completed by James John during the game Saturday against Oregon, although Athletic Director Bohler today said that Kienholz, his understudy, probably will be forced into the game early.

Fred Glover, Doane and Boone, survivors of last year's crew, will start the game in the backfield, Glover at fullback. It is expected that Gillis, an inexperienced player, but strong on the defensive, will substitute for Doane before the end of the first half, since the latter player wobbles about on two weak knees.

Bob Schebley will be at center, with Benbow in reserve.

With Herreid and Hamilton at the tackle berths, Stites and McCroskey for guards and Captain Clarence Zimmerman and Roy Hanley on the wings, Oregon should meet considerable opposition in her attacks.

Completed by James John during the game. Washington intercepted two more and blocked three attempts.

At the start of the game it looked like the Washington lads would win. On the kickoff Girt, of James John, fumbled and Washington got the ball. Washington, aided by an end run by Dalton, shoved James John back inside the five-yard line. Here James John stemmed the onisunght, and took the ball. W. Schroeder punted the side out of danger. The quarter ended without a score.

The first quarter was the only one in which James John did not have Washington at their mercy.

We Schroeder opened the second quarter with a forward pass to Smith for 15 yards, after which the former made two 20-yard end runs. A 15-yard forward pass to Spackman, and an end run, enabled Bill Schroeder is score the first touchdown. He kicked the goal line for the beal on Washington's 20-yard line, and here W.
