ANGELS CLOSE ON HEELS OF SEALS

Teams Only One and One-Half Games Apart in Race for Coast League Flag.

BERRY'S CREW DANGEROUS

Pitching Staff of Southern Team Is Going Good Now, While San Francisco Club Plays Well Only in Spurts.

BY JAMES J. RICHARDSON. With a margin of one and a half games separating them in their dash

With a margin of one and a half games separating them in their dash down the home stretch for the Pacific Coast League pennant, the San Francisco and Los Angeles clubs entered yesterday on their next to the last series to decide their claims for the championship.

The Seals are leading, but Wade Killefer and his Angel flock look mighty dangerous. The Angels are battling the Vernon Tigers at Los Angeles and San Francisco is playing the Bees at Salt Lake.

From one on the outside looking in it appears as though Los Angeles ought to win in the close struggle. The Angels' pitching staff is going along at a good gait and the southern swatsmen are lambasting the pilliat a healthy clip. At the last appearance of the Angels' in Portland it was evident that Killifer's men were primed for a hard tussie in their final dash toward Pennantville.

They gave McCredie's men one of the hardest series they had played for some time. The San Francisco club, on the other hand, has been playing mediocre bail at times, and, then again, it has taken a spurt which put the team out of danger from being overtaken, but the consistent game the Angels have played has landed them within reaching distance of first place, provided they can keep up their pace and Sait Lake can take the Seals down a peg or two in their series this week.

The present close race between Los Angeles and San Francisco brings us back to the dear old days of 1911, when Portland and Vernon were battling it out for first place, the Beavers finally winning.

"Happy" Hogan then was at the managerial helm of the Vernon club and the Tigers were fighting every inch of the way. Hogan had a faculty for instilling "pep" into his crew and when the Beavers tangled with Vernon on the latter's own stamping ground on Wednesday, October 5, 12,090 fans gathered to root for Hogan and his team. They carried every device for noise-making they could rake up within the confines of the southern city.

The standing of the two clubs the day they started their memorable series was:

W. L. P.C.

Fortland 100 74 505
Fortland 100 69 591
The Tigers had a lead of one game over McCredie's men, but the Beavers went into the struggle with a "doordie" spirit, and in the first clash they emerged victor after 11 innings of desperate battling. The Beavers took four out of the six games played from Vernon, but the race was far from being settled. Each club had two more series to play and the Mackmen, while the Best Vernon could do with the Oakland club was two games won out of seven played.

Will meet its old fival. Eugene fight will be the first important game of the season for the local lads. Albany has sumbled Eugene several times in footward form Vernon, but the race was far doubt until the last week of the sound for the fight school had the Oakland club was two games won out of seven played.

gling in a vain endeavor in the south to overtake the Mackmen. On Thursday, October 19, with the ecore tied in the ninth inning at San Francisco, "Red" Kuhn leaned against one of Miller's slants for a home run and the Beavers were the champions of the Pacific Coast League for 1911.

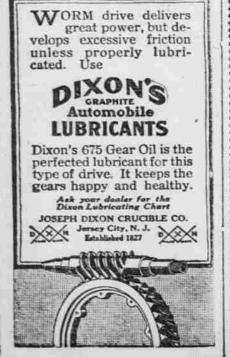

"Red" Baldwin is going to play Winter baseball with the Maxwell club in the Winter League at San Francisco. Oakland is Baldwin's home town, so the Beaver catcher will be right in his glory. If Ralph Pinelli winters at Richmond, Cal., he, too, will play in the Winter League.

Rumors are current in San Francisco and Oakland that Cliff Blankenship, former manager of the Salt Lake club, former manager of the Sait Lake club, is destined to guide the destinies of the Oakland club next season. Blankenship is new conducting a billiard hall and bowling alley in San Francisco, but he still has a hankering to "xank" a pitcher or clash with the "umps," and it would not be surprising to see him edge in somewhere, but it is almost a certainty that it will not be the Oakland club.

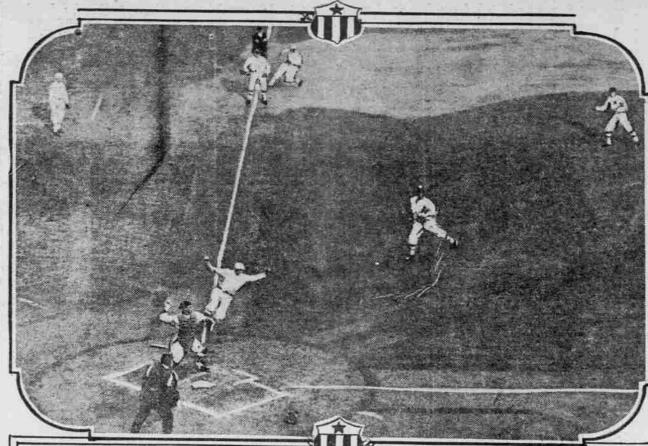

San Francisco writers continue to take flings at Hen Berry and the Seals,

San Francisco writers continue to take flings at Hen Berry and the Seals. If they give the Bay City boys the "raz" when they are leading the league, goodness knows what would happen if the Seals were in the cellar position, and yet they say the world loves a winner. Ouch!

Los Angeles lost an opportunity to climb closer to the Seals yesterday, when they lost to Vernon while Sait Lake was trimming the Seals. The Beavers lost their toehold on third place and slid back into the second

> The Albany High School football team will meet its old rival. Eugene High School, in Eugene on October 24. This will be the first important game of the Season for the local lads. Albany has humbled Eugene several times in football in recent years, but it looks like the Lane County boys will get revenge this year, for the local high school has entered the field with a green team.

