NORMAN HACKETT AND MAY BUCKLEY GO OVER HIGHWAY

Stars in "The Knife" Are Active in Behalf of Soldiers and Aid Will Be Solicited in Portland as Elsewhere.

YESTERDAY the two leading players in "The Knife," Eugene Walters' big virile drama at the Heilig, went out on the Columbia Highway. Norman Hackett saw the wonder road he has heard so much about, as the theater's Frederick V. Hoffman, a friend he made in the olden days when the Hackett name was synonymous with that of Wards-James in their Shakespearean tours.

The other tourist on the big road yesterday was May Buckley, who also is a visitor in Portland for the first time in years. Old friends made in the East greeted Miss Buckley upon her arrival here on Thursday and an early start yesterday with an all-day journey on the highway was one of the interesting events planned for her entertainment.

Both Miss Buckley and Mr. Hackett are intensely interested in all activities of the soldiers. Her heart is a Canadian by birth and a Minnesotan by adoption. His heart is with his Canadian and American brothers in this war drama, and he is practically interested in doing all he can to aid their cause.

Mr. Hackett points to the fact that over 3000 actors are enlisted in our army, and that out of 125 actors who went to Flattsburg, N. Y., for commission in the north, only 100 returned. He is proud of the women of the stage as well as of the women of the army.

It is the only organization composed solely of actresses, said Miss Buckley. "Heretofore, when women of the theater have banded together for any cause, women of other professions have been admitted. This is different. We have more than 1000 members, and more is being added constantly through efforts of individual widows and dependents of soldiers."

Archbishop to Celebrate.—Archbishop Christie is planning to observe in December the anniversary of his ordination in the priesthood. The Archbishop came to Portland in June, 1890, on his promotion from the bishopric of Vancouver Island. He was consecrated for the latter see in 1898. Previous to the Vancouver appointment he was pastor of St. Joseph's, Montreal, and a graduate of St. John's University, Minnesota, and Grand Seminary, Montreal. He was ordained a priest December 22, 1877.

Widow to Get No Damages.—A verdict for the defendants was returned by a jury in Circuit Judge Tucker's court yesterday in the suit of Mrs. W. W. Washburn against the estate of her husband, Taylor Washburn, who died in a fire on the morning of January 20, 1917.

WASHINGTON MINISTER COMES.—Rev. R. A. Moon, of Pomeroy, Wash., was called to Kern Park Christian Church to succeed Rev. G. K. Berry who has gone to Corona, Cal. Rev. Mr. Moon has accepted the call and will preach his first sermon in his new pulpit this morning. A farewell reception given at the church last Tuesday served to bid farewell to Mr. Berry and welcome Mr. Moon.

DR. W. T. POSTER TO BE HONORED.—Upon his arrival here next Tuesday evening, Dr. W. T. Poster will be met at the train by the Reed College military squad. The military drill is a feature of the college work this year and includes about 100 members, comprising most of the men students of the college. Arthur House, of the Senior class, has been appointed drillmaster.

BUDGET SESSIONS SET.—Meetings of the City Council to consider the budget estimates for 1918 will start next Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Mayor Baker yesterday issued a call for a meeting at that time. In sessions which probably will last two or three weeks the Council will go over all the budgets and decide on all appropriations to be made for next year.

LIQUOR VERDICT DUE TODAY.—A verdict in the conspiracy case against J. N. Craig, alleged purveyor of fine brandy whisky in shipment from California to this state, will be returned this morning in Federal Court. The case went to the jury yesterday noon. If Craig is convicted he will be largely upon the testimony of his own son, Steve Craig.

SPECIAL LIBERTY LOAN SERVICE PLANNED.—Special Liberty Loan Service will be held at Trinity Episcopal Church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock when Dr. A. Morrison, rector of the church, will preach on "An All-American Fight." Dr. Morrison will make a stirring appeal to his parishioners to stand by the Government and do their duty as citizens.

PHILIP CHAPERON DIES.—Philip Chaperon, for the last 44 years a resident of Oregon, died last night at St. Vincent's Hospital. Mr. Chaperon was born in England in 1847. His Portland residence was at 922 East Salmon street. He is survived by his widow and a son, William Chaperon, who is now with the Oregon troops at Camp Greiner, North Carolina.

TIMBER WORKER INJURED.—L. Galle, 64, a timber worker, was injured about the chest and shoulder yesterday when a timber fell on him while at work east of the city. He was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital for treatment. His condition is not critical.

CALVARY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—President Wallace H. Lee, of Albany College, will preach on "An All-American Fight" at 10:30 A. M., "A Pattern Prayer," 7:30 P. M., "Our Father in Heaven," 7:30 P. M., at the Calvary Presbyterian church, Broadway, between Yamhill and Taylor. There is opportunity for free discussion and all are welcome.—Adv.

