Women! It's Cheap! Use Lemon Juice and Make Lotion

To keep your skin and complexion naturally soft, white and clear at all times you simply must use a lotion or cream every day.

The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a whole quart of the most remarkable beauty lotion at about the cost of one more penny for a small jar of the ordinary cold cream.

Just try this lotion! Make up a quart of this sweetly fragrant cream and massage it into the face, neck, arms and hands.

Your druggist will sell three ounces of orchard white at little cost, and any grocer will supply the lemons.—Adv.

MOVING PICTURE NEWS

TODAY'S FILM FEATURES. Columbia—Herbert Rawlinson, Liberty—Billie Burke, "Arms and the Girl", Peoples—Vivian Martin, "The Sunset Trail", Star—Jack Pickford and Louise Huff, "Seventeen", Sunset—Taylor Holmes, "Fools for Luck", Majestic—Maxine Elliott, "Fighting Odds", Circle—"A Modern Marauder."

Peoples. THE SUNSET TRAIL, a Paramount photoplay presenting dainty Vivian Martin in a role carrying her from merry hearted girlhood on a ranch high in the California mountains to a womanhood of beautiful gowns and real love affairs, will be screened at the Peoples Theater commencing today.

Miss Martin scampers about in overalls and with feet bare in the first part of "The Sunset Trail." However, she is given a later opportunity to wear a number of beautiful gowns.

Henry A. Barrows, Harrison Ford, Charles Ogle, Carmen Phillips and Billy Elmer are the principal players in support of the popular star.

Organist Aids Red Cross. E. H. Hunt, well-known Portland musician, now engaged in rendering organ accompaniments at the Majestic Theater, has contributed 200 copies of his patriotic song, "Swat the Kaiser," to the Red Cross Ship, and has prepared a special band version to be played during the sale this week.

More Film Taxation. While motion picture exhibitors have been speculating much regarding the working of the theater admission tax of 10 per cent, and making investigations preparatory to placing the law into operation on December 1, the manufacturers and distributors of photoplay film have handed them an unexpected little taxation package.

Hereafter all exhibitors are to pay 15 cents a day for each reel of pictures used. This money, which, in the case of downtown Portland, exhibitors means from $200 to $500 a year, is to pay the film tax levied by the Government whereby $1,000,000 is to be raised on the celluloid material which is used to transfer the camera's findings to the screen.

Screen Gossip. Elaine Hammerstein, granddaughter of the famous opera impresario, Oscar Hammerstein, is making her film debut in "The Correspondent," the beautiful story of city and country life, which was such a marked success on the dramatic stage.

Two of the most sensational features of "Queen of the Sea," Annetta Kellerman's new marine spectacle for William Fox, were put into celluloid form last week at Bar Harbor, Me., when the diving Venus walked a long lightwire and then plunged 85 feet into the ocean beneath, and when a massive tower was blown up for the film by 250 sticks of dynamite.

Constance Crawley, Arthur Maude and Lamar Johnston, three names particularly connected with screen activities, now spell a headlining act on the Orpheum circuit. After a successful week in Los Angeles, this trio has moved on to Salt Lake City for the second week of their Orpheum time, their engagement to cover 10 weeks or more over the Orpheum circuit. "The Actress and the Critic" is the sketch in which they appear.

Mollie Pearls, the star of Pathe's "The Seven Pearls," was asked the other day which she preferred to work in, serials or features. "Features," answered Mollie promptly. "Serials are too full of the B and B stuff." Seeing the look of bewilderment on the inquirer's face, she elucidated. "B and B means 'black and blue,'" she said.

It is announced that the much heralded and praised Russian art pictures, which are the first features made and acted by the great actors of Russia to be shown in this country, will be distributed by Pathé, Mosquin and others of the highest celebrity in their native land, since these pictures which are said to be a revelation in artistry, "The Painted Doll" is the first to be released.

Joe Moore, husband of Grace Cunard and one of the members of the famous Moore family, and Pliny Goodfriend, husband of "Sunshine" Mark Anderson, are among the Hollywood players drafted.

Corinne Griffith, who plays leads with Earle Williams in Vitaphone plays, is the wife of Webster Campbell, a popular juvenile.

Photoplay Magazine has it that Jack Pickford, brother of "Our Mary," and Olive Thomas, the Zigfield Follies beauty, with Triangles, are wedded already.

