

OREGON'S FUND IS $1,000,000 BIGGER

Liberty Loan Subscriptions Pour In and Enthusiasm Is Greatly Enhanced.

WEAK SPOTS BRACED UP

Workers in Country Districts Notified to Commander Best Tailored Available, if Necessary, in Country's Service.

(Continued From First Page.) Attention to the patriotic duty we all owe our country by subscribing generously to the second liberty loan.

"Up to date Portland is far behind in subscribing for its allotment.

"It is imperative that subscriptions be speedily and materially increased.

"Aside from heavily subscribing themselves, the Portland banks are willing to assist purchasers by loaning against the bonds at 5 per cent interest.

For example, if anyone wishes to purchase a $1000 bond, all that he needs is $20 for the first 2 per cent payment. Any clearing-house bank will loan him the remainder, $980, as the payments are required, to wit: 18 per cent November 15, 40 per cent December 15 and 40 per cent January 15, 1918.

Price Likely to Go Up. "It is probable the bonds can be sold at par at any time, but it is possible they may be worth more than par, as today United States is at 105.

"In the latter case the purchaser will be out nothing and will receive a premium for his patriotism. Taking a $1000 bond as an example, it is easy to figure the possible cost to the purchaser if he subscribes for $10,000, $20,000, $50,000 or $100,000 of bonds.

"When our depositors understand what little actual outlay becomes necessary in order to subscribe for a generous amount of bonds, there should be no difficulty in making good on its quota. With the banks willing to advance 98 per cent of any one's subscriptions, if our city does not take its quota, the shame and disgrace will justly rest upon those slackers who have failed the Government in its time of need.

Workers Are Commanded. Another step was taken yesterday that speaks of firm determination to reach the total asked of Oregon:

C. C. Chapman, at headquarters, sent out a sheaf of telegrams to banks in localities where weak spots have appeared to command the services of prominent citizens and conscript them for the task of raising bond subscriptions.

The order is absolute. Everything else is to be cast aside and a whirlwind finish, with the whole state aroused as never before, is now the predominant need of the hour.

"No loyal citizen can refuse to serve the Government in this work when the demand is made upon him," said Mr. Chapman. "Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of the liberty loan."

There were rousing scenes at Camp Withycombe yesterday afternoon, when a handful of spellbinders of the liberty loan campaign spoke to the 900 men of the Third Oregon now in camp.

Appeal Made to Soldiers. With the men drawn up at dress parade, short talks were made by Governor Withycombe, R. L. Sabie, Roseoe P. Hurst, General George A. White, Colonel Dentler and William Heidt.

Mr. Heidt, the father of the regiment, said: "Buy all the bonds you can. When you get over in France, if you want anything, consult your officers and let me know."

The men addressed have already bought bonds to the amount of $53,000, an added proof, if any were needed, of their intense loyalty. The average of bonds held by the regiment is about $80 for each man.

The Aetna Life Insurance Company yesterday announced to headquarters that it would purchase $1000 worth of bonds and present them to its 16 salaried employees here. The bonds become the absolute property of employees who remain with the company for a period of 20 months from date. Should any leave the Aetna employ, they will share in the bond funds on a pro rata basis for term of service. In addition, the company is selling bonds on easy terms to employees.

Club Purchase Advocated. Mrs. Sarah A. Evans will go to Prineville next Monday to attend the convention of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs. She will urge that surplus funds of the organization be invested in liberty bonds.

J. B. Easter, naturalization clerk in the offices of the County Clerk, will speak at 12:15 today to employees of the Nicolai-Nepuch Company and urge them to buy bonds.

Reports from the state at large came in briskly yesterday and, on the whole, were gratifying. C. C. Chapman telegraphed his congratulations to a number of banks and local committees where good work was being done.

An amusing feature of the state speaking campaign occurred Wednesday night at Cottage Grove, where Frank Hilton was to address the people on the importance of the liberty loan. With his audience assembled and the meeting nicely started, fire broke out at a nearby sawmill and the audience could not be held by Mr. Hilton's eloquence. They fled to fight the fire.

Mr. Hilton will attack Cottage Grove again next Wednesday night, posting trusty fire guards at prominent lookout points to slench and smother any incipient fires that may break out while he is speaking.

Reports were made by banks yesterday as follows:

WOMEN ASKED TO SELL BONDS

Campaign of Telephone and Personal Calls Will Be Organized.

Women planned an effective move in the second liberty loan drive yesterday. They made a direct appeal to wives and mothers of men who have enlisted in the Army and Navy to make a thorough canvass of their neighborhoods and ask subscriptions to bonds. They were directed from the headquarters of the Women's Liberty Loan Committee at Fifth and Stark streets headquarters by wire to make this unanswerable appeal to all from whom they ask subscriptions.

RETAILERS ARE RESPONDING

Z. Swett and Aaron Frank Bring In $75,200 After Canvass.

Portland retailers are coming to the aid of the liberty loan generally. Z. Swett and Aaron Frank, a committee on solicitation, made an encouraging report at liberty loan headquarters yesterday. They turned in a total of