OFFICIAL FIELDING, BATTING AND PITCHING AVERAGES RECORDED.

Following are the official fielding, batting and pitching averages of the world's series as prepared by J. G. Yet Is in Doubt.

WAR IS CAUSE OF DELAY

Magnates Will Hold Meeting October 20 in Seattle to Decide as to Action and Personnel of Teams in Organization.

Frank Patrick, president of the Pa-cific Coast Hockey Association, has called a special meeting of that organization to take place in Seattle Tues-day, October 30, for the purpose of discussing the prospects for a league on the Pacific Coast this coming Win-ter. It is expected that at this meeting ne magnates will decide on the final nake-up of the league. At this time the hockey situation is decidedly unsettled, owing to conscription in Camada and this country. By the time this meeting takes place, however, it will be known just what members of the different clubs in the Pacific Coast circuit will be called to the colors, and the directors of the league will therefore by able to go ahead with their plans and make all arrangements necessary. At this time the hockey situation i

Schedule Is Arranged.

The annual meeting of the Pacific Coast Hockey Association will be held in Vancouver next month. Officers will be elected and the schedule for the season drawn up, as well as other im-portant business transacted.

"We are ready and always have been ready," said Manager Bryan. "We have most of our players here and they are anxious to get into harness again. We have not sent out any contracts, desir-ing to wait until such time as the future of the league was assured. Canadians Would Return Here.

"Of last year's team, we have resid-ing in Portland, Johnson, Tobin, Mur ray, Dunderdale, Harris and Barbour Marples, Irvin and O'Loughlin are in Winnipeg and a friend from that city recently informed me that they were anxious to return to Portland if satisfactory arrangements could be made with the Canadian government.

"Charlie Uksila, who played with the Portland team in 1915, is back again, and chances are we could set his zero." and chances are we could get his serv-lees. You can say that we are ready to put a team in the league and start the ball rolling any time the others are ready.

A Pittsfield, Mass., woman arose at 5 o'clock, trimmed one hat and finished a dress for her daughter, canned 15 quarts of preserves, baked bread, did the washof preserves, baked bread, did the washing, enameled a bedstead, cleaned the parlor and repotted half a dozen plants, wrote two letters, prepared three meals and put up one dinner, cleaned the cellar and took care of the furnace, answered the telephone, gave the store orders, raked the back lawn and then went upstreet to see a show.

a score of 7 to 3. Bunched hits by the the Caks, in a contest featured by heavy batting, enabled them to tally
the winning runs.

Penner, who started for the Beavers, retired at the end of the seventh frame in favor of Dailey. The Beaver hurlers were pounded for a total of 16 hits.
Prough was slammed 14 times during the contest, but kept the hits scattered the Ice Paiace, are two young professlonals rapidly becoming known as the greatest in their line in the world.

The pair have only been on the circuit a year, but in that time have made a reputation throughout the United States for the original figures and "turns" they have evolved on the ice.

ar. Farks is well known here, when the Ice Palace first opened two years ago he acted as instructor, and made a host of friends for himself among the amateurs throughout the city. Miss Deutch is the daughter of a prominent San Francisco business man. Since they started on their career as professional entertainers a year ago as professional entertainers a year ago they have played the ice rinks of Chi-cago, Kansas City and towns through-out the Middle West. They came to Portland for the opening of the Ice Palace from San Francisco, where their turn was the feature of the Winter Garden and Techeau Tavern.

With Babe Young, the dainty little deaf-and-dumb miss who is known as the world's greatest child skater, the Parks and Deutch team are here for the opening week only, leaving Satur-day for Seattle, where they are to give an exhibition before going East.

SOX AND GIANTS PROTEST WITH-HOLDING OF SERIES CASH.

Members of Two Teams Promise to Play in No Exhibition Games if $1000 Is Given Them.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—In protest of the action of the National Baseball Commission in holding out $1000 of the individual shares of prize money of each world's series player until De-cember 1 as a guarantee that they will not participate in exhibition games, members of the Chicago American and New York National League teams ad-members of the Chicago American and New York National League teams addressed a petition to the Commission today in which they said:

"We, the undersigned, hereby declare and agree not to participate as individuals or as a team in any game after this day at Camp Milis, Long Island."

The petition was signed by each of the Chicago and New York players eligible to participate in the recent world's series, and was handed to the Commission at today's game at Garden City, New York, by Edward Collins and Charles Hersog, captains of the rival teams.

The Commission promised to take the

The Commission promised to take the matter under immediate advisement.

President Tener, of the National League, a member of the Commission, said that the request of the players would be granted and that they would receive their full shares.

Frank Taberski, the "Silent Pole" of Schenectady, champion pocket billiardist of the world, surely is a wonder of wonders. Let's give the handsome raven-locked York Stater and the state of the state o other title, "King of Procrastinators." Certainly he has carned the sobriquet. Whoever thought he would pull that in First and Sixth Innings.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 16.—By bunching hits off Crandall in the first and sixth inning Vernon scored four runs and defeated Los Angeles in the opening game of the series. Quinn let the Angels down with four hits and scored a shutout. Score:

Taberski's high run was 38, made on the last night of play. He had scored a 36 on the second night, which was better than Concannon's best for the match. They started the final block at 8 P. M. and completed it at 2:20 next morning. That's Taberski's high run was 38, made on ing through one of his now famous pro-crastinating finishes.