SOLDIERS WANT TYPEWRITER.—Portland soldiers attached to Motor-Transport Company 322 are in need of a typewriter and want some public spirited citizen to donate one. Mayor Baker says he will be glad to receive donations of a machine or money for one, which will be forwarded at once to the company.

TAYLOR STREET CHURCH.—Sunday morning service will be conducted tomorrow at 10:30 o'clock in the hall at 125 Fourth st. (near Washington). Sermon by Dr. M. H. Marvin on the topic "The Spiritual Basis of Democracy," followed by Sunday school. The general public is invited.—Adv.

greatly lightened, in our view, by using the card system which the Assessor has prepared from the tax roll, and which contains the names of all taxpayers who own real estate in the county. They are alphabetically arranged, and duplications could be readily avoided for the reason that cards for the same person having separate assessments follow one another in consecutive order. In addition to these there is the personal tax roll arranged alphabetically, and those cards could be used for checking persons who appear upon both the real property and the personal property rolls. We are sure the Assessor will place these cards at your disposal for this purpose as soon as he completes his index, or perhaps earlier if desired.

In offering these suggestions there is nothing of criticism of the present method of selection, and no intimation that the action of the Commissioners and District Attorney was in violation of the law in any respect. We think all taxpayers are entitled to the highest possible plan of impartiality that can be obtained under the law.

EACH TO NAME THREE

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS TO SELECT BUDGET COMMITTEE.

Board Passing on Appropriations This Year Will Not Include Any Officials.

At their meeting next Monday the County Commissioners will select the official budget committee of nine members. It will report its recommendations to the board of county officials. Heretofore the County Assessor and Auditor have been members of the committee, with the privilege of voting. This year three officials will serve only as advisory members of the committee. The budget committee will examine the estimates of expenditures for the ensuing year submitted by the heads of each of the 50 departments of the county government and make recommendations, either approving or disapproving different items. The committee will also be called upon to pass on any unusual requests for appropriations outside of the routine requirements for operating expenses.

ATTENTION!

Liberty Bond Buyers.

The Commerce Safe Deposit and Mortgage Company has set aside one of its fire and burglar proof safes for the safe keeping of Liberty Bonds. This service will be furnished free to all purchasers of Liberty Bonds who have no convenient and safe place for their keeping. This company will give its official receipts for all bonds so deposited with it.—COMMERCE SAFE DEPOSIT AND MORTGAGE COMPANY, 91 Third street, Chamber of Commerce building.—Adv.

GAMBLING REPORTS HEARD

Rev. O. W. Taylor Given Carte Blanche by Mayor to Call Police.

As a result of reports made to Mayor Baker by Rev. O. W. Taylor, who has received information that gambling is being permitted in Portland, Mayor Baker has given Dr. Taylor free rein to call on as many policemen and detectives as he may need to raid alleged gambling places and make arrests. "The police bureau has been doing everything in its power to run down cases of gambling," said the Mayor yesterday. "I have told Dr. Taylor that if he has any information or wants any police force is at his command in a crusade. I have told him also that we will act on any information he can give us. We must have a case before we can get a conviction, and I have invited him to present any evidence he can give us. We can find and we will go the limit in helping him get a conviction."

BELGIAN BABIES BENEFIT

War Orphans to Be Cared For From Golf Tournament Proceeds.

A sum sufficient to care for a large number of Belgian war orphans is expected to result from the war baby benefit golf tournament at the Portland Golf Club, for which Sam E. Aronson is manager.

PANEL TO BE DRAWN

NEW METHOD OF SELECTING PROSPECTIVE JURORS ADOPTED.

Circuit Judges Plan to Be Put Into Effect Next Week by County.

2500 Names to Be Picked.

Adopting the plan outlined at a recent conference between the Judges of the Circuit Court and members of the bar, the County Commissioners next week will arrange for drawing the names of 2500 Multnomah County taxpayers for jury service in 1918. In a letter to the Commissioners yesterday, Presiding Judge Kavanaugh and the other five Circuit Judges suggested the following method of selecting jurors: Write upon separate cards the name of each taxpayer appearing upon the last preceding assessment roll, eliminating the names of corporations, copartnerships and women. Put these cards in the bag, and after thorough mingling, draw out 2500 names. Those who are expressly exempt by statute from jury service, or who are non-residents, should be discarded and the balance retained. Again draw a sufficient number to fill the complement, eliminating exempt and non-resident taxpayers as before. The same method until the full quota is obtained. When the list is complete their names should be entered in the journal as a record of official business. In securing the address and occupation of each juror finally selected we are not advised of any source available other than consulting the city directory, telephone directories, the stubs of tax receipts for previous years, and such other sources of information as are now at your disposal.

We are advised that the assessment roll for 1917 is now completed, and we are of the opinion that this is the "last preceding assessment roll" contemplated by the statute. The labor of securing the names could be
