

FOOD MEDICINE MUST BE LICENSED BY NOV. 1

Drastic Control by Government Intended to Regulate Retail Prices.

HOARDING TO BE BARRED

Oregon Food Administrator Ayer in Receipt of Notice From Herbert Hoover to Notify Big Dealers of New Regulations.

All dealers who do a business of $100,000 or more annually in foodstuffs will be required to take out a license prior to November 1...

W. B. Ayer, Federal food administrator for Oregon, received instructions yesterday from Herbert Hoover...

Applications for license must be made to License Division, Food Administration, Law Department, Washington, D. C....

This move is looked upon as the most drastic actual step to regulate retail prices taken by the food administration...

A significant statement issued by the Food Administrator's office last night reads in part:

"It is not the purpose of the Food Administration to disturb the normal activities of business, but there must be no hoarding of foods; there must be no manipulation or speculation in foods, and there must be no unfair or unreasonable profits...

"Authority to suspend licenses and impose penalties is vested in the food administration, but the great object of the administration is to protect the great majority of patriotic producers and distributors...

"Grocers' Give Information. Dealers whose business annually is too small to come under the license requirements will be controlled by public opinion...

The license requirement carries a number of exceptions, but all food dealers who have been licensed by the administrator's office before November 1...

the series of Oregon and California land grant cases. Four real estate operators, charged with falsifying Government lands and fraudulently locating settlers thereon, are concerned in the charges. They are W. E. Halliwell, Tacoma; W. F. Lick, Tacoma; Gottlieb Miller, Portland, and George F. Young, Spokane.

ROSEBURG, Or., Oct. 19.—(Special.)—Ed Hamlin, a rancher living in the Tiller section of this county, about 49 miles from Roseburg, where the forest fires have been raging for the past few weeks, bound a forest "firebug" early this week.

such prize might be considered in the nature of a rebate the Commission has not yet decided.

Mrs. Kate Esther Hahn, daughter of the late Horace D. Ramsdell and Mrs. Helen G. Ramsdell, and wife of Ralph Hahn, of Wadhams & Co., died last night at the Coe Maternity Home.

While absent less than an hour, when Mr. Hamlin and his party returned the man was missing, the rope with which he had been tied having been literally stripped with a sharp knife.

Freemont, O.—"I was passing through the critical period of life, being forty-six years of age and had all the symptoms incident to that change—heat flashes, nervousness, and was in a general run down condition, so it was hard for me to do my work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me as the best remedy for my troubles, which it surely proved to be. I feel better and stronger in every way since taking it, and the annoying symptoms have disappeared."—Mrs. M. Godden, 925 Napoleon St., Fremont, Ohio.

Mrs. Hahn is survived by her widow, and four children, Catharine, aged 8 years; Harriet, 7; Susan, 2, and a son born one day ago; besides her mother, two sisters, Mrs. Horace Ramsey, and Dorothy Ramsdell, and a brother, V. Ramsdell.

It is thought that the fellow had a pal close at hand and when Hamlin left he released his friend and the two escaped.

North Haven, Conn.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored my health after everything else had failed when passing through change of life. There is nothing like it to overcome the trying symptoms."—Mrs. FLORENCE ISABELLA, Box 197, North Haven, Conn.

The body was taken to Holman's undertaking parlors, and interment will be in Riverview cemetery. The funeral arrangements will not be completed pending the arrival of Mrs. Ramsdell from the East.
