. Lowengart, manager of the local Red Cross depot; Josiah Collins, of the bureau of development of the Northwest division, and Mrs. Lucy Hilton, director of the woman's bureau of the Northwest division. erty bonds.

PERSONAL MENTION.

W. P. Myers, of Culver, Or., is at the Perkins. R. U. Buckley, of Salem, is at the Seward.

John Medler, of Wasco, is at the C. Gilbert, of Brighton, Or., is at the Perkins, B. B. Haines, of Roseburg, is at the Imperial.

John C. Bortle, of Seattle, is at the · Charles Flegel, of Culm, N. D., is at the Palace.

J. M. Conroy, of Tygh Valley, is at the Eaton. Pauline Sears, of Vale, Or., is at the Multnomah

Multnomal Thomas B. Young, of Pendleton, is at the Portland. D. D. Hail, of Sherwood, Or., is at the

Joseph Caster, of Lisabeula, Wash., in at the Eator Fred C. McCrea, of Prineville, is at

W. R. Wright, of San Francisco, is at scription campaign to $437,150.

at the Washington.

Miss K. P. Hudson, of Atlanta, Ga., is stopping at the Ritz.

Edward T. Hooper, of Peoria, Ill., is stopping at the Ritz. H. V. Shell, of Grants Pass, is regis-tered at the Seward. W. T. Smith, wife and son, are at th Palace from Sheridan. George E. Belott, of Pittsburg, is reg

O. Wilson, of Flat, Alaska, is regis-tered at the Cornelius. Mrs. A. W. Scott and Miss Shepherd.

No! Not More Expensive!

Undoubtedly CO-LUMBIAN service ought to cost more than ordinary optical service, but it doesn't. The CO-LUMBIAN'S superior equipment and superior experts cost the company more money, but on the other hand they bring a greater volume of business and equalize the cost in that way, so that the customer never has to pay more and often less than at ordinary optical stores. Accuracy, promptness and courtesy at no greater cost.

FLOYD F. BROWER, Mgr. 145 Sixth Street.

G. E. Cooper, of Corvallis, is at the of Camas, Wash., are at the Wash-

Mrs. A. J. Gillis, of Walla Walla, Wash., is at the Multnomah. H. S. Huson, of Cornelius, is regis-ered at the Multnomah. Mrs. J. B. Gregory, of Wallowa, is egistered at the Oregon.

Charles Gill, of Skamokawa, registered at the Eaton Fred J. Bailey, of Port Townsend, Wash., is at the Cornelius.

C. C. Whitten and Mrs. Whitten are at the Nortonia from Eugene.

E. O. McCoy and Mrs. McCoy, of The Dalles are at the Portland. Dalles, are at the Portland.

Miss E. Seward, of San Francisco, is registered at the Nortonia.

D. H. Stegman, of Centerville, Wash., registered at the Perkins. Charles C. Holloway, of San Fran-isco, is registered at the Cornellus, L. J. Gordon and Mrs. Gordon, of New York, are registered at the Portland. Dr. Albert H. Featherstone, promi-nent physician of Wallace, Idaho, has been in Portland several days visiting with Dr. J. P. Tamiesie. Dr. Feather-stone has been in California for some

the total for the two days of the subhe Multnomah.

Judge G. W. Phelps, of Pendleton, is are included $225,000 reported through the banks.

Lofty trees once grew in Greenland and nearly all of the inhospitable Northern lands. Trees of the same sorts as are growing today are found as fossil remains in countries where the climate is now so harsh that scarcely any tree will grow even a few inches

EXPERT BLANKET CLEANING Mattresses and Pillows Renovated We do Wool Carding CRYSTAL SPRINGS FINISHING WORKS MANUFACTURERS OF WOOL BATTS AND MATTRESSES,

It Is Women's Work, Too

THE women of Portland are ready to do their part in mobilizing $16,500,000.00 of Oregon dollars for the second Liberty loan. Mothers of fighting men-sisters of boys in olive drabpatriots all! They welcome the opportunity to loan their money and their influence to this glorious enterprise.

-For Misses-

Serge Frocks Jersey Frocks Silk Frocks

Tailored and Semi-Tailored Models-

Specially Priced:

THE Serge Frocks are plaited straight line or in novel pocketed styles with collars of contrasting material; some have clever touches of embroidery, others are button trimmed.

THE Jersey Frocks are in new slipover blouse styles so ideal for Autumn sports wear, or in tailleur style with wide patent belts. An excellent variety to choose from.

THE Silk Frocks are girlish, supple models L that will answer for many requirements -softly draped or surplice sashed, also charmeuse in attractive tucked styles. You are welcome to inspect at your leisure.

Misses' Shop-Third Floor

-Misses' Coats-Offer Interesting Savings $20 to $57.50

F soft "burred" fabrics and rich ruddy colorings-designed in graceful straight styles that conceal plenty of ease and comfort in their youthful folds. Large collars of fur or self may be softly crushed to give extra warmth. Many new models to choose from.

Misses' Shop-Second Floor

Full Line of Blouses and Lingerie

Main Floor

Furs Altered at Reasonable Rates

149-151 BROAD

A Money-Saving Alternative Vegetable Fat Used by Thousands of Housewives

ONLY a short time on the market, Armour's Vegetole has already proved its value to American house-wives in cutting the cost of living. As a money-saving altern-ative, this all-vegetable fat may be used for every cooking purpose. It makes delightfully crisp, flaky pie-crust, lightest biscuits, deli-cious cake. Foods fried in it are thoroughly digestible—no odor in cooking, no foreign taste.

> ARMOUR & COMPANY J. F. FURLONG, Mgr.

Armours QUALITY PRODUCTS 1513 In Pails Only
—Four Sizes

VEGETOLE bears the famous Oval Label-Armour's grade-mark and trade-mark, which is your guarantee of highest quality. Buy a pail today and see how it lowers your buyeshold hills.

Armours

SHORTENING

George Hotchkiss Street

will give a public explanation and demonstration of

Street System of Child Development

at the Public Library, Room A, Thursday evening, October 18, at 8 o'clock.

ANYONE INTERESTED CORDIALLY INVITED

I ALWAYS ENVIED CLARA

her extensive wardrobe; now mine is just as good, for I buy, as she does, at CHERRY'S, and make my payments as best suits my salary. Why don't you try it? 383-31 Washington street, Pittock block.—Adv.