Virginia Lee Corbin, who created the role of the Princess in "Jack and the Beanstalk" and "Aladdin and the Wonderful Lamp," the two William Fox Kiddie Features, has ordered a motor car, or at least her mother has ordered one for her.

VICE WAR STARTS; SEATTLE IS TARGET

Mr. McCort Recommends Federal Officers Eliminate Disorderly Houses.

PORTLAND CONDITION BAD

Investigator Cites Horrible Facts to Show Citizens Extent of Evil Wrought Among Soldiers by Prostitution.

Demobilization of the vice army of the Northwest will begin at once. John McCort, ex-United States Attorney for Oregon, returned yesterday from Seattle and Tacoma, where he conducted an investigation of vice problems as they affected the enlisted men in training at American Lake, on the grounds at the University of Washington and at Bremerton.

Today Mr. McCort will recommend that the Federal Government create a "free zone" covering Seattle and that the United States District Attorney for Washington be instructed to proceed to remove all prostitution from the confines of that district.

Mayor Gill Refuses Aid.

The authority for such action is found in the proclamation by President Wilson giving the Army and Federal officers jurisdiction within five miles of any training camp. Using the training ground on the university grounds as the central point, the zone will cover Seattle.

Mr. McCort will make the recommendation because of the lack of co-operation between the city officials of Seattle and the office of the District Attorney for Kings County.

Mayor Gill is said to contend that no prostitution is maintained in Seattle, and is said to have refused the District Attorney the aid of his police system. Mr. McCort is in possession of a lengthy report showing the places and inmates of various illicit houses.

Portland Officials Co-operate.

Mr. McCort is proceeding under an appointment recently extended him by the Foodick Commission, an organization created by the Secretary of War for the protection of enlisted men. Its purpose is to promote moral and physical health among the soldiers, to provide them with interesting amusements and to save their health. In Oregon he will proceed under the abatement law enacted a few years ago making the owners of property responsible for the illegal use of their buildings by prostitutes.

Police Hammered by Jurors. The latter hopes to create a public sentiment that will stand solidly for the eradication of prostitution by standing for convictions in the courts where the evidence justifies such a verdict.

It was pointed out yesterday that the Portland police in their efforts to control the spread of venereal diseases among the 50 who asked for a jury trial was arrested in one month. Every one of the 50 who asked for a jury trial was made to show men who make a profession as jurors just how the evil of prostitution may affect the boys who have come to Oregon to fight for world's democracy.

Statistics are available at the headquarters of the society in the Selling House showing the venereal diseases have invaded more soldiers of Canada than did bullets.

Loss of Men and Money Fearful. "There is a fearful loss of men and money through this evil, one that the mothers and fathers of the United States have thus far not comprehended," said Mr. McCort. "It takes three enlisted men to care for one case of venereal infection. That statement ought to mean something in the homes from which the boys have gone out."

"Conditions are bad here in Portland now," said Mr. McCort. "The officers there are vigilant. The commanding officer at American Lake has issued an order that all men be prohibited from visiting the city until it is cleaned up, except they go by special pass.

Unpleasant Facts Presented. "There are things that ought to be said about this business that might not look well in print, but they are slowly passing around the city by word of mouth and soon will be public property.

"It ought to be known that there are hundreds of young girls in Seattle and Portland who are not only now infected by venereal diseases, but a tremendous number of them are to bear children as the result of their being allowed to run around with soldiers.

"This situation is intolerable in a decent community and if parents will not protect their children the law must do it."

George J. Doser Files Divorce Suit Against Adah Doser.

After he had gone home on numerous occasions after a day's work and cooked supper, George J. Doser, in a divorce suit filed yesterday against Adah Doser, complains that his wife called him by telephone only to tell him that she had decided to remain down town for the evening meal and "would go to the show with some of the girls."

Doser charges that his wife, instead of going to a movie, went to Vancouver and passed the evenings with a soldier affinity. Doser asks the court to decree him the owner of a Ford machine.

Circuit Judge Littlefield, yesterday afternoon granted seven divorces as follows: Edith Mae Simmons vs. Carl T. Simmons; Lottie M. Houck vs. John L. Houck; L. Oida vs. Gladys Oida; Elizabeth J.